And thereupon the following affidavits of Michael Vetter and William M. Meek were filed in Court here in said Cause, to wit,

State of Maryland, City of Baltimore Sct, On this ninth day of November A.D. 1859 before me the Subscriber a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland in and for the City of Baltimore aforesaid personally appeared Michael Vetter and William made oath on the Holy Evangelys of Almighty God that he is acquainted with the place called "Leg Weary" in Baltimore County, owned by George C. Pfeltz in his lifetime; that he is willing to rent the said place & pay for the same the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars per year if possession can be secured him; that the said yearly rent of one hundred and fifty dollars is a reasonable rent and by no means Exhorbitant; that he is fully able to pay the full amount of said rent should crops not fail. And he further makes oath that one hundred dollars would be a fair and reasonable rent for the place for the time it has been occupied by Julius Peter Pfeltz.

State of Maryland, City of Baltimore Sct. On this 14th day of November A.D. 1859 before the Subscriber a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland in and for the City of Baltimore aforesaid personally appeared William M. Meek and made oath on the Holy Evangelys of Almighty God that during the fall of 1859 he has bought at the Point Market Cabbage in lots from Julius Peter Pfeltz and that on Tuesday the 10th day of November 1859 he purchased from a young man at the Point Market sent to market he presumes by Julius Peter Pfeltz two hundred and sixteen head of Cabbage. Deponent asked the young man why he had not come to market on the Saturday evening previous, to which he replied that he could not as there was some law suit going on, but that he had come that day. Deponent had previously made an arrangement with Julius Peter Pfeltz to buy all the Cabbage he sent to market and though Julius Peter Pfeltz was not at market as he says on Tuesday last, he deponent recognized the horse and wagon as Julius Peter Pfeltz's and thinks that he also recognized the young man having he believes previously seen him with Mr Pfeltz; the young man also recognized him as knowing him if he were not the same person who always purchased the old man's meaning Julius Peter Pfeltz Cabbage: Deponent then asked the young man what he should pay him for the Cabbage to which he replied that the old man meaning Pfeltz, told him to leave that to him, deponent.
