MARYLAND:

Talbot County Orphan's Court,

April Term, A. D. 1859.

ON application of Mrs. Mary E. McKnett, Extr'x of Robert H. McKnett, late of Talbot county, deceased—

It is ordered that she give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased's estate, and that she cause the same to be published once in each week for the space of three successive weeks, in one of the newspapers printed in the town of Easton.

In testimony that the foregoing is truly copied from the minutes of proceedings of Talbot county Orphan's Court, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of my office affixed, this 6th day of May, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and fifty-nine.

{SEAL}

NICHOLAS RICE,
Register of Wills for Talbot county

IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE ABOVE ORDER,

Notice is hereby given, that the subscriber hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of Talbot county, in the State of Maryland, letters Testamentary on the personal estate of Robert H. McKnett, late of Talbot county, dec'd. All persons having claims against the said deceased estate, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, properly authenticated, to the subscriber, on or before the 6th of May, 1860, otherwise they may be by law excluded from all the benfits of the said deceased's estate

N. B.—All persons indebted to the said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

BEAUTIFUL RESIDENCE

ON SALT WATER,

IN OXFORD NECK, TALBOT CO., MD.

PUBLIC SALE!

THE subscriber intending to leave the State, will offer at Easton, Md., on

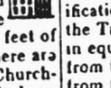

The 7th day of June next,

"EAST AVON," being a part of "Otwell," the residence of the late Col. N. Goldsborough, a tract celebrated for its fertility. This Farm contains and has on it a new and beautiful Cottage Residence, designed by Jas. & Jas. M. Dixon, Architects, Baltimore, Md., built of first class material and in the best manner. The view from the Dwelling is very commanding, and from the Observatory which overlooks the entire surrounding country is seen the beautiful Third Haven Creek with its numerous tributaries, and at a greater distance the broad Choptank River. This landscape is rendered more attractive by the frequent passing of sailing vessels and steamers running to and from Baltimore, and by sail canoes, most of which are in the oyster trade, but a great many are fancy pleasure boats. The steamers passing by the door stop for passengers whenever a signel is given. The shores are of firm white sand, affording delightful bathing.—The Angling is always good during the summer and fall months—and at a hurdle near the house are caught the delicious Sheepshead. Oysters abound in vast quantities and within a few hundred yards from the house there is a land-locked cove, a lake in appearance, now planted with Oysters, covering three acres, and as the mouth or outlet is only twenty feet wide, Terrapins could be enclosed and bred in it with trifling cost. Upon this farm is one of the most prominent Ducking Points on the creek. It is distant ten miles from Easton, the county town, five from Trappe, and the same distance from Oxford, where there is a steamboat wharf. The enclosure around the buildings are new and handsome, built of heart yellow pine with locust and cedar posts. The Barn and stables are new and built in the most durable manner. There is also an Overseer's House and two Negro Houses. The location is very healthy, and the land highly productive. There is marl in abundance within three feet of the natural surface; besides this there are also rich deposits of Indian Shells. Churches, schools and mills are conveniently located.

TERMS OF SALE, one fourth of the purchase money cash; the purchaser giving notes secured by mortgage on the property or other approved security for the deferred payments, to be made in 12, 18 and 24 months.

may 7-tu6 N. GOLDSBOROUGH.

N. B.—The location of this farm can be fully understood by reference to the Map of Talbot County; to be seen in Washington, Annapolis, Baltimore, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

VERY DESIRABLE TALBOT COUNTY FARM

FOR SALE.

ON TUESDAY, the 17th of May next, I shall offer at public sale at the Court House in Easton, Maryland, containing 353 3-4 ACRES—176½ being cleared and 177½ fine TIMBERED LAND, 38 Acres of the latter being detached from, but near to the main body, and covered with very superior WHITE OAK TIMBER which has never been subjected to cutting.

'TAUSKY WOOD,'

This Farm is 1½ mile distant from Easton, and is situated on Glebe Creek, an arm of Miles River, and fronts upon a public road. It is noted on the County Map, "Heirs of N. Goldsborough."

In respect to its central and accessible position in the county, and its proximity to the County Town, Steamboat Landings, Churches, Schools, and Mills; and in respect to the character of the neighborhood, the location of this farm is admirable and unsurpassed, as will fully appear upon examination of the County Map, copies of which can be seen in Annapolis, Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia.

This farm has for many years passed been cultivated in the best manner; all of it has been well limed, and it has produced some of the heavies crops of grain that have been grown in this county. For extensive and profitable fruit culture, this location in respect to two steamboat landings and the projected Rail Road from Easton;—its protection from storms by surrounding forests, and the character of the soil, possesses very great advantages.

The fences, ditches and meadows are clean and in fine order.

The Dwelliag is a small two storied brick house, in good repair, and the barn & corn house are new, well built of prime materials, and commodious.

PUBLIC SALE OF

Valuable Real Estate,

IN AND NEAR EASTON.

BY virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court for Talbot county sitting in Equity, passed in a cause in which Anna C. Hammond and others are complainants, and Samuel Chamberlain and others are defendants, the undersigned Trustee will offer for sale at public auction at the Court House door in the town of Easton, on Tuesday 17th day of May next, at 3 o'clock P. M., the following parcels of the Real Estate of Doct. Nicholas Hammond dec'd, viz:

1 A HOUSE & LOT at the north end of Washington street in the town of Easton, opposite the Steam mill, and now in the occupancy of Mrs. Gannon.

2. A HOUSE & LOT on the same street, nearly opposite the Frame Tavern, formerly known as the property of Bennett Jones and now occupied by Mr. Geo. W. Beck.

3. The Farm known as "WEST GALLOWAY," situated about two miles from Easton, opposite to and adjoining the residence of Howes Goldsborough, Esq., and now rented to Mr. Wm. A. Cox. This farm contains by recent survey 368¾ acres, and will be sold in parcels, according to a plat to be exhibited at the sale. These parcels comprise a COMPACT FARM of 200¾ acres, binding on the public roads leading from Easton to Centreville, and to Hillsborough, with an abundance of WOOD to serve the place, and improved by a Frame Dwelling House and suitable Stabling and outbuildings. The soil is kind and easily improved, produces well the usual crops of the country, and is peculiarly adapted to the growth of Fruit and marketing, for the sale of which the projected Maryland and Delaware Railroad, passing near the borders of the farm, will offer unsurpassed facilities.

They comprise also 10 Wood Lots, containing from 9 to 11½ acres each, all opening on the West side of the Hillsborough road, and within a convenient distance of Easton, and an unimproved tract of 64 acres mostly covered with a young growth of Cedar and other woods, lying on the east side of that road and well situated for a small farm.

These parcels are numbered Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13, on the plat and will be sold separately.

4th. The well known farm, called "St. AUBEN," situate about one mile from Easton, now in the occupancy of Mr. Charles Rathel, and containing of which 62 acres lie on the right, and 112 on the left of the road leading to Goldsboro' neck. The improvements upon this property are of the most ample and substantial character, consisting of a Large Brick Dwelling House, and large and commodious Brick Stabling; Carriage House, Hay Barracks and a frame Barn. The soil is well adapted to the growth of wheat, corn and hay, or to the purposes of a grazing farm, and with proper treatment may be made to produce heavily, while its proximity to town, with its schools, churches, society, and business facilities, renders the farm particularly desirable as a residence for any one having professional or other engagements there, and who may wish to combine with them the attractive and healthy pursuits of agriculture.

174 Acres of Land,

Both of these farms are within three miles of navigable water.

The title to all this property is clear and unquestionable. The terms of sale are one third cash on the day of sale, or on its ratification by the court at the discretion of the Trustee and the remaining two-thirds in equal payments at one and two years from that day; the whole to bear interest from the day of sale, if not then paid, and the credit payments to be secured by the bond of the purchaser with surety to the satisfaction of the Trustee. As the property is under rent for the current year, Rent and taxes will be apportioned, in the discretion of the Trustee, to the day of sale. And on the payment of the whole purchase money and not before the Trustee is authorized to convey undoubted title in fee to the property sold.

The tenants on the premises will show the property and any information will be given on application to the undersigned.

'MARION AND HIS MEN!

The Anxiously-Looked for and Deeply Exciting

TALE OF THE REVOLUTION,

Now Ready!

OR THE

Reble Riflemen,

A TALE OF THE

TIMES AND FEATS OF MARION,

By George Albany, Esq.,

Author of "The Orange-Girl or Venice," "The Swamp Steed," "Rue the Ranger," &c., will be commenced in the

NEW YORK MERCURY

Of Saturday, April 30, 1859,

Now Ready at all News Depots and Bookstores.

No character in history offers a better subject for the romancer, than that of Marion, or, as he was familiarly called, from the immense ingenuity of his stratagems and devices for misleading and deceiving the enemy, his thorough knowledge of the woods, forests, fields, and swamps of his native region, where he and his gallant band were perfectly at home, while their enemies became lost and bewildered in the labyrinthine mazes of undergrowth and morass.

The story announced is a true reflex of those scenes and times, and its talented author has most vividly portrayed, therein, the many exciting incidents and accidents of a tenacious and indefatigable struggle for Liberty, pursued under the most adverse circumstances. Every chapter is replete with exciting and romantic interest, historically accurate, but with a sparkling web of poetry woven through it, which makes it at once a brilliant story and a veracious record. The strongly written descriptions of events—the ambuscade—the sudden sortie—the night attack—the wild charge and repulse—are all wonderful as examples of word-painting, and equally true to the actual facts.

In addition to these scenes of heroism and lofty daring the Swamp Fox is not without the gentle charm of a love-story, for the working and the effects of the tender passions are depicted in its pages, as truly and artistically as the sterner emotions, rendering the tale a perfect picture of life and character in the Days of the Revolution, which cannot fail to appeal to the admiration, and gratify the taste of every reader who has a spark of patriotism in his soul.

The peculiar power and interest with which the gifted author, George Albany, Esq., describes the thrilling period, is a guarantee of the excellence of this truly magnificent Historical Romance. The vivid delineation of character, the depth of thought, the fascination of style, the picturesque beauty of description, and, in a word, the power of language he commands, all combine to render him one of the most brilliant writers of the age, while the great appreciation of and sympathy with the pioneers in the cause of universal liberty give him a grasp of Revolutionary subjects possessed by very few others. This has enabled him, in the Swamp Fox, to exhibit the life and adventures of as they really were, and to do fit homage to that deliberate valor, that unyielding patriotism, which, in a few noble spirits, defying danger, and above the scenes of privation, could keep alive the sacred fires of liberty in the thick swamps and dense and gloomy forests—asking nothing, yielding nothing, and only leaving the field the better to re-enter it for the combat!

We take to ourselves some credit for having secured for our columns the chefs d'œuvres of the master's pen, but we intend to give the

a still higher prestige than ever. We believe it is already the

Best and Largest Story Paper

in the world, and we contemplate making it better and better, with every successive number, in spite of expense and opposition.

BAYARD TAYLOR,

ENGAGED EXCLUSIVELY FOR

THE NEW YORK MERCURY!

At a very heavy expense we have succeeded in securing the Celebrated Poet, Author and Tourist, whose charming letters from foreign lands have long kept the world enlightened and interested,

BAYARD TAYLOR, Esq.,

who will hereafter make the Mercury the only recipient of his inestimable

Sketches of Travel,

one of which will appear EVERY WEEK.

We have the happiness to announce, therefore, that in the

The New York Mercury for April 30, '59,

will be commenced

STRAY CHAPTERS

OR

Life and Travel,

BY BAYARD TAYLOR,

the initiatory article being entitled

"THE FIRST JOURNEY I EVER MADE,"

which is considered by the author—as it unquestionably will be by the public—to be his most interesting adventure since the original outset of the Great American Traveler, and cannot fail to be of interest to all. These delightful articles will be Beautifully Illustrated with original designs, in the highest style of the art, portraying the scenes and characters described in the most graphic manner.

This new feature is a most valuable and instructive one, suited to both young and old, and will render the NEW YORK MERCURY worthy of a leading place, as the most refined and elegant of all FAMILY PAPERS. Since the first announcement of our engagement of Mr. Taylor, we have received a flood of inquires from all parts of the Union, relative to the enterprise, showing that public expectation is on tip-toe to learn the particulars regarding the character of his contributions. As it is impossible for us to answer these in detail, we can only refer our friends and correspondents to the

where the first of these sparkling and popular sketches will be found.

As no other American has ever traveled so extensively as BAYARD TAYLOR, and no other traveler cash see things with the eyes of America, we need not further eulogize the value of these emanations of his mind and observation, to the reading public. It is sufficient to say that they will greatly enhance the high character that the MERCURY has ever maintained, and that has heretofore rested upon many causes, some of the most important of which may be summed up as follows:

The MERCURY employs more literay talent than any other paper.

The MERCURY pays more, and higher prices for that talent, than any other paper.

The MERCURY is constantly announcing new, startling, and brilliant additions to its already unrivaled fund of attractions.

The MERCURY is illustrated by F. O. C. Darley, Esq., the greatest artist of this century, and his beautiful pictures are thus brought within the reach of the entire public.

The Mercury is the oldest and most firmly established literary journal in America.

THE MERCURY, during the Twenty-one years of its prosperous existence, has published a large number of popular original tales, romances, than all its imitators combined.

THE MERCURY must be seen, to be appreciated, and we are fully determined to make its name "familiar as a household word," with every family in the land.

THE MERCURY is for sale by all newsdealers and booksellers in every part of the country, and subscriptions are received for it at every Post Office.

It will be seen from the foregoing announcement, that the Mercury for April 30th, 1859, will be an excellent number for subscribers to date their subscriptions from.

DYSPEPSIA

AND KINDRED DISEASES

RADICALLY, PERMANENTLY & SPEEDILY

CURED BY THE

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Experience has confirmed these Bitters, as the most Remarkable Preparation ever presented to the public for the cure of the following complaints, viz:—Pain in the Stomach, Heart Burn, Water Rash, Costiveness, Acidity, Oppression after Eating, Jaundice, Piles, Flatuency, Ennui, Torpor of the Liver, Dizziness, Debility, Fever and Ague, Climatic Influence, Female Complaints, and all Diseases having their origin in imperfect digestion, or deranged condition of the stomach.

This preparation contains no Alcohol, or Poisonous Drugs; is not affected by time or climate; is highly agreeable to the taste; and while it differs totally from all other remedies ever discovered, is unsurpassably superior to them all.

[From the Boston Post, Feb. 9, 1858.]

OXYGENATED BITTERS.—The various certificates given by gentlemen of position in regard to the merits of these Bitters, which we believe to be fully merited, are endorsed to-day by a card which appears in the Portland Christian Mirror, of the 20th ult. As a voluntary expression of opinion, it must have its due effect.

EAST TAUNTON, Jan 4, 1858

Mr. Lord—Dear Sir:—You will confer a favor upon me, and I trust also upon the suffering, by giving the following a place in the Mirror.

JAMES R. CUSHING.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.—For more than twenty-five years I have been a sufferer from the dyspepsia. Besides trying the patience of my family physicians in the almost useless trials of their various prescriptions, I have tried a great variety of patent medicines with a similar result. Through the kindness of Dr. W. G. Hanaford, I received, in March last, a half dozen bottles of Oxygenated Bitters, from Mr. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston. I began to use them without any hope of deriving help from them. Being determined to give them a fair trial, I continued their use, but without any perceptible benefit till June.

Since then I have gradually improved in health till I am entirely free from acidity of the stomach, and from the consequent flatulency, and the awful and almost distracting sick headache, which often, for days together, has wholly unfitted me for study and for all other ministerial duties, and rendered life a burden. Having derived so great a relief, I feel that I owe it, as an expression of gratitude to Mrs. Fowle & Co., and also a duty to the public, to recommend their Oxygenated bitters, as in my estimation, a sure remedy for that most trying, most vexing, and cruel of all diseases, to which poor human flesh is heir, the dyspepsia. Having suffered so long, and tried so many different remedies with no good result, I can recommend the Oxygenated Bitters with a confidence few others can. If any of the readers of the Mirror are suffering, I beg of them to make a trial of these Bitters without delay
