SATURDAY MORNING . . . FEBRUARY 5, 1859.

HUMOROUS.

A APPEEL FOR ARE TO THE SEXTANT OF THE OLD BRICK MEETINOUSE.

BY A GASPER.

The following appeal to a Sexton for pure air in the meeting house, should have a general circulation. The spelling is not very good, but the argument is irresistible. It is from the Detroit Tribune.

O sextant of the meetinouse, which sweeps
And dusts, or is supposed to! and makes fires,
And lites the gass, and sumetimes leaves a screw loose,
In which case it smells orful—worse than lava-pile;
And wrings the Bel and toles it when men dyes
to the grief of survivin pardners, and sweeps pathes;
And for the servases gits $100 per annum,
Wich them that thinks deer, let em try it;
Getin up before starlight in all wethers and
Kindlin fires when the wether is as cold
As zero, and like as not grean wood for kindlers;
i would'nt be hired to do it for no some—
But o Sextant! there are 1 kermodity
Wich's more than gold, wich doant cost nothin,
Worth more than anything exsep the Sole of Mann!
i mean pewer Are, sextant, i mean pewer Are!
O it is plenty out o dores, so plenty it doant no
What on airth to dew with itself, but flys about Scatterin leavs and blowin off men's hatts;
in short, its jest "free as are" out dores.
But o sextant, in our church its scarce as piety,
scarce as bank bills when agents beg for mischuns,
Wich some say is party often (taint nothin to me,
Wat I give aint nothin to nobody) I uto sextant,
u shut 500 men, women and children,
Speshally the latter, up in a tite place,
Some has bad breths, none aint 2 swete,
Some is fevery, some is scrofilus, some has bad teath,
And some haint none, and some aint over clean;
But every 1 on em breethes in & out and out and in,
Say 50 times a minit, or 1 million and a half breths an our.
Now how long will a church ful of are last at that rate,
I ask you, say 15 minits, and then what's to be did?
Why then they must breathe it all over agin.
And then agin, and so on, till each has took it down
At least 10 times, and let it up agin, and wats more,
The same individible dout have the privilelge
of brethen his own are, and no ones else;
Each one must take watever comes to him.
O Sextant, doant you know our lungs is bellusses;
To blo the fier of life, and keep it from goin out; and how can bellusses blo without wind,
And aint wind are? i put it to your conscheus.
Are is the same to us as milk to babies,
Or water is to fish, or pendiums to clox—
Or roots and airbs unto an injun Doctor,
Or little pills unto an onepath,
Or boys to gurls. Are is for us to brethe.
Wat signifies who preeches if i cant brethe?
Wats Pol? Wats Pollus? to sinners who are ded?
Ded for want of breth? why sextant, when we dye
Its only cause we can't brethe no more—thats all.
And now, o sextant, let me beg of you
2 let a little are into our church
(Pewer are is sertin proper for the pews)
And do it weak days and Sundays tew—
It aint much trouble—only make a hole
And the are will come in of itself;
(It lurs to cum in whare it can get warm:)
And o how it will rouse the people up,
And sperrit up the preecher, and stop garps,
And yawns and figgits as effectooal
As wind on the dry Boans the Proffit tells of.

GOOD STORY.—The following story is told of Jemmy Mohar, who has so long been the gardener of the Presidential mansion in Washington:

The President had heard rumors that Jemmy was accustomed to get druuk, and be uncivil to the visitors at the White House so one bright morning he summoned him into his presence to receive his dismissal. "Jemmy," said the President," "I hear bad stories about you. It is said you are constantly drunk and uncivil to visitors"—Jemmy was puzzled to reply—at last he said: "Mr. President, I hear much worse stories about you, but do you think I believe them?"

☞The most terrible specimen of a bear that we ever heard tell of, its mentioned in the following spirited verse which we clip from a Western poem:

"There was a jolly woodman
Was standin' by a tree,
When he spied an awful big bear
A coming right at he!
The bear was rampagous,
The foam was on his lip,
And full a yard of prairie
He cleared at every skip!"

"My dear, what shall we name our baby?" said Mr. Smith the other day. "Why, huz I've settled on Peter." "Peter! I never knew a man with the simple name of Peter who could earn his salt!" "Well, then, we will call him Salt Peter."

"Shall I have the pleasure of waltzing with you, madam?" said a gentleman to a dashing married lady.

"Thanks to you, sir, I have lugging enough at home."

"Dick, why don't you turn that buffalo robe t'other side out?—the hair side is the warmest."

"Bah, Tom, don't you suppose the animal knew how to wear his own hide?"

☞An Irishman angling in the rain, was observed to keep his line under the arch of a bridge. Upon being asked the reason, he answered; "To be sure, fishes will be after crowding there to keep out of the wet."

☞When may bread be said to be inhabited? When it has a little Indian in it.

GIANTS.—The bed of Og was 27 feet long and 7 feet broad. The height of Goliah was 11 feet, his coat weighed 150 and his spear head 19 pounds. The body of Orestes, son of Agamemnon, leader of the Grecian expedition against Troy, was 11½ feet high, and a woman 10 feet. Maximus, a native of Spain, the Roman Emperor, was 9 feet high. Maximus, originally from France, another Roman Emperor, was 8½ feet high. His wife's bracelets served him for finger rings. His strength was such that he could draw a loaded wagon, break a horse's jaw with his fist, crush the hardest stones with his fingers, and cleave trees with his hands. His voracity was equal to his strength, eating 42 pounds of flesh and drinking 19 bottles of wine daily. Byrne and O'Brien, Irish giants, were 8 feet high. A Tennessean giant lately died, 7½ feet high.

MANUFACTURE OF TURTLE SOUP.—A Key West, Fla., correspondent of the Charleston Courier says the manufacture of green turtle soup there during the past year has been considerable. One firm alone manufactured 200,000 pounds. He adds: Their business employs ten vessels and about fifty men. They have besides ten engaged in their factory. During the summer and fall they have shipped to London, Havana, New Orleans, Mobile, Charleston, Montreal and other cities, about 300 dozen tedby 2 lbs. each, of the value of $1000. bers. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

A BOON TO THE SICK.

The want of a sterling medicinal to meet the ills and necessities of the suffering portion of humanity, and one entirely free from mineral and other deleterious particles, was severely felt till this all powerful medicine was ushered into the world; HOLLOWAY'S invaluable PILLS have become the household remedy of all nations. Their attribute is to prevent as well as to cure; they attack the radix of the complaint, and thus by removing the hidden cause of disease reinvigorate and restore the drooping energies of the system, assisting nature in her task of vital and functionary reformation.

DYSPEPSIA.

The great scourge of this continent yields quickly to a course of these antiseptic Pills, and the digestive organs are restored to their proper tone; no matter in what hideous shape this hydra of disease exhibits itself, this searching and unerring remedy disperses it from the patient's system.

GENERAL DEBILITY AND WEAKNESS.

From whatever cause, lowness of spirits, and all other signs of a diseased liver, and other disorganization of the system, vanish under the eradicating influence of this all powerful antiseptic and detergent remedy.

BILIOUS DISORDERS.

The proper quantum and right condition of the bile is of momentous importance to the health of the human frame, this anti-bilious medicine expels the hidden seeds of the complaint, and renders all the fluids and secretions pure and fluent, cleasing and resuscitating the vital functions of the body.

SICKLY FEMALES

Should lose no time in trying a few doses of this regulating and renovating remedy, whatever may be their complaint, it can be taken with safety in all periodical and other disorganizations its effect is all but miraculous.

UNREFUTED PROOF.

The testimony of Nations is unanimously borne to the health-giving virtues of his noble remedy, and certificates in every living language bear witness to the UNDENIABLENESS of their INTRINSIC WORTH.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases:

ROBINSON'S MANIPULATED GUANO.

THIS UNEQUALLED FERTILIZER, composed of one half best Peruvian Guano, one half fine Ground Bone and the best Phosphatic Guano, is in condition for immediate use, being prepared by new and improved machinery, by which means the most perfect combination is effected, reducing all to a uniform fine powder; and for application by drill or otherwise, it is in the most perfect order And I have no hesitation in saying, that for all crops it is equal to any fertilizer ever offered to the farming community. The quality will be kept perfectly uniform in all cases, and WARRANTED to contain 8 per cent. of AMMONIA and 45 to 50 per cent. of BONE PHOSPHATE OF LIME. It is put up in good bags, weighing about 150 lbs. each. Purchasers will please notice, that the name, F. ROBINSON, is branded on each bag—none other is genuine

My long experience in the trade, and the general satisfaction heretofore given by all Guanos sold by me, will, I hope, be a guarantee that the article now offered will be as represented I will also keep constantly on hand the best PERUVIAN, MEXICAN and other GUANOS, which I will sell as low as any house in the city
