PUBLIC SALE OF Valuable Real Estate, IN AND NEAR EASTON.

BY virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court for Talbot county sitting in Equity, passed in a cause in which Anna C. Hammond and others are complainants, and Samuel Chamberlain and others are defendants, the undersigned Trustee will offer for sale at public auction at the Court House door in the town of Easton, on Tuesday 17th day of May next, at 3 o'clock P. M., the following parcels of the Real Estate of Doct. Nicholas Hammond dec'd, viz:

1 A HOUSE & LOT at the north end of Washington street in the town of Easton, opposite the Steam mill, and now in the occupancy of Mrs. Gannon.

2. A HOUSE & LOT on the same street, nearly opposite the Frame Tavern, formerly known as the property of Bennett Jones and now occupied by Mr. Geo. W. Beck.
3. The Farm known as "WEST GALLOWAY," situated about two miles from Easton, opposite to and adjoining the residence of Howes Goldsborough, Esq., and now rented to Mr. Wm. A. Cox. This farm contains by recent survey 368¾ acres, and will be sold in parcels, according to a plat to be exhibited at the sale. These parcels comprise a COMPACT FARM of 200¾ acres, binding on the public roads leading from Easton to Centreville, and to Hillsborough, with an abundance of WOOD to serve the place, and improved by a Frame Dwelling House and suitable Stabling and outbuildings. The soil is kind and easily improved, produces well the usual crops of the country, and is peculiarly adapted to the growth of Fruit and marketing, for the sale of which the projected Maryland and Delaware Railroad, passing near the borders of the farm, will offer unsurpassed facilities.

They comprise also 10 Wood Lots, containing from 9 to 11¾ acres each, all opening on the West side of the Hillsborough road, and within a convenient distance of Easton, and an unimproved tract of 64 acres mostly covered with a young growth of Cedar and other woods, lying on the east side of that road and well situated for a small farm.

These parcels are numbered Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13, on the plat and will be sold separately.
4th. The well known farm, called "ST. AUBEN," situate about one mile from Easton, now in the occupancy of Mr. Charles Rathel, and containing of which 62 acres lie on the right, and 112 on the left of the road leading to Goldsboro' neck. The improvements upon this property are of the most ample and substantial character, consisting of a Large Brick Dwelling House, and large and commodious Brick Stabling; Carriage House, Hay Barracks and a frame Barn. The soil is well adapted to the growth of wheat, corn and hay, or to the purposes of a grazing farm, and with proper treatment may be made to produce heavily, while its proximity to town, with its schools, churches, society, and business facilities, renders the farm particularly desirable as a residence for any one having professional or other engagements there, and who may wish to combine with them the attractive and healthy pursuits of agriculture.

174 Acres of Land,

Both of these farms are within three miles of navigable water.
The title to all this property is clear and unquestionable. The terms of sale are one third cash on the day of sale, or on its ratification by the court at the discretion of the Trustee and the remaining two-thirds in equal payments at one and two years from that day; the whole to bear interest from the day of sale, if not then paid, and the credit payments to be secured by the bond of the purchaser, with surety to the satisfaction of the Trustee. As the property is under rent for the current year, Rent and taxes will be apportioned, in the discretion of the Trustee, to the day of sale. And on the payment of the whole purchase money and not before the Trustee is authorized to convey undoubted title in fee to the property sold.
The tenants on the premises will show the property and any information will be given on application to the undersigned.

MARION AND HIS MEN!

The Anxiously-Looked for and Deeply Exciting
TALE OF THE REVOLUTION,
Now Ready!
OR THE
Reble Riflemen,
A TALE OF THE
TIMES AND FEATS OF MARION,
By George Albany, Esq.,
Author of "The Orange-Girl or Venice," "The Swamp Steed," "Rue the Ranger," &c., will be commenced in the
NEW YORK MERCURY
Of Saturday, April 30, 1859,
Now Ready at all News Depots and Bookstores.
No character in history offers a better subject for the romancer, than that of Marion, or, as he was familiarly called, from the immense ingenuity of his stratagems and devices for misleading and deceiving the enemy, his thorough knowledge of the woods, foresis, fields, and swamps of his native region, where he and his gallant band were perfectly at home, while their enemies became lost and bewildered in the labyrinthine mazes of undergrowth and morass.
The story announced is a true reflex of those scenes and times, and its talented author has most vividly portrayed, therein, the many exciting incidents and accidents of a tenacious and indefatigable struggle for Liberty, pursued under the most adverse circumstances. Every chapter is replete with exciting and romantic interest, historically accurate, but with a sparkling web of poetry woven through it, which makes it at once a brilliant story and a veracious record. The strongly written descriptions of events—the ambuscade—the sudden sortie—the night attack—the wild charge and repulse—are all wonderful as examples of word-painting, and equally true to the actual facts.
In addition to these scenes of heroism and lofty daring the Swamp Fox is not without the gentle charm of a love-story, for the working and the effects of the tender passions are depicted in its pages, as truly and artistically as the sterner emotions, rendering the tale a perfect picture of life and character in the Days of the Revolution, which cannot fail to appeal to the admiration, and gratify the taste of every reader who has a spark of patriotism in his soul.
The peculiar power and interest with which the gifted author, George Albany, Esq., describes the thrilling period, is a guarantee of the excellence of this truly magnificent Historical Romance. The vivid delineation of character, the depth of thought, the fascination of style, the picturesque beauty of description, and, in a word, the power of language he commands, all combine to render him one of the most brilliant writers of the age, while the great appreciation of and sympathy with the pioneers in the cause of universal liberty give him a grasp of Revolutionary subjects possessed by very few others. This has enabled him, in the Swamp Fox, to exhibit the life and adventures of
as they really were, and to do fit homage to that deliberate valor, that unyielding patriotism, which, in a few noble spirits, defying danger, and above the scenes of privation, could keep alive the sacred fires of liberty in the thick swamps and dense and gloomy forests—asking nothing, yielding nothing, and only leaving the field the better to re enter it for the combat!
We take to ourselves some credit for having secured for our columns the chefs d'œuvres of the master's pen, but we intend to give the
a still higher prestige than ever. We believe it is already the Best and Largest Story Paper in the world, and we contemplate making it better and better, with every successive number, in spite of expense and opposition.

BAYARD TAYLOR, ENGAGED EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE NEW YORK MERCURY!

At a very heavy expense we have succeeded in securing the Celebrated Poet, Author and Tourist, whose charming letters from foreign lands have long kept the world enlightened and interested, BAYARD TAYLOR, Esq., who will hereafter make the Mercury the only recipient of his inestimable Sketches of Travel,
one of which will appear EVERY WEEK.
We have the happiness to announce, therefore, that in the
The New York Mercury for April 30, '59, will be commenced
STRAY CHAPTERS
or
Life and Travel,
BY BAYARD TAYLOR,
the initiatory article being entitled
"THE FIRST JOURNEY I EVER MADE,"
which is considered by the author—as it unquestionably will be by the public—to be his most interesting adventure since the original outset of the Great American Traveler, and cannot fail to be of interest to all. These delightful articles will be Beautifully Illustrated with original designs, in the highest style of the art, portraying the scenes and characters described in the most graphic manner.
This new feature is a most valuable and instructive one, suited to both young and old, and will render the NEW YORK MERCURY worthy of a leading place, as the most refined and elegant of all FAMILY PAPERS. Since the first announcement of our engagement of Mr. Taylor, we have received a flood of inquiries from all parts of the Union, relative to the enterprise, showing that public expectation is on tip-toe to learn the particulars regarding the character of his contributions. As it is impossible for us to answer these in detail, we can only refer our friends and correspondents to the
where the first of these sparkling and popular sketches will be found.
As no other American has ever traveled so extensively as BAYARD TAYLOR, and no other traveler can see things with the eyes of America, we need not further eulogize the value of these emanations of his mind and observation, to the reading public. It is sufficient to say that they will greatly enhance the high character that the MERCURY has ever maintained, and that has heretofore rested upon many causes, some of the most important of which may be summed up as follows:
The MERCURY employs more literay talent than any other paper.
The MERCURY pays more, and higher prices for that talent, than any other paper.
The MERCURY is constantly announcing new, startling, and brilliant additions to its already unrivaled fund of attractions.
The MERCURY is illustrated by F. O. C. Darley, Esq., the greatest artist of this century, and his beautiful pictures are thus brought within the reach of the entire public.
The Mercury is the oldest and most firmly established literary journal in America.
THE MERCURY, during the Twenty-one years of its prosperous existence, has published a large number of popular original tales, romances, than all its imitators combined.
THE MERCURY must be seen, to be appreciated, and we are fully determined to make its name "familiar as a household word;" with every family in the land.
THE MERCURY is for sale by all newsdealers and booksellers in every part of the country, and subscriptions are received for it at every Post Office.

It will be seen from the foregoing announcement, that the Mercury for April 30th, 1859, will be an excellent number for subscribers to date their subscriptions from.

Great American Remedy
For the cure of every minor disease of the Throat, Lungs, and Chest, as well as the most felt and fatal of all, CONSUMPTION!
The following letter from Rev. Henry Wood, late Consul to Beyroot, Syria, and formerly editor of the Congregationalist, Concord, N. H, and now Chaplain U. S Navy, is of like tenor of thousands in our possession:—
Concord, N. H., March 2.
Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen—Two years ago, a sudden and violent attack upon my lungs confined me to my bed for several weeks, and when I recovered, I was so much oppressed by difficulty in breathing, that I was often unable to sleep or rest upon a bed by night. The suffering was extreme, and judging from the inefficiency of the remedies used, I supposed the disease incurable. Being persuaded to try a bottle of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, without the least confidence in its efficiency, I found the difficulty almost entirely removed before one bottle was used up. Having a mortal aversion to medicine, and seldom using it in any form, sympathy with my fellow sufferers induces me to make this public statement, and recommend the article to others similarly afflicted.
With respect, yours truly, HENRY WOOD.
It has been used with like success by SAMUEL A. WALKER, Auctioneer.
DR. WM. A. SHAW, Washington, N.C.
Alderman PERKINS.
And by numerous Physicians in their practice, as their Certificates testify.
