Cross Exd Do Had your mother been sick long before the day referred to? Had she taken any Laudanum during that time? How much did she take that morning? Did you see all she took that morning? Had you lately seen the vial containing the Laudanum before you saw your mother take? Being a half a teaspoon full with the sugar? How came you to feel it and not before the time she took the half teaspoon full? How much Laudanum was there in the vial when you last saw it? Did the same? How much appeared to have been taken out of it when you saw your Mother take the half teaspoon full? What was the size of the vial? What were the sizes of Laudanum you were in the habit of giving your mother when she required them? How often and why did you give her those doses before the day the Murder was executed? How many drops do you suppose the teaspoon you refer to would hold? Was there any other Laudanum about the house except in the vial you speak of?
