The Easton Gazette.

SATURDAY MORNING . . . JANUARY 22, 1859.

HUMOROUS.

THE VERY BEST OF THE SEASON—FOOTE CAUGHT.

The following, on Gov. Foote, is too good to be lost—and, as we are assured by a party present, that it is literally true, we lay it before our readers. In fact, the person who gave us the information is a gentleman of integrity and honor, in whom we have implicit confidence. Here it is:—Vicksburg Sun.

A few days ago a company of gentlemen, were traveling up the Mississippi river, between Vicksburg and Memphis on the steamer Antelope. In the crowd was a politician of great notoriety, particularly in the State of Mississippi, who was eloquent and incessant in his advocacy of Judge Douglas for the Presidency: "Every position of Douglas was Democratic, every pulsation of his heart Southern, every element of his nature constitutional and conservative, all the leading statesmen and politicians of the South and West his ardent admirers, &c., &c."

During an animated panegyric upon the perfections of the "Little Giant," all the gents of the cabin had congregated around the "interminable talker," some asking one question and some another, all of which were answered by the statement offacts all within the "certain personal knowledge" of the speaker, when one gent asked "How is Kentucky upon the Douglas question?"—The speaker turned to with an air of great dignity and a peculiar expression of countenance, as much as to say: "There I am at home," and replied, "Kentucky, sir, is right, and, to my certain knowledge, every prominent politician in the State, is in favor of Douglas. I have very lately been in Kentucky and conversed with every member of Congress, and every one (and particularly Dr. Peyton, the most prominent of them all,) is in favor of Douglas."

A very fine looking, quiet stranger, who had been listening without saying anything, appeared struck with the last remark, and asked the speaker if he understood him to say that Dr. Peyton was a Douglas man. "O, yes," he replied, "I know him intimately, and within the last four weeks he has assured me of the fact."

The stranger rose up and spoke as follows:

"Sir, I am Dr. Peyton, the member of Congress referred to, and though I have heard much of you, I have never had the honor of your acquaintance, or of speaking to you until now, and so far from being a Douglas man, sir, I am against him all the way from h—ll to Halifax. Nor is there a prominent man in Kentucky for him, except Mr. Dixon, who is in favor of a new party." The effect of this reply can be better imagined than described. The shout that went up from that crowd made the Antelope tremble. The Douglas orator, instead of melting down into his boots, turned towards Dr. Peyton, and remarked: "Are you Dr. Peyton, sir? Most happy to see you, sir—delighted to make your acquaintance, sir—think I once saw you, sir, when I was in the Senate, hem!" S. called all hands to take a drink, and amidst the most terrific guffaws, they all drank, "health to Dr. Peyton, and confusion to Douglas, and his schemes for the Presidency."

THE RESULT OF OBSERVATION.

Experience and observation have taught us that it is—

Hard to quit chewing tobacco.

Hard to keep from eating too much.

Hard to abstain from segars when once you have become strongly addicted to the practice of smoking.

Hard to take castor oil.

Hard to drink liquor and not be intemperate.

Hard to keep our eyes off a pretty girl.

Hard to pay our debts.

Hard to get others to pay us.

Hard to resist temptation.

Hard to look on with indifference at seeing that "particular" young woman in company with another individual.

Hard to believe a man whom you know to be a confirmed liar.

Hard to love our enemies.

Hard to turn the other cheek when we are struck.

Hard to place confidence in a scoundrel.

Hard to borrow money from our friends the very time we need it.

Hard to make such friends believe that we need money.

A sprightly young belle, who was an admirer of poetry, would often tease her beau to write verses for her, as he had made some acquaintance with the Muses. One day becoming quite importunate, she would take no denial. "Come, pray, now do write some poetry for me—won't you? I'll help you out. I'll furnish you with rhymes, if you will make lines for them. Here, now—'please,' 'tease,' 'moan' 'bone.'" He at length good-humoredly complied, and filled up the measure as follows:

To a form that is faultless, a face which must—
please,
Is added a restless desire just to—tease;
Oh, how my hard fate I should ever bemoan,
Could I but believe she'd be bone of my—bone

A dutchman somewhere in Pennsylvania, wanted a minister to preach at his child's funeral, and was not particular as to who came.

"Chon," said he to his son, "go and tell the sidling elder to come, and if the sidling elder can't come, den get der circus breacher, and if the circus breacher can't come, den get the locust breacher, and if he can't come, why den get the extortioner." (exhorter.)

A country girl, coming from the field, was told by her cousin that she looked as fresh as a daisy kissed with dew. Well, it was not any fellow by that name, but it was Stephen Jones that kissed me: I told him that every one in town would find it out.

If our Maker thought it wrong for Adam to live single, when there was not a woman upon the earth how criminally guilty are the old bachelors with the world full of pretty girls.

"Bob, you'r missing all the sights on this side." "Never mind, I am sighting all the misses on this side.

The Great Ambassador of Health
TO ALL MANKIND.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

A BOON TO THE SICK.

The want of a sterling medicinal to meet the ills and necessities of the suffering portion of humanity, and one entirely free from mineral and other deleterious particles, was severely felt till this all powerful medicine was ushered into the world; HOLLOWAY'S invaluable PILLS have become the household remedy of all nations. Their attribute is to prevent as well as to cure; they attack the radix of the complaint, and thus by removing the hidden cause of disease reinvigorate and restore the drooping energies of the system, assisting nature in her task of vital and functionary reformation.

DYSPEPSIA.

The great scourge of this continent yields quickly to a course of these antiseptic Pills, and the digestive organs are restored to their proper tone; no matter in what hideous shape this hydra of disease exhibits itself, this searching and unerring remedy disperses it from the patient's system.

GENERAL DEBILITY AND WEAKNESS.

From whatever cause, lowness of spirits, and all other signs of a diseased liver, and other disorganization of the system, vanish under the eradicating influence of this all powerful antiseptic and detergent remedy.

BILIOUS DISORDERS.

The proper quantum and right condition of the bile is of momentous importance to the health of the human frame, this antibilious medicine expels the hidden seeds of the complaint, and renders all the fluids and secretions pure and fluent, cleasing and resuscitating the vital functions of the body.

SICKLY FEMALES

Should lose no time in trying a few doses of this regulating and renovating remedy, whatever may be their complaint, it can be taken with safety in all periodical and other disorganizations its effect is all but miraculous.

UNREFUTED PROOF.

The testimony of Nations is unanimously borne to the health-giving virtues of his noble remedy, and certificates in every living language bear witness to the UNDENIABLENESS of their INTRINSIC WORTH.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases:

Asthma,	Diarrhœa,	Indigestion,
Stone & Gravel,	Bowel Complaints,	Dropsy,
Influenza,	Secondary symptoms,	Coughs,
Debility,		Inflamation,
Colds,	Fever and Ague,	Inward Weakness,
Veneral Affections,	Chest Disease,
Costiveness,	Female Complaints,	Liver Complaints,
Worms of all kinds,	Lowness of Spirits,	Headaches,
	Dyspepsia,
	Piles,

☞CAUTION!—None are genuine unless teh words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

*.*Sold at the manufactories of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout the United States and the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 63 cents, and $1 each.

☞There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box. [june-y

Stoves! Stoves! Stoves!!

THE subscriber would respectfully call the attention of all in want of a GOOD STOVE, either for cooking or heating, to their large assortment, which comprises the best COOKING STOVES and RANGES, Parlor, Dining Room, Store, Office, Church, and other Stoves.

Among our Cooking Stoves we name as the very best in the market the GLOBE and LEHIGH for Coal, and the MEDALLION for Wood. We have also the Old Dominion, Cook's Favorite, and other excellent Cooking Stoves.

Our Bay State Range is decidedly the best and most handsome flat top cooking range in the market. It is of beautiful design and elegant workmanship—the castings are very heavy and substantial, besides which it has more oven room than any other Range.

We have a beautiful assortment of Parlor Stoves, including a new and very handsome Fireplace Stove for heating two or more stories. Also Store, Office, Church and other Stoves, all of which we warrant to work satisfactorily.

We would particularly call the attention of our country friends to a new and beautiful PARLOR FRANKLIN STOVE for wood, which is so arranged that it can be made an air tight stove, (is supplied with a crane (which can only be seen when in use) by which a kettle can be boiled as readily as in a fire place. The castings of this stove are extra heavy.
