THE TRAGEDY IN WASHINGTON.

The unfortunate affair in the city of Washington on Sunday last, between Mr. Sickles, member of Congress from New York, and Mr. Key, District Attorney of the District of Columbia, most of our readers have been pained to learn before this. We shall give the facts in the case, as far as we can gather them, next week.

Who are the Miserable?—Let the Dyspetic, who suffers physically and mentally answer. But though he has drank the very dregs of suffering, relief exists in the Oxygenated Bitters; they are "a cure for all his woes."

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Prior to the introduction of Holloway's Ointment, cancers were supposed to be ineradicable except by the scalpel, but this doctrine is now exploded. The most deplorable cases—cases that could not be reached by the knife or by the caustic—have recently been cured by this wonderful disinfectant, which acts as an irresistible counter blast to the virus of the disease, arrests its progress, and relieves the empoisoned flesh of its terrible and offensive burden. Scrofulous sores tumors, carbuncals, glandular swellings, sore leg, etc., are no longer the bugbears they were in former time. The Ointment aided in its action by the Pills, inevitably cures them.

PEABODY PROLIFIC CORN.

IF the man who could make two blades of grass grow where only one grew before, was a benefactor to mankind, what would be said of the man who could furnish corn that will grow two bushels, where only one grew before. Such is the fact. Peabody's Prolific Corn will not only grow double the quantity on any soil, per acre, but will more than double the quantity of blades and provender.

I have a limited quantity of the above corn now for sale. It having been planted separate from any other. I can warrant it pure.

Price at Easton, $5.00 per bushel; $2.75 half bushel; $2.00 per peck, or 50 cents per quart, done up in strong packages, and shipped to any address. For less than a dollar postage stamps will be received. For opinions of the Press, see large bills at Hotels and public places

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE.

THE Schooner BUCEPHELUS, Capt. Wm. H. Chambers, will commence her regular trips for 1859, on the 2d March, leaving Easton Point, every Wednesday, and Baltimore every Saturday.—Freights at the usual rates.

All orders accompanied with the Cash, will be promptly attended to; no others will receive attention, as it is unreasonable to expect me to accommodate my customers with merchandise on my individual credit; and I have not the money to advance for them. I hope they will not ask me to do it, and force on me the disagreeable necessity of giving them a denial. Orders, letters and money, left at the Drug Store of Dawson & Brother, in Easton, or William S. Pawson, Commission Merchant, Smith's Dock, Baltimore, will be attended to.

Stuttering & Stammering Cured.

POSITIVELY THE LAST CALL.

UNTIL the very recent discovery of my wonderful Cure for Stuttering and Stammering and its successful application in thousands of cases, embracing many of the most inveterate kind, this complaint was considered incurable. And I now confidently assert that for this infirmity there is no other certain cure than mine, and I challenge and defy the whole world to produce any other.

This cure for Stuttering and Stammering is performed in less than ONE HOUR. There is no pain or surgical operation attending it. The beauty of all is, it will cure children of five and adults at the age of one hundred years. ☞ Persons cured by it can never again stutter even if they try.

I will be at the Easton Hotel, in Easton, Md. on Thursday and Friday, the 10th and 11th of March, and positively no longer

DYSPEPSIA

RADICALLY, PERMANENTLY & SPEEDILY

CURED BY THE

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Experience has confirmed these Bitters, as the most Remarkable Preparation ever presented to the public for the cure of the following complaints, viz:—Pain in the Stomach, Heart Burn, Water Rash, Costiveness, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Piles, Flatuency, Ennui, Torpor of the Liver, Dizziness, Debility, Fever and Ague, Climatic Influence, Female Complaints, and all Diseases having their origin in imperfect digestion, or deranged condition of the stomach.

This preparation contains no Alcohol, or Poisonous Drugs; is not affected by time or climate; is highly agreeable to the taste; and while it differs totally from all other remedies ever discovered, is unsurpassably superior to them all.

[From the Boston Post, Feb. 9, 1858.]

Oxygenated Bitters.—The various certificates given by gentlemen of position in regard to the merits of these Bitters, which we believe to be fully merited, are endorsed to-day by a card which appears in the Portland Christian Mirror, of the 20th ult. As a voluntary expression of opinion, it must have its due effect.

East Taunton, Jan 4, 1858.

Mr. Lord—Dear Sir:—You will confer a favor upon me, and I trust also upon the suffering, by giving the following a place in the Mirror.

JAMES R. CUSHING.

Oxygenated Bitters.—For more than twenty-five years I have been a sufferer from the dyspepsia. Besides trying the patience of my family physicians in the almost useless trials of their various prescriptions, I have tried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result. Through the kindness of Dr. W. G. Hanaford, I received, in March last, a half dozen bottles of Oxygenated Bitters, from Mr. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston. I began to use them without any hope of deriving help from them. Being determined to give them a fair trial, I continued their use, but without any perceptible benefit till June.

Since then I have gradually improved in health till I am entirely free from acidity of the stomach, and from the consequent flatulency, and the awful and almost distracting sick headache, which often, for days together, has wholly unfitted me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden. Having derived so great a relief, I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Mrs. Fowle & Co., and also a duty to the public, to recommend their Oxygenated bitters, as in my estimation, a sure remedy for that most trying, most vexing, and cruel of all diseases, to which poor human flesh is heir, the dyspepsia. Having suffered so long, and tried so many different remedies with no good result, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with a confidence few others can. If any of the readers of the Mirror are suffering, I beg of them to make a trial of these Bitters without delay

EASTON HOTEL.

J. Q. A. HADDAWAY, Proprietor.

THE subscriber most respectfully thanks his friends and patrons for the liberal share of patronage they have extended to him during the past year and hopes to continue in their favor during the coming year by endeavoring to render them comfortable to the full extent of his ability.

From the first day of January, he feels it his duty to charge for a gallon of Oast 12½ cents—when it is paid for at the time it is obtained, and if he has to charge the same he shall in all cases and without any deviation from the rule, charge Fifty Cents.

Dinner as usual, 37½ cents, when paid for at the time eaten—or $1,00 if suffered to go on his books. Please recollect this that we may have no difficulty. [Easton, Jan 1, 1858.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a NEGRO WOMAN calling herself Esther Smith, supposed to be a runaway slave, and supposed to be from Baltimore, has been committed to Somerset county Jail in Princess Anne, Maryland. She was arrested on the 5th of December last. She claims to be free, but from her contradictory statements is thought to be a slave. She appears to be about 50 years old, has a dark complexion, somewhat over 5 feet high, upper teeth gone, and one of her lower front teeth, has a scar on her under lip and one on the back of the left hand. Her apparel is a summer delaine, and a fancy colored shawl much faded. If the owner comes forward within sixty days and proves property and pays all charges he can get his slave.—Otherwise I must proceed to dispose of her according to law. JOSHUA W. PHILLIPS, jan 29—9t Sheriff of Somerset County, Md.
