The Easton Gazette.

SATURDAY MORNING . . . . APRIL 2, 1859.

USEFUL RECEIPTS.

PIMPLES ON THE FACE.—Sponge the parts with very hot water for a quarter of an hour every morning; then take a rough but soft towel and press deeply while rubbing the surface, so as to squeeze out the hardened contents of the follicles, which cause the pimples. By perseverance in this plan, although those pimples already existing will be made worse from the irritation of the rubbing, yet fresh ones will cease to appear, and in time eruption will be nearly or quite cured. It always ceases after 30 or 35 years of age.—London Field.

A NEW REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.—Dr. Desmartes, of Bordeaux, has published in the Abeille Medicale the result of four years' experience, in reference to the curative effects of the sap of the pine tree in consumption. One instance quoted is of a young lady, whose father, mother, sister, and other relations, had all died of the disorder She was afflicted with violent retching and spitting of blood, and all the symptoms of an advanced pulmonary consumption were ascertained by auscultation. The spitting of blood was stopped by administering one drachm of powdered rue per day. (Dr. Desmartes considers rue, RUTA GRAVEOLENS, to be one of the best hæmostatics known.) After which the patient took a bottle of pine sap per day for the space of two months and a half; at the end of which time every alarming symptom had disappeared. The patient suffered no relapse. He quotes many other instances.

Pine sap usually purges in the beginning, but this effect, which is purely eliminating, soon ceases.

TO FASTEN ON THE HANDLES OF KNIVES AND FORKS.—The handles of knives and forks that have come off by being put in hot water may be fastened in the following manner:—Procure some powdered resin, and mix with a SMALL quantity of chalk, whiting or quick lime, let the handles be about half filled with this mixture, heat the ends of the knives or forks and force them in, when cold they will be found to be securely fastened. N. B.—Knives and forks that are not fastened to the handles by rivets, should never be put into hot water.

OR,—Take a small portion of a quill pen, and put into the handle of the knife, warm the blade, and when it is hot put it into the quill in the handle, and press it in very firmly; this is a very simple method, but it has been found to answer the purpose required several times.

OR,—Brick-dust stirred into melted resin makes a composition that will fix knives and forks in their handles. The tang should be thrust in warm.

OR,—Mix a little chopped hair or tow—with powdered resin and fill with it, the hole in the handle of the knife, then heat the spike of the blade, (i. e. the part which fits into the handle) and ram it down into its place, the heated steel will melt the resin, which will then keep the blade of the knife or fork in its place. N. B.—The chopped hair (or tow) must NOT be OMITTED.—London Field.

PIE CAKES.—The best mode of cooking rice, that is to our taste, and an excellent breakfast dish or dinner desert, is the following: Boil the rice soft, and while warm make it into flattened balls, say an inch thick and three inches in diameter. When wanted for use, dip the balls in beaten egg and cook upon a greased griddle the same as buckwheat flat jacks. The thin film of egg on the surface prevents the absorption of grease. The cakes thus prepared and eaten with butter or sauce of any kind liked, are very far from being "bad to take."

NEATS-FOOT OIL.—J. N. Baker, High Prairie, Ill., writes:—Take the knee joints of cattle, and boil them three or four hours, when the oil will rise to the top of the water. Remove the kettle from the fire, and when cold skim off the oil. Every farmer and every one who would preserve leather should keep a supply of this article on hand. For softening and preserving leather of harness, boots and shoes, etc., it has no equal. It is also highly recommended for sore teats of cows.

SEASONING SAUSAGE MEAT.—For 50 pounds of meat, take 11 ounces of salt, 5 tablespoonfuls of pounded saltpetre, 5 tablespoonfuls of ground black pepper, 4 tablespoonfuls of ground allspice, 5 tablespoonfuls of sage. Mix them well together, and then incorporate well with the meat.

REASONS FOR WEARING A MOUSTACHE.

We have been able to draw up a table of the different reasons for wearing a moustache. We have questioned not less than one thousand persons so adorned, and their answers have helped us to the following result:—

To avoid shaving,	69
To avoid catching cold,	32
To hide their teeth,	5
To take away from a prominent nose,	5
To avoid being taken as an Englishman,	7
Because they are in the army,	6
Because they have been in the army,	221
Because the aristocracy does it,	2
Because it is artistic,	29
Bacause I am a singer,	3
Because I travel a deal,	17
Because I have lived long on the continent	3
Because the wife likes it.	8
Because I have weak lungs,	5
Because it acts as a respirator,	29
Because it is healthy,	77
Because the young ladies admire it,	471
Because it is considered the "the thing,"	10
Because he chooses,	1

It will be seen from the above table that not one person confesses to "vanity" being the motive. The majority of persons wear a moustache because they imagine, in their conceit, it becomes them; but how rarely you meet a person who has the courage to admit it.

THE WIFE'S COMMANDMENTS.

A Sunday paper, published in Cincinnati, gives the following as a correct version for the use of all doubting husbands.—Listen:

1. Thou shalt have no other wife but me.
2. Thou shalt not take into thy house any beautiful brazen image of a servant girl, to bow down to her, for I am a jealous wife, visiting &c.
3. Thou shalt not take the name of thy wife in vain.
4. Remember thy wife to keep her respectably.
5. Honor thy wife's father and mother.
6. Thou shalt not fret.
7. Thou shalt not find fault with thy dinner.
8. Thou shalt not chew tobacco.
9. Thou shalt not be behind thy neighbor.
10. Thou shalt not visit the rum-tavern; thou shalt not covet the tavern keeper's rum nor his brandy, nor his gin, nor his whiskey, nor his wine nor anything that is behind the bar of the rum-seller.
11. Thou, shalt not visit billiard saloons, neither for worshipping in the dance, nor the heaps of money that lie on the table.

And the twelfth commandment is, thou shalt not stay out later than nine o'clock at night.

ROBINSON'S MANIPULATED GUANO.

THIS UNEQUALLED FERTILIZER composed of one-half best Peruvian Guano and half fine Ground Bone and the best Phosphatic Guano, is in condition for immediate use, being prepared by new and improved machinery, by which means the most perfect combination is effected, reducing all to a uniform fine powder; and for application by drill or otherwise, it is in the most perfect order And I have no hesitation in saying, that for all crops it is equal to any fertilizer ever offered to the farming community. The quality will be kept perfectly uniform in all cases, and WARRANTED to contain 8 per cent. of AMMONIA and 45 to 50 per cent. of BONE PHOSPHATE OF LIME. It is put up in good bags, weighing about 150 lbs. each. Purchasers will please notice, that the name, F. ROBINSON, is branded on each bag—none other is genuine

My long experience in the trade, and the general satisfaction heretofore given by all Guanoes sold by me, will, I hope, be a guarantee that the article now offered will be as represented I will also keep constantly on hand the best PERUVIAN, MEXICAN and other Guanoes, which I will sell as low as any house in the city
