caused the said Caveat by deed dated the day and year last aforesaid to convey said ground to said Caroline. That by the payment of the purchase money aforesaid the said Hertz rendered himself hopelessly insolvent that being so insolvent and with the purpose of further defrauding his creditors said Hertz sometime in the year 1857 being possessed of a large stock of goods and merchandise in the City of Alexandria aforesaid made a voluntary assignment thereof to said Henry Blendein and on the 7 day of May 1857 made another voluntary assignment of the stock of Merchandise Furniture and Effects with the furniture in his dwelling in one of his stores in the City of Baltimore thus stripping himself of all the property of which he was visibly ostensibly the owner except a stock of Merchandise in a store in Howard Street in the City of Baltimore that having reduced the said stock of Merchandise in Howard Street by secret fraudulent remedies therefrom to places unknown to your Orators with a view to extort from his creditors a release from his debts and claims the said Hertz on the 10 day of June 1857 executed to a certain Abraham Rosenburg a clerk of his stock of goods in his store in Howard Street in the City of Baltimore with some other things in trust that after payment of certain charges and that she had not earned any money before her marriage and that since her marriage she received no money or property of any kind by gift bequest descent or in course of distribution that the purchases aforesaid from said Caveat with the view of becoming largely indebted to your Orators and his other creditors and that the said purchase and the said assignments to Henry Blendein James Goodman and Abraham Rosenburg were and each of them was made with the intent and purpose on the part of said Hertz Caroline Henry James and Abraham to hinder delay and defraud the creditors of said Hertz of their just claims and debts. And to interrogate the said Caroline as follows that is to say

Whether as a bride she earned any part of the said purchase money paid by her, as she alleges to said Caveat and if so. That she may state the amount of it so earned the name and the residence of the person or persons with whom she was so hired and the length of time in which she was a bride quo as aforesaid and the wages at which she was so hired and that she may state whether any portion of the money with which she made the said payment was deposited any where for her or for her use and if so when was it so deposited, where how long and in whose name was it so deposited. All as in duty bound &c

Which being read and heard the Court thereupon passed the following Order to Wit,

May 7th 1861 Ordered by the Court on the foregoing Petition that the plaintiffs be and they are hereby permitted to amend their Bill as prayed.

Wm. G. Krebs.

Thereupon the Complainants aforesaid by their Solicitor aforesaid filed in Court here in said cause the following amended and supplemental Bill of Complaint to Wit.

The amended and supplemental Bill of Complaint of Roland Moore and Charles Moore humbly shews. That heretofore they filed their Bill of Complaint in this Court against a certain Hertz Blendein and Caroline Blendein his wife of Baltimore City bearing among other things for a Decree for the sale of certain property therein described and a distribution of the proceeds of among the creditors of said Hertz to which Bill the defendants answered and other proceedings were had as by the same proceedings now in Court more appear,

All your Orators have lately discovered and now charge by way of supplemental amendment to their aforesaid Bill of Complaint that in the year 1856 or thereabouts the said Hertz was engaged in Merchandising in Baltimore City that
