The separate answer of Robert E Lee to the Bill of Complaint of Charles Henry Carter and others against the Respondent and others exhibited in the Circuit Court for Prince Georges County as a Court of Equity

This Respondent admits that he and his Co defendant Charles B Calvert, are Trustees for the Complainant and he came such in manner and under the circumstances set forth in the said Bill He believes and submits that the stock described in said Bill is parcel of said Trust Estate and ought to be transferred into the names of himself and his said Co defendant in trust and that an account ought to be taken of dividends or profits realized thereon. This Respondent has received no part of said dividend or profits.

This Respondent has not knowledge of payments made by his said Co defendant to the said Charles Henry Carter nor of the appropriation by said Carter of any part of the principal trust Estate to his own use as mentioned in the answer of this said Co defendant about to be filed in this cause, other than such information as he has derived from said answer, But he is advised and submits that any interest which the said Charles Henry Carter may be found to have in said Stock or his dividends or profits thereof ought to be held liable for any indebtedness of said Carter to the said Trust Estate, and he unites in the prayer of his said Co defendant, that the accounts about to be ordered in this cause may be so taken that as to shew the indebtedness of said Carter to the said trust Estate and that the said trust Estate may be properly indemnified out of the interest of said Carter in said Stock and the dividends and profits thereof. And &c

The separate answer of Henry H Calvert to the Bill of Complaint of Charles Henry Carter and others against this Respondent and others exhibited in the Circuit Court for Prince Georges County as a Court of Equity. This Respondent admits that his Co defendant Charles B Calvert did transfer into the name of this Respondent in trust Ten hundred shares of the Capital Stock of the Baltimore and Bladensburg Turnpike Road Company at the time in the manner and under the circumstances stated in said Bill, that said Stock constitutes a part of the Estate settled by the agreement made by and between the said Charles Henry Carter and his Late Wife in contemplation of marriage and the same ought to be transferred into the names of his Co defendants the present trustees under that settlement.

This Respondent avers that he has never received dividends declared on said Stock, or in any manner intermeddled therewith, nor is he able to say who did receive any part thereof.
