their and each of their Heirs Executors and administrators shall well and truly abide by perform and fulfill each and every of the articles terms and conditions of the award and determination of the said two above named Arbitrators as aforesaid and of the award decision and determination of the said three Arbitrators or of a majority of them upon all and every point on which two of said Arbitrators shall concur and agree then and in such case the above obligation shall be void and of none effect otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue,

Sealed and delivered in presence of } R H Stuart (Seal)

C H Carter (Seal)

Exhibit C B C No 2

Whereas by a certain Bond or obligation bearing date the 28 day of July 1846 Charles H Carter and R H Stuart were jointly and severally held and firmly bound to Charles B Calvert in the penal sum of Thirty Thousand dollars, and Whereas the said Charles B Calvert by another Bond or obligation bearing date the same day and year aforesaid became bound to the said Charles H Carter and Richard H Stuart in the like penal sum of conditions written under the said recited Bonds whereby after reciting that Whereas the said Charles H Carter and Richard H Stuart in right of their respective wives daughters of George Calvert and Rosalie Eugenia Calvert deceased and the children of the said Charles H Carter by virtue of the Last Will and testament of their Mother claim to be entitled to certain portions of the Estates of said George Calvert and Rosalie Eugenia Calvert and of the Father and any other relations and ancestors of said Rosalie Eugenia which Estates have come to the hands of the said Charles B Calvert as the legal representative of the said Father George Calvert deceased, And Whereas the said parties have eventually agreed that all the differences between them and among them and all and claims as aforesaid shall be left to the friendly arbitrament and decision according to the principles of Law and Equity of persons mutually to be chosen by them in order to avoid all and every litigation in Court among the members of the same family, and Whereas the said parties have mutually agreed to refer and submit all said matters to the decision and arbitrament of Richard S Cross and Joseph H Bradley with full power and authority to the said Richard and Joseph in case of any disagreement between them to select and agree upon a third person to be associated with them in said arbitration and that the decision and award of the said Richard and Joseph upon all points in which they may concur and agree and the decision and award of said three or a majority of them upon all and matters whatsoever shall be final and conclusive between said parties, The Condition of the said obligations was and is such that if the said Charles H Carter and R H Stuart their heirs and each of their Heirs Executors and administrators shall and the said Charles B Calvert his Heirs executors and administrators shall well and truly abide by stand and perform and fulfill each and every of the articles terms and conditions of the award decision and determination of the said two above named arbitrators aforesaid, and of the award decision and determination of the said three Arbitrators or of a Majority of them upon all and every point upon which two of said Arbitrators shall concur and agree then and in such case the said obligation to be void and of none effect.

And the said Richard S Cross and Joseph H Bradley having taken in themselves the burthen of said arbitration and having given due notice to the parties to them and presented their respective claim demands and pretensions together with their vouchers and proofs in support thereof and having received from said parties respectively their several respective claims demands and allegations together with their vouchers and proofs in support thereof respectively and upon deliberation and consideration thereof differ in various points did by writing select and agree on George R Bebb to be associated with them in said arbitration and now the said Richard S Cross George R Bebb and Joseph H Bradley having duly considered and deliberated on the several allegations claims demands and pretensions and the vouchers and proofs in different respectively do in pursuance of the said premises make and publish this our award of and concerning the premises in manner following that is to say, We do find, That at the death of the said George Calvert that is to say on the 28 day of January 1838 the said George Calvert was indebted to Rosalie Carter wife of said Charles H Carter and daughter of said George Calvert in the aggregate gross sum of Eight Thousand and Thirty three dollars and fifty cents. $8,033.50.

That the said George Calvert was at the period last aforesaid indebted to Thos R Stuart late of said R H Stuart and daughter of said George Calvert in the aggregate gross sum of seven hundred Ten Hundred and twenty six dollars and thirty two cents $7426.32.

We do further find That the Estate of Rosalie existing in specie and unchanged hath descended to the five heirs of said George and Rosalie Eugenia Calvert of whom the daughters are tenants as tenants in common.

We do further find that the Estate of Henry Lee in the State of Maryland hath also descended to the said