The Mayor and City Council of Baltimore vs Julianna T. M. Williamson Widow of David Williamson Sr. Julianna De Butts Garrett & De Butts Maria Williamson Widow of David Williamson William Carroll Hennella Maria Carroll David Williamson Sr. Le Turner Williamson Sarah G. Imsfo Henry Imsfo Mary A. Williamson Hennella Williamson John T. Williamson Charles H. Williamson Rebecca Williamson Virginia Williamson Mary Rebecca Young Nelly De Coursey Mary De Coursey John De Coursey The Bill of Complaint of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore Humbly shews That Whereas by Act in the 12 day of June 1794 a certain D. Williamson of Baltimore County died by deed of that date convey unto Joseph Tunstall John Cutler and John Dunn and their successors, a certain Lot of ground in the County aforesaid and particularly described in said deed upon the special Trust Nevertheless that the said Trustees and their successors should cause the same to be used as a Potters field for the burial of the dead as by the Deed herewith filed marked Exhibit A Minutes fully appear, And your Orators do further represent that there was no provision made in the said deed for the appointment of successors to continue the Trust therein declared and that the said Trust must have ceased and determined at the death of said Trustees aforesaid mentioned Yet that the said Trustees desirous of continuing and perpetuating forever the benevolent object of the said conveyance did by a certain deed assign and convey the aforesaid Potters Field to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, as by the said deed herewith filed marked Exhibit B Minutes fully appear, And your Orators further represent that they have faithfully continued to perform the said Trust until the rapid increase of the City around the said premises rendered it inexpedient to make further use of the same as a
