SATURDAY MORNING . . . JANUARY 15, 1859.

HUMOROUS.

A ROMANTIC WEDDING.—On an evening not long since, Miss B——, a beautiful young lady, was engaged to marry two gentlemen at the same hour, Mr. G—— and Mr. M——. At the appointed time, these two hopeful lords of creation made their appearance, ready and equipped with lawful credentials, no doubt each exulting in his good fortune as being the "chosen of her heart," and around his vived fancy played etherial beings, that pictured to his imagination "fields of Eden and skies of light." The Rev. Mr. W—— was engaged by both of them. On the arrival of the parties at the bride's house, each claimed her hand, to the utter astonishment of the other, and valiantly contended for the prize.

The parson had a private interview with the contending parties, and, finding they could not settle the matter satisfactorily, suggested that they leave it to the public decision of the bride, to which they at length agreed. She was apprised of the fact, and accordingly met them both in a room filled with guests. Rev. W—— then told her that Mr. G—— and Mr. M—— were present, and presented claims for her hand in marriage, each having license to that effect, and she must now, in the presence of these witnesses, decide which should be the favored one.

"There they stood, side by side,
The BRIDEGROOMS and the blushing bride;
Around her form, so fair and light,
A spotless robe of simple white;
A blush her brighter brow o'erspread
As she bravely raised her head and said,"

"I believe I will take the one with the 'yallow' jacket on." This being her decision, Mr. M——, being rejected, withdrew, and the ceremony was performed as solemnly as the occasion would admit.—Western Paper.

YOUNG WOMANHOOD.—Young womanhood—the sweet moon on the horizon's verge—a thought matured, but not uttered—a conception warm and glowing not embodied—the rich halo which precedes the rising sun—the rosy dawn that bespeaks the ripening peach—a flower—

"A flower which is not a flower,
Yet is no more a bud."

Galleyer's Hyperion.

Young Womanhood—molasses touched with a little brimstone, spread upon bread and fluttered—a being, all joinis and ankles not filled out—an unformed form deformed by stays—a pallid, puny little thing that loves the ripening peach—a young woman—

A woman which is not quite a woman,
Yet something more than a gal

Brooklyn News.

Young Womanhood—a half moon not yet riz—a cake baked and not turned—hot corn, all hot and smoking, not yet sold—a rich curdle which precedes the coming butter—the thickening down upon a goose—a butterfly—

A butterfly which is not a butterfly
Yet ain't a caterpiller no how you can fix it.

Sandusky News.

Young Womanhood—a moving mass of undeveloped beauty, well supplied with tongue—a thing composed of powder, hoops and flounces, to be by turn, pitied, loved, and flattered—a puff of vanity, void of solid substance, and well calculated to deceive—a pigeon—

A pigeon which is not quite a pigeon,
And 'twill not do to call a squab.

Jackson Flag.

Young Womanhood—a bud blooming for the happiness or misery of many.

A FRENCH BELLE A HUNDRED YEARS AGO.—Madame de Genlis, in her memoirs, describes the training she underwent to fit her for Parisian society in the last century: "I had two teeth pulled out; I had whalebone stays that pinched me terribly; my feet were imprisoned in tight shoes, with which it was impossible for me to walk; I had three or four thousand curl papers put on my head; and I wore for the first time in my life a hoop. In order to get rid of my country attitudes, I had an iron collar put on my neck; and as I squinted a little at times, I was obliged to put on goggles as soon as I awoke, in the morning, and these I wore four hours. I was, moreover, not a little surprised when they talked of giving me a master to teach me what I thought I knew well enough already—to walk. Besides all this, I was forbidden to run, to leap, or to ask questions."

A NEGRO WITH THE BLUES.

"I say Sam Jonsing, wat for you look so sober dis mornin'? You mos usually allers a laffin, but now your face looks as gloomy and black as dis late spell of bad weader."

"Wy, chile, I feels bad—I's got wot de white folks calls de bloose, and de wus sort at that—dat's jist wot I has, Pete Gumbo—ax no more questions."

"De what you call em, Sam?"

"De bloos I say: de raal indogo bloos."

"Dar's de pint whar ye corner this ere chile. I'd like to hear you simplify wot dis bloos is."

"Wy, wy, Rete, you don't no nuffin—I tot you'd more 'quaintance wid de fosify ob oh de human mind. Wal, you see, when a man's got de bloose he looks forrard into comin footoority jest as tho' he gvine to draw a blank in de big lotry—he feels like as if all ob de draughts in prizes in dis low down scene hadn't nary single number on em. When he gets up in de mornin' he feels wusser—he tinks dat his body is made of ice-cream, all 'cept his heart, and dat's a big piece ob led in de middle. All sortes ob sites are hubbering around, and red monkeys buzzin about his ears. Dar, nigger, dem's wot I got now, an dems wat I call de bloos. How you like to hab em Pete? Answer dis, an ax noffine more fudder."

"Thank you, Sam, dis chile don't wish for um, not if dems de sort."

PHUNNY PHIX.—The editor of the Kansas Chief must be in a ludicrous "phix".—"We have lived on potatoes and beef so long that we have a complete Irish brogue, and are getting horns and tail like a steer. We have eaten so many pumpkins that it is difficult for us to distinguish our head from a pumpkin."

Beauty nipped in the waist is like a rose nipped in the bud. It is the shortest lived, and falls off the quickest.

THE MIGHTY HEALER.
WORLD KNOWN AND WORLD TRIED

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

The free admissions of all Nations, as well as the verdict of the leading Hospitals of the Old as well as the New World stamp this powerful remidial Agent as the greatest healing preparation ever made known to suffering man. Its PENETRATIVE QUALITIES are more than MARVELLOUS, through the external orifices of the skin, invisible to the naked eye, it reaches the seat of the internal diseases; and in all external affections its anti-inflamatory and healing virtues surpass any thing else on record, and is nature's great ally.

ERYSIPELAS AND SALT RHEUM

Are two of the most common and virulent disorders prevalent on this continent, to these the Ointment is especially antagonistic, its "MODUS OPERANDI" is first to eradicate the venom and then complete the cure.

BAD LEGS, OLD SORES, AND ULCERS.

Cases of many years standing that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment; have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful ungent.

ERUPTIONS ON THE SKIN,

Arising from a bad state of the blood or chronic disease are eradicated, and a clear and transparent surface regained by the restorative action of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetics and other toilet appliances in its power to dispel rashes and other disfigurements of the face.

PILES AND FISTULA.

Every form and feature of these prevalent and stubborn disorders is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emolient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions,	Mecurial Eruptions,	Swelled Glands,
Sprains,	Burns,	Piles,
Sore Legs,	Stiff Joints,	Chapped Hands,
Rheumatism,	Sore Breasts,	Tetter,
Chilblains,	Ringworm,	Sore Heads,
Ulcers,	Fistula,	Salt Rheum,
Sore Throats,	Veneral Sores,	Gout,
Scalds,	Sores of all kinds,	Wounds of all
Lumbago,	Skin Diseases,	kinds.

☞ CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON," are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by HOLDING THE LEAF TO THE LIGHT. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

☞ Sold at the Manufactories of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the United States and the civilized world, in pots at 25 cents, 63 cents, and $1.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each pot. [june 19-y
