June Term 1859

Heirs as tenants in common subject to a payment to the Estate aforesaid George Calbert upon the sales thereof in the proportion of - and for that is to say of the same sum for $1000 The sum of $250 shall be paid thereon to the Estate of said George Calbert and the residue divided into four equal parts to one of which the said Charles H Carter and R H Stewart respectively will each be entitled

We further find that payments to a considerable amount have been made by the said Charles B Calbert to the said Charles H Carter and Robert H Stewart respectively on account of the said several and respective sums of $8039 51 and $7,426 69 since the death of said George Calbert for which he is entitled to credit thereon.

We do therefore award order and adjudge that a fair account be taken between the respective parties of the balance due of any of the said respective sums of money so as aforesaid due by the said George Calbert at the time of his death and that the same be paid or tendered to the said Charles H and R H respectively, that the Estate of Dency Land be forthwith sold if the consent of all the heirs thereto can be obtained and the proceeds of sale after paying expenses the same to the Estate of said George Calbert the proportion thereof hereinbefore found. That the residue be directed equally among the Heirs with proportions as have stated Charles to say one fifth part thereof to each of the said parties and inasmuch as we are informed by the parties that they have settled and amicably adjusted among themselves their respective rights in the Riversdale Estate we award a confirmation of that settlement and the execution thereof by the parties respectively, and in the final payment of the several sums hereinbefore directed we further award that the parties shall execute to each other mutual releases of every claim heretofore pertaining to them.

Given under our hands and seals this 2 day of January 1848.
