RATHER UNEASY.—Some of the "mulatto papers" of these parts are growing ridiculously sensative, when any allusion is made to their rejoicing over the late victories of their "woolly head" brethren in the North. Yet the same sheets advocate the UNION OF ALL parties in the country to put down what they are pleased to call the "Buchanan Democracy."—Now what is the distinguishing feature of the Buchanan Democracy? FIDELITY TO THE CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS OF THE SOUTH With the overthrow of the Buchanan Democracy will fall every guarantee which the constitution gives to slaveholders. Yet the MULATTO PAPERS in the south would unite with the abolitionists to overthrow the democracy under such circumstances! The slavery question is really the only issue upon which parties are divided, the Democrats and Republicans both being a unit in opposition to Know Mothingism, and there is no probability that that insane heresy will ever be again revived. A union of all the elements opposed to the Democracy can only be effected by the Know Nothings going over to the abolitionists, which they are doing in most of the States as fast as "The Blacks" will receive them. An equal share of the spoils is all that is asked by the Know Nothings as the price of their submission to Black Republican rule. When PRINCIPLE is out of the way, and HONOR is discarded, there is little trouble to arrange a treaty on the basis of the spoils. The MULATTOS are already "on the road to Boston."—STAR.

Did mortal man ever read a greater conglomeration of Know Nothingism, Republicanism, Democracy, mispresentation and contradiction? Had the editor of the Star have studied for a week he could not have thought of a caption more suitable for his own case than the one to the above paragraph. He certainly must have been sitting on a pile of thistles when he penned the article, for it bears on its very face an evidence that the editor was writing for buncomb, but his dreadful position greatly effected his nerves. "The distinguishing feature of the Buchanan Democracy, is fidelity to the constitutional rights of the South." That's the picture the Star paints now, but how was it when Mr. Buchanan was seeking the suffrages of the people—east, west, north and south? He was then everywhere—according to his party papers alike favorable to all sections, only when good opportunity afforded, and then in the North it was Buchanan and free Kansas and in the South Buchanan and slavery in that ternity, but as a two-faced man is destined eventually to show his cloven foot, the Buchanan party are now reaping their reward. Here is another admission which the Star has heretofore fought against—and we should think a real choker to the Democracy. "The slavery question is really the only issue upon which parties are divided, the Democrats and Republicans both being a unit in opposition to Know Nothingism, and there is no probability that that insane hereasy will ever again be revived." Stick a pin there, for it certainly is different talk from that he generally puts forth. When a man makes an assertion we must take it for what it is worth, so as the Democrats and Republicans have joined hands and the editor of the Star jumps upon his roost, flaps his wings and gives a loud crow, we are in hopes that we shall not hear any more of the mixture of "Know Kothingism" and Republicanism. The editor also says that the "Know Nothings are going over as fast as the "Blacks" will receive them," when according to his own statement, the Democracy have already gone over, sole and body and they have become a "unit."

[illegible]ise the editor to get a little easi[illegible]at time (if possible, under the present state of affairs) and not make himself not only the editor of a "mulatto" paper, but of a sheet darker than a "chesnut color." But if he desires that avocation he has a right to pursue it—"every one to their taste."

NEW COUNTY MAP.—We see that Mr. Dilworth has returned from New York where he has been for some time superintending the construction of a map for Talbot County. The Map presents a very neat and clean appearance—and gives to the stranger, on a single glence, every particular point in the county. Mr. D. certainly deserves great credit and should receive the hearty support of the citizens of the county in his undertaking. We understand a few—after subscribing have become so poverty-stricken as to compel them to refuse it. This looks very ungenerous, when too, we take into consideration Mr. D. has been at so great an expense to secuae what our county has long been wanting, and he being dependent upon his work for his own and familie's livelyhood. Such pretenses and excuses, it will be seen places him into a very awkward position.

BY reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that on Tuesday, the 16th inst, at 2 o'clock, P. M., all the negroes belonging to the estate of the late Nicholas Martin, Jr., are to be sold at public sale to bona fide residents of Talbot county. As these negroes have always borne a first rate character and are sold for no fault, we predict that they will bring high prices and will find good homes in the county.

PUBLIC SALE.—We call attention to the large sale of Household and Kitchen Furniture, Farming Implements, Farm Stock, &c. &c., to be held at the late residence of Nicholas Martin, Jr., Esq., in Island Creek Neck on Friday next, the 12th inst For particulars see advertisement.

THANKS.—Mr. Jno. Small of the Trappe District will please accept our thanks for a bushel of the finest Irish potatoes we have seen this season. They are of the white mercer variety and six of them weighed five pounds.

"PILGRIMS' PROGRESS."—It will be seen by advertisement in another column that the Panorama of the Pilgrims' Progress which has attracted so much attention in Baltimore, will be on exhibition in Easton, on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week. The well known ability of the Artist, T. C. RUCKLE, in this county, will no doubt, draw many to see the work of his hand.

THANKSGIVING DAY IN MARYLAND.—Gov. Hicks has issued his proclamation, appointing Thursday, the 25th inst., as a Day of Thanksgiving, and invoking the people of the State to observe it by abstaining from all secular employment, and by uniting in public acts of devotion in gratitude to the Creator for the benefits of the past, and imploring His blessing and guidance in the future.

SEVERAL advertisements and articles of interest have been crowded out—we desiring to give as full election returns as possible.

ANOTHER TERRIBLE MURDER IN CINCINNATI.

Another deed of blood—exhibiting a terrible commentary on the increasing depravity of "fast young men"—occurred in Cincinnati on Saturday night. It appears that Charles Cook, son of the senior of the firm of Cook, Adams & Co., lumber dealers; Wm. Seiter, son of George Seiter, baker, and Wm. Swift, son of one of the firm of Pendleton, Swift & Co., dry goods merchants, visited a house of questionable repute, kept by Caroline Watts alias Davis.—Here one of them got into a dispute with Kate Beareau, who was knocked down and terribly beaten, and finally received a stab from a knife in the side. A minute after, says the Gazette, one of the girls of the house bent over Kate, and told her she could not live, and advised her to pray.—The sin-stained courtezan, in that hour of blood, could realize the necessity of prayer—of asking forgiveness for the manifold transgressions of her erring sister, whose spirit was rapidly passing to its final account! And the victim of "the liberty of the knife" did pray—while the gaping wound in her side gave utterance to a breathing sound with every word that was uttered! She prayed for herself, for her husband and child, (who reside in New Orleans,) and sank into the arms of death with the prayer still upon her lips. What a scene for a brother! What a volume of admonitions for the frail sisters who listened to that last prayer of the dying!

The three young men were immediately arrested, but as swift did not actively participate in the murder he was released in $5,000 bail for a further hearing. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict against Cook as the principal in the murder and Seiter as an accessory. The deceased was about 26 years of age, and of great personal attractions. The Gazette adds:

Cook, the alleged murderer, is, perhaps, 20 years of age, and is the son of a wealthy citizen. Of late years he has been regarded as a pretty wild boy, and some time since his father gave him $700, with which to go to California. He went to New York for that purpose, but the vessel upon which he took passage met with some slight accident when a few hours out and returned to port. Cook then concluded to give up his trip to California, and returned to his home in this city. The parents of the young men are in the deepest distress, and the murder has created no little excitement.

THE NEW TREATY WITH JAPAN.—A correspondent writes to the Boston Herald from Hakodadi, Japan, under date of August 18, giving interesting notices of the new treaty effected by Col. Harris with the Emperor. By this treaty, he says:

"The port of Simoda, of no account to us, will be closed, and the beautiful harbor of Lanagua, only twelve miles from the city of Jeddo, is to be opened to us for commerce, &c. After the treaty is ratified, that port will be the residence of Mr. Harris.

It is a beautiful harbor, easy of access at all times of the year, well protected from all storms, and it is not like that of Simoda, surrounded at its extremes by sunken rocks. It is also capable of accommodating a large number of ships, while that of Simoda is not large enough to allow more than three or four ships to ride at anchor at the same time. Its proximity to the Court of Jeddo will also make it convenient for Col. Harris.

The Japanese Government has decided to send an Ambassador to Washington, in March next, on the condition that our Government will convey him and his suite to Panama in a government ship en route for the United States. I learn that Colonel Harris and Commodore Tatnall assured the authorities of Jeddo that it would be gratifying to the United States Government and its people to comply with this request, and that the return mail would no doubt bring orders to that effect.

Sunday, August 1, was an interesting one at Simoda. At 10 o'clock, A. M., all the boats of the Powhatan and of this ship were seen pulling to the landing, near the Consul's residence, one mile from Simoda proper, filled with officers and men, among whom were Commodore Tatnall, Captain Nicholson and the Rev. Mr. Wood, Chaplain of the Powhatan. This party, numbering four hundred, proceeded to the Consul's residence for the purpose of attending Divine Worship of Almighty God on Japanese soil. It was an interesting time to us all, and the very idea of being able to worship the Most High in this land of Heathenism and Idolatry, was extremely gratifying."

NEW COUNTERFEIT.—A new and very dangerous counterfeit was put in circulation in this city yesterday. It purports to be of the Bank of Howardsville, Virginia, and is extremely well engraved, but it differs materially from the original. The counterfeit has on the left hand upper corner a landscape, while the landscape in the genuine note is in the centre; and on the right hand side is a medallion head of Washington, instead of a figure five as in the genuine. On the bottom of the note there is a shield, while in the genuine there is a figure of a woman. It may be well also to state that the note is printed on paper of a slightly yellowish tint, which may induce some persons to suppose the paper was purposely colored to prevent counterfeits.

NOVEMBER ELECTIONS.

The thunder of public condemnation still continues to break in deafening peals upon the astonished ears of the miserable cohorts of Lecompton democracy. Important elections took place on Tuesday in New York, New Jersey, Wisconsin, Massachusetts, Illinois, Delaware, and Michigan; and, as far as heard from, but one result is manifest, viz: an unexampled opposition victory. We collate the news as follows:

NEW YORK.

In this State, besides 33 Congressmen, a Governor (E. D. Morgan, Republican,) and other State officers were also elected. The Congressional delegation is conceded to stand—Republicans 26; Democrats 7, though the opposition give the latter but 5 members. We give the names according to the first figures, viz:

Luther C. Carter, rep.; Jas. Humphrey, rep.; Daniel E. Sickles, dem.; Thomas J. Barn, dem.; Wm. B. Maclay, dem.; John Cockrane, dem.; Geo. Briggs, rep.; Horace F. Clark, A. L. dem.; John B. Haskin, A. L. dem.; Chas. H. Van Wyck, rep.; E. P. Strong, dem.; Chas. L. Beale, rep.; Abram B. Olin, rep.; John H. Reynolds, rep.; James McKean, rep.; Geo. W. Palmer, rep.; Francis E. Spaulding, rep.; Reuben E. Fenton, rep. Democrats, 7; Republicans, 26.

The present delegation stands—republicans 21, democrats 12—republican gain 5.

There is also a large opposition majority in the State Legislature. Hon. Thos. G. Alvord, democrat, and the Speaker of the last Assembly, has been defeated in the Second district of Onondaga county, by H. W. Slocumb, the republican candidate.

ALBANY, Nov. 3.—The Journal has full returns from twenty-five counties showing a net Republican gain of 25,000 votes—The Journal estimates that Morgan's majority in the whole State will be 20,000.

NEW JERSEY.

NEWARK, Nov. 3.—The republicans and anti-Lecomptonites have carried this State. The congressmen elect are as follows:

1st district—John T. Nixon, opposition—no change. 2d district—John L N Stratton, republican—no change. 3d district—G B Adrian, anti-Lecompton dem.—no change. 4th district—J R Riggs, anti-Lecompton dem., in place of John Huyler, Lecompton dem. 5th district—Ex-Governor Pennington, republican, in place of Wortendyke, dem.

The Legislature is republican.

WISCONSIN.

The only news from this State is from the 2d Congressional district, the returns indicating nothing but simply stating that Charles Dana, democrat, is 935 ahead as far as heard from. The present delegation is unanimously Republican.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—A few additional returns have been received from Wisconsin. In the 2d district, portions of Kane and Rock counties, Wasburne, repub., for Congress is 30 ahead. There is a large loss on Fremont's vote.

MILWAUKIE, Nov. 3.—The election yesterday is believed to have resulted in no change in the Congressional delegation.—The returns thus far being favorable to the re-election of Porter, Washburne and Billinghurst, all republicans.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The returns from all the State except 15 towns give Banks, Am. rep., for Governor, 65,000; Beach, dem., 36,000; and Lawrence, straight Am., 12,000. Of the Senators elected, 37 are republicans and 3 democrats. The House of Representatives stands 192 republicans, 29 democrats and 10 Americans, with nine to hear from.

Mr. Burlingame's majority for Congress is upwards of 400. The entire congressional delegation is republican, the same as at the last election.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—In Sagamon county, five precincts show a democratic gain of 199 over the vote of 1856, when the united opposition carried the county by 311 maj.

In Madison county, Alton city gives the democratic State and Congressional tickets about 100 majority.

In this city (Chicago) the republican majority is 960. Four republicans are elected to the Legislature.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—There were over 15,000 votes polled in this city yesterday; of which the Administration ticket received only 246 votes.

In Sangamon county Douglas gains two members of the Legislature.

PORT ST. CLAIR, Nov. 3.—Baker, republican, has 200 maj. for Congress. Scattering returns from 12 counties give 1,080 republican majority, being a large reduction upon the majorities of 1856.

As far as heard from the Legislature is composed as follows: House—Republicans 35, democrats 33 and 7 doubtful. Senate—Republicans 11, democrats 11 and 3 in doubt.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—The doubtful counties are as follows: Fulton, which elects two members to the Legislature. It gave 150 democratic majority in 1856. Madison county, electing two members, which has been republican and American by a large majority McDonough county electing one member—it gave 70 republican majority in 1856. Hancock county, electing one member, democratic. Wabash and White counties, electing one member, democratic.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—The Press has dispatches from Chicago, from a reliable source, stating emphatically that Douglas has a triumphant majority in the Legislature.

DELAWARE.

WILMINGTON, Nov. 3d.—The Democratic State ticket, as well as the Legislative, are elected. In Newcastle county, Whitely, dem., for Congress has 50 maj. In Kent 167. In Sussex, five boroughs are to hear from, but thus far Whitely has 210 majority.

Newcastle gives Buckmaster, Opposition, for Governor, a majority of 30.

MICHIGAN.

☞ Returns from the election in Michigan so far as received show that the Congressional delegation is undoubtedly Republican. The present delegation, numbering 4, is unanimously Republican.

We recapitulate, in conclusion, the result of the Fall elections, as far as heard from. as follows:

Heavy Bank Robbery.

DELHI, N. Y., Nov. 2d.—The Delaware Bank at this place was entered on Sunday evening and robbed of funds to the amount of thirty-seven thousand dollars of mutilated notes of the bank, thirteen thousand dollars of other bills, eight thousand dollars of gold, and the balance in miscellaneous funds. A reward of three thousand dollars is offered for the detection of the rogues and recovery of the money.

GAMBLING AT BADEN-BADEN.—A correspondent of the Newark Mercury, giving his impressions of the town of Baden-Baden, says:—"The gambling saloons here are astonishing. The Conversationshaus, a splendid edifice or cluster of edifices, is rented by the government to a set of gamblers for the enormous sum of $130,000 a year, and it is open to gambling night and day, and several large rooms are crowded. I saw at least 300 men, women and children at once, and at the game called Rouge-et-Noir the sums staked are enormous.—In the course of half an hour I saw many thousands of dollars change hands. Frequently at a single turn of a card fifteen thousand francs were lost and won. It was curious to watch the visages of the crew, and see with what stoic indifference they seemed to win or lose. But I was satisfied that their unconcern was only apparent, for as they turned from the table their countenances elongated or widened, accordingly as they had succeeded or failed. It was awful to see women thus occupied, but still more so to see parents bringing their children and educating them in vice. I saw children, not eight years old, with pockets full of gold, gambling at the table, their parents standing back of them and watching with delight their success. It was a tearful place—a hell on earth. The gang here assembled seemed to me to be demons, and I instinctively buttoned my coat for fear of being robbed.

COURT.—The November term of Dorchester County Circuit Court will commence on next Monday.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS—Caution to the sick.—As these invaluable preparations have been counterfeited, it will be requisite to see that the water-mark, "Holloway, New York and London," is on every sheet of the pamphlet in which the Ointment and Pills are enwrapped. To find this test of authenticity, hold the paper to the light. As it is a matter of deep concern to the victims of eruptive, cancerous, scrofulous, and other external diseases that they have the genuine Ointment, and equally important to dyspeptics, billious patients, and all sufferers from internal complaints that they have the true Pills, we recommend a careful scrutiny in all cases.

"He has fought the last battle,
He has slept his last sleep,
The tyrant, death's rattle
Hath made many weep;
He has gone from his home,
To another more blest,
Where no sorrow is known,
No grief nor distress.

We thought him too young
To be thus snatched away,
The work, now begun,
Oh! where will it stay?
With a tear and a sigh,
The sad truth is told,
That the young, too, may die,
As well as the old.

They dug him a grave
In the church-yard near by,
Where the green willows wave,
Where his dear father lies;
A mound newly made,
Now marks out the spot,
Where the body was laid,
But the spirit was not.

The youth hath departed,
The bloom passed away,
Of the once noble hearted,
The once so gay;
While we weep o'er him gone,
Let it not be forgot,
That his spirit hath flown,
Where the soul dieth noth.
