No 2 $431.38 American 6 per cent Stock of the Loan of 1814 part of $1426.77 Estimated	1,188	97
93 $6838.88 American 5 per cent Stock of the Loan of 1815 part of $22.48 37c estimated	19,207	73
941 Balance due by Mr Calhoun on the 22d June 1821 Caught here for appropriation at $396440	991	10
37 and 75 a Demand Stock of fl 15000 in assignats on the Book of the deferred debt of the Netherlands part of $54000	185	99
38 and 76 a Demand Stock of fl 15000 in Solemy Notes called Nantissement No 1164 374 & 1164591 part of fl 54.000	612	68
69.70 and 109 Obligations in the Bank of Vienna	3387	20
110 $44.44 Demand American 5 per cent deferred debt part of $133.33 Estimate	114	44
112 One share in the Bank of Germany Crand of $400 part of five shares Estimate	1200
116 of 349 32d American 5 per cent Stock of the said 1814 paid of fl 2888 37½ Estimate	962	79½
117 part of fl 32000 formerly paid of 24,800 or 62.000 appropriation Balance due by Mr Jno Calhoun on the 1st of January 1823 Caught here for	2000	00
118 part of fl 76,969 a.c. proceeds of the property and slaves Caught here for	7339	68½
Total of the three Lots Two thousand Seven Hundred and twenty Florins Eleven and a half cents of the Netherlands	26022	11½

The said Lots and the Elements they are composed of having been mutually examined by the Co-divisers parties they have by a amicable settlement among themselves and under the following conditions assigned the first Lot and the goods it is composed of to Mr Charles Fauntler the second Lot and the goods it is composed of to the Interests of the same Van Hare and the third Lot and the goods it is composed of to the interests of the same Calhoun, after which each of the parties in the quality as the same is acting has declared – the Lots as well of the paternal succession as of the Maternal succession which have just been assigned respectively to them making for as much as necessary the one to each of the other parties the relinquishment of the said Lots the whole under the ordinary guarantees between Co-partners as well as under the following conditions.

The Material operations of the double division being thus consummated and the personal rights of all the parties recognized settled and satisfied they have closed the aforesaid division by the following conditions which have been mutually accepted.

Article 1st

Each of the Co-dividing parties will enjoy separately and in the name and quality by as been said to dispose of the found so as shall may be authorized by Law of the goods that have been here above abandoned to her and shall be found and the revenues of those which are produced to depend from the first of January Eighteen Hundred twenty three all the perceptions previously expired having been or being suspected to be received for the benefit of the Map.

Article 2d

Three of the parties who will be hereafter chosen to operate the management or liquidation of the goods and Values left in the indivisions will be equally charged with Making in the shortest delay possible the segregation of the lotes of property which correspond and are appropriate to the Values comprehended in each of Lots. They will effect the necessary of the found by each of the Copartners and shall of the said lotes or pieces which shall be common to all the parties will remain in the possession of Mr Chas Fuller under the obligation of assisting his parties with the found.

Article 3d

For the administration, and recovery of the objects and Values which have been left in Indivision by the present act, and which have Number and designed in the Chapters 123 and 4 the parties make Choice of Messrs C Fuller and A M Van Hare who will process either jointly or separately They in consequence give to them power to pass, or recede all Leases to receive and leases Rents interests arrears and other revenues expired to expend even to receive the reimbursement of Capitals that may be offered or might become demandable to settle all the debts of public effects which will be susceptible of being so to sell give over the same before or after the liquidation as such parties deem and conditions they will deem convenient. to apply the whole or part of the proceeds of their administration to the acquital of Charges taxes or fees to which the present act and its consequences may give rise as also to the payment of the Lawful debts that may have been omitted in the Passive conservance to to Amicable compromise with the Charge hereover of giving accounts the expiration of every year to their co-interested parties of the active and the passive of the indivision can to make between the separation of the new employed presence in the properties of the interest for which each party has stipulated in the present act.

They give them manner the power in case of contest with third tenants or debtors to make assurance before all Tribunals and Courts to conclude plead constitute attorney revoke the same, appoint execute the Judgment or Decree by and the