Notice or Knowledge,

7. Was the said William Chase Barney engaged in any business, Had he any means or resources for acquiring money or property, or was he possessed thereof otherwise than from the said Hannah K Chase,

8. Do you know whether said William Chase Barney ever gave said Hannah K Chase money services or any thing valuable in consideration of the said property notes, and money received by him from her,

9. What have you heard him the said William Chase Barney say upon the subject.

Brent and May Solrs for defendants.

Interrogatories

Daniel B Banks and others
vs
Mary Barney and others

Cross Interrogatories to be propounded in behalf of the Complainants to Mrs Mary Barney a witness produced sworn and examined on behalf of the defendants before Frederick Pinkney Esq one Commissioner,

1st. That previous property was Hannah K Chase possessed of on the 2d day of August 1844 at any time subsequent,

2d You say that he resorted to every means to obtain her property, state what the means were that you refer to,

3d Do you know of certain promissory Notes issued by Hannah K Chase to the order of William Chase Barney, and which you and Mrs Oldfield advised Daniel B Banks to purchase for the purpose of being sole Creditor of Mrs Chase, and to keep the Notes off the Street.

4. Did William Chase Barney ever give any Notes in exchange for Mrs Chases Notes.

5. You say that she conversed with you in reference to giving Money did she not tell you also that she had given him Notes,

J Malcolm Solr for Complainants.

Interrogatories

Daniel B Banks and others
vs
Mary Barney and others

In the Baltimore County Court

Cross Interrogatories to be propounded in behalf of the Complainant to Mrs Catharine Coldfield, a witness produced sworn and examined on the behalf of the defendants before Frederick Pinkney Esq one Commissioner

1 Was any of the other Members of your Brothers family endeavor to obtain money, Notes or property from Mrs Chase and did they obtain any. If so state what property it was and who obtained it.

2d Do you know of certain promissory Notes issued by Mrs Chase to the order of William Chase Barney and which you and your Brother Mr Thos Barney advised Daniel B Banks to purchase for the purpose of being the sole creditor of Mrs Chase and to keep the Notes off the Street.

J Malcolm Solr for Complainant.

Interrogatories

Banks and Stewart
vs
Williams and others

In the Baltimore County Court in Equity sitting therein

Interrogatories to be propounded on behalf of the defendants to William A Talbott and George W Dobbin Esq Witnesses produced sworn and examined on the behalf of 1st Do you know what was the value of the Life Estate reserved by Hannah K Chase in her deed of trust to Nathaniel and Joseph B Williams of the second of August 1844. If you state the value thereof and the annual rents and profits.

2d What was the Condition of the health and bodily health of the said Hannah K Chase on the 2d of August 1844 Did she appear to be in good health and likely to live for some time thereafter,

3d Do you know the amount of her debts due and owing by her at the date aforesaid If you state the same

4th Do you know what were the habits of the said Hannah K Chase and her disposition at the time aforesaid with respect to the management of the expenses of her household and personal subsistence, If you state the same and the amount expended therefor per annum,

5. Do you know what were the motives and considerations which induced Hannah K Chase to execute the deed of the 2d of August 1844, If you state the same, 6th At what times and dates were the rents and profits of said Life estate of said Hannah K Chase due and payable and were the same regularly received when due and payable, or were they not. Annex to your answer a list of the said rents with the dates of their being payable.

7. Did you know William Chase Barney If you had be acquainted and did he exert, at the time of the execution of the aforesaid deed of trust before and afterwards an undue influence over the will and understanding of the said Hannah K Chase which she was too weak to resist, If you did be thereby obtain property Money, and promissory Notes from her, And if you know