The Easton Gazette.

SATURDAY MORNING . . . JANUARY 29, 1859.

For the Easton Gazette.

I WOULD THAT I WERE FAIR MIRROR.

BY ROSE.

I would that I were fair mirror,
I would that I were fair,
Why am I plain? where all things else
A look of beauty wear.

There's beauty in a deep blue sky
That beams with golden ray,
Reflected from a summer sun
As sunbeams o'er it play.

There's beauty in each little flower
That heralds forth the Spring,
The cowslips breathe of beauty's power,
The snowdrops beauty bring

There 's beauty in the setting sun,
The crimson clouds around;
There's beauty in the silvery moon
When silence is profound.

There 's beauty in the gorgeous tints
That paint an Autumn scene,
When, clothed in splended livery
The earth gay, doffs her green.

There 's beauty in each thing I see,
Wher'er I look 'tis there,
Then why should I alone be plain?
I would that I were fair.

HUMOROUS.

When preachers do indulge in jokes they generally let of good 'uns. Here is the last. Away down East, a clergyman was recently charged with having violently dragged his wife from a revival meeting, and compelled her to go home with him.—The clergyman let the story travel along until he had a fair opportunity to give it a broadside. Upon being charged with the offense, he replied as follows:

"In the first place, I never attempted to influence my wife in her views, nor a choice of meeting. Secondly—my wife has never attended any of the revival meetings in Lowell. In the third place—I have never attended any of the meetings for any purpose whatever. To conclude—neither my wife nor myself have any inclination to attend these meetings, Finally—I never had a wife."

A Western duck of a wife, whose husband went for a day or two on a bit of a lark, thus advertises him:

Lost Strayed or Stolen.—An individual whom I, in an unguarded moment of loneliness, was thoughtless enough to adopt as my husband. He is a good looking and feeble individual, knowing enough however to go in when it rains, unless some good-looking girl offers her umbarella, Answers to the name of John. Was last seen in company with Julia Harris, walking, his arm around her waist, up the plank road, looking more like a fool, if possible than ever. Anybody who will catch the poor fellow and bring him carefully back so that I may chastise him for running away will be asked to stay to tea by HENRIETTA A. SMITH.

A lawyer built an office in the shape of a hexogon, or six square. The novelty of the structure attracted the attention of some Irishmen who were passing by; they stopped and viewed the building very critically. The lawyer, somewhat disgusted at their curiosity, lifted up the window, put his head out and addressed them:

"What do you stand there for, like a pack of blockheads, gazing at my office; do you take it for a church?"

"Faix," answered one of them, "I was thinking so, till I saw the devil poke his head out of the window."

"Are you a skillful mechanic?"
"Yes, sir."
"What can you make?"
"Oh, almost anything in my line."
"Can you make a devil?"
"Certainly—just put up your foot and I will split it in three seconds. I never saw a chap in my life that required less alteration."

POME.

The wind it blew,
The snow it flew,
And raised particular thunder
With skirts and hoops,
And the chickens' coops,
And all such kind of plunder.

A Dutchman having a friend hung in this country, wrote to his friends informing them that after addressing a large meeting of citizens, the scaffold on which he stood gave way, owing to which he fell and broke his neck.

An Irish Dragoon, on hearing that his widowed mother had been married since he quitted Ireland, exclaimed "Murther, I hope she won't have a son oulder than me—if she does I shall lose the estate."

A late Illinois paper contains the announcement of the marriage of R. W. Wolfe to Mary L. Lamb. "The wolfe and the lamb shall lie down together, and a little child shall lead them"—after a while.

A countryman who witnessed a lady lifting up her dress, exclaimed, upon beholding the numerous tiers of hoops that encircled her petticoat, in the shape of crinoline, "Well, may I be hanged, if she ain't got a five-barrel gate wrapt round her."

This epitaph is inscribed on the grave of a smuggler in a country churchyard. He was shot by the excisemen—

Here I lies,
Killed by the XI's.

Why is a young lady that's receiving the attention of a gentleman, like a lady who sends relief to Ireland?
Because her heart goes Pity Pat.

Girls sometimes put their lips out poutingly, because they are angry; and sometimes because their lips are disposed to meet yours half way.

Why is a man eating soup with a fork like another kissing his sweet-heart.
Do you give it up?
Because it takes so long to get enough of it.

A few years ago the ladies wore a handy sort of a hood called "Kiss-me-if-you.want-to."

What a poor world this would be without women and newspapers! How would the news get about.

THE MIGHTY HEALER.
WORLD KNOWN AND WORLD TRIED

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

The free admissions of all Nations, as well as the verdict of the leading Hospitals of the Old as well as the New World stamp this powerful remidial Agent as the greatest healing preparation ever made known to suffering man. Its PENETRATIVE QUALITIES are more than MARVELOUS, through the external orifices of the skin, invisible to the naked eye, it reaches the seat of the internal diseases; and in all external affections its anti-inflamatory and healing virtues surpass anything else on record, and is nature's great ally.

ERYSIPELAS AND SALT RHEUM

Are two of the most common and virulent disorders prevalent on this continent, to these the Ointment is especially antagonistic, its "MODUS OPERANDI" is first to eradicate the venom and then complete the cure.

BAD LEGS, OLD SORES, AND ULCERS.

Cases of many years standing that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment; have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful ungent.

ERUPTIONS ON THE SKIN,

Arising from a bad state of the blood or chronic disease are eradicated, and a clear and transparent surface regained by the restorative action of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetics and other toilet appliances in its power to dispel rashes and other disfigurements of the face.

PILES AND FISTULA.

Every form and feature of these prevalent and stubborn disorders is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emolient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions,	Mecurial Eruptions,	Swelled Glands
Sprains,	Burns,	Piles,
Sore Legs,	Stiff Joints,	Chapped Hands,
Rheumatism,	Sore Breasts,	Tetter,
Chilblains,	Ringworm,	Sore Heads,
Ulcers,	Fistula,	Salt Rheum,
Sore Throats,	Veneral Sores,	Gout,
Scalds,	Sores of all kinds,	Wounds of all
Lumbago,	Skin Diseases,	kinds.

☞ CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON," are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by HOLDING THE LEAF TO THE LIGHT. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

 Sold at the Manufactories of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the United States and the civilized world, in pots at 25 cents, 63 cents, and $1.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each pot. [june 19-y

Stoves! Stoves! Stoves!!

THE subscriber would respectfully call the attention of all in want of a GOOD STOVE, either for cooking or heating, to their large assortment, which comprises the best COOKING STOVES and RANGES, Parlor, Dining Room, Store, Office, Church, and other Stoves.

Among our Cooking Stoves we name as the very best in the market the GLOBE and LEHIGH for Coal, and the MEDALLION for Wood. We have also the Old Dominion, Cook's Favorite, and other excellent Cooking Stoves.

Our Bay State Range is decidedly the best and most handsome flat top cooking range in the market. It is of beautiful design and elegant workmanship—the castings are very heavy and substantial, besides which it has more oven room than any other Range.

We have a beautiful assortment of Parlor Stoves, including a new and very handsome Fire-place Stove for heating two or more stories. Also Store, Office, Church and other Stoves, all of which we warrant to work satisfactorily

We would particularly call the attention of our country friends to a new and beautiful PARLOR FRANKLIN STOVE for wood, which is so arranged that it can be made an air tight stove. Its supplied with a crane (which can only be seen when in use) by which a kettle can be boiled as readily as in a fire place. The castings of this stove are extra heavy.
