PROGRESSING BACKWARDS.—Postmaster General Holt is a progressive of the old school. He advances crab-fashion, and before he gets to the end of his journey, he will be so far the other way, that his friends will be unable to find him, or rather he will have no friends to do him that kind office. He is a penny economist—a picker up of pins—a small potato touched with the rot. His predecessors in office have labored intelligently, indefatigably, and effectively in perfecting our mail system. They had accomplished much, and left it an easy task for those who should come after them to accomplish more. But this Holt, with the power of a "Kentucky Giant" has smashed the whole machinery at one blow. Wonderful man that Holt! We hope the officeholders and hangers of the Administration in and about Snow Hill, will present him a medal of bull's hide. After years of patient and unwearied exertion, the mail arrangements down the peninsula of Maryland and Delaware were made to suit the wants, wishes and convenience of the dwellers therein. They supported themselves, and the Postmaster General had no right to interfere with them. But Holt has taken the responsibility. He has crushed them all out, and left us with a few old ricketty mail stages to convey us the news as often as a score or more of wind-broken, lame and blind skeletons of horses may find it, convenient to draw them from town to town. Let the medal be sent on by all means!—Worcester Shield.

The New York correspondent of the Boston Journal says:

"Of all the weddings that New York has seen this century, the one that comes off on the 14th of July excites the greatest interest. The bridegroom is a Spanish gentleman of the ripe age of 60 years, small and light of frame, but heavy in gold. His wealth is said to be fabulous. The bride is a young damsel, poor in purse, but of marvelous personal attractions. She is quite young, of queenly form, and of a majestic elegance that commands the attention of all who pass her in the street. The stories told of the preparations, dresses and bridal presents are astounding. Her bridal veil cost one thousand dollars; the bridal jewels one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.—Tiffany is making the bridal wreath. None of your hot-house plants will adorn the brow of the young bride. But the wreath is of gold, and adorned with jewelry of great value. The said bridegroom is a Catholic, and will call in the aid of all that is gorgeous in his church to add to the magnificence of the wedding.

SHOOTING HIS WIFE AND DAUGHTER.—The Chicago Press and Tribune of July 4, says:

An atrocious murder was committed about eight o'clock night before last, fourteen miles from this city. A man named Fulton, a farmer residing in that vicinity, killed his little daughter, three years old. Immediately at the moment of his taking arm with a gun, his wife dodged back, and the charge of shot passed by her, striking a little girl, who sat next to her, in the head tearing off the upper portion of her skull, and scattering her brains in all directions. The fiend then clubbed the gun and commenced beating his wife on the head—continuing to do so until the gun was broken to pieces. Fulton was evidently determined to add the murder of his wife to that of the child, and was only prevented by the want of means. It is supposed that the murderer was drunk at the time. He is a farmer in comfortable circumstances, and is an Irishman.

The prospect of the American party in this State is most cheering. The friends of the cause perceive the recurrence of the "sober second thought" in the public mind, and that it will reject every attempt to renew the wicked dangerous and fruitless Sectional Agitation, which divided opinion in the last Presidential contest: and they reasonably anticipate that in 1860, a Conservative Opposition will triumph over the denationalized party, that now holds the reins of government. This single fact has refused new life into the American party of Maryland, and prepared it to compete with the desperate and persistent efforts of the enemies of the country, until victory shall reward the struggle.

The Administration party, on the contrary, is demoralized and despondent. It has no foot! old in any Northern state, and is rapidly losing the affection of the deceived and betrayed South. Inconsistent with itself and devoid of principle or any public purpose, it is hastening to the doom it richly merits.—Frederick Examiner.

MOUNT VERNON.—The Alexandria Gazett says: The Home and Tomb of Washington will soon pass into the possession of the Ladies' Mount Vernon Association.—Various repairs of the premises will be commenced to-day, under the superintendence of Colonel Charles S. Price, of this place. The carpenter's tools imported from England by General Washington, during his life time, have been preserved, and will, in all probability, be used now in making the contemplated repairs.

Gov. Foote has withdrawn from the congressional canvass in the Vicksburg district.

Teustee's Sale
OF A
Valuable Salt Water Situation,
ON TRED AVON RIVER.

BY virtue of authority derived from the Circuit Court of Talbot County, sitting as a court of equity, I will offer at public sale to the highest bidder, in front of the court house, in Easton, on Tuesday, the 2d day of August next, at the hour of 2 o'clock, P. M, all that farm or plantation of which Joshua E. Leonard died seized and possessed, situated in Hopkin's Neck, Talbot county, immediately on Tred Avon river, opposite the farm of Col. H. E. Bateman, and known as the

"Double Mills."

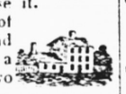

This farm contains about 50 acres of land, more or less, a small portion of which is in wood; the balance is arable land, very fertile, and in a high state of cultivation.—There is an abundance of shell-bank and other resources on it to keep up its present fertility. No farm in that desirable locality produces more abundant crops, the land being adapted alike to Wheat, Corn, Vegetables, and Fruit. It is located immediately on the salt water, and the steamboats running between Easton and Baltimore pass up and down the river within a few rods of the shore. Sail boats also anchor within a few feet of the landing. The facilities it affords for shipping vegetables and fruits to the city, renders it a most desirable location for a truck or Market Farm.

The wood on the place is amply sufficient for farm purposes—and two sides of it being bounded on the water, it requires but a small quantity of fencing to enclose it.

The improvements consist of a DWELLING HOUSE and necessary out houses, and a first rate well of water—two WIND MILLS, favorably located for doing a good grist business.

ADVANTAGES.

Perhaps no situation on the Eastern Shore is more healthy, it having enjoyed a high character in this respect from time immemorial. The waters adjacent abound with Fish, Oysters and Terrapins, all of which are plentiful in their season Wild fowl is also abundant during the winter, the "Double Mills" being well known as one of the best gunning points on the river, the current being so strong it seldom freezes over, and never longer than a few days at a time. Flock fowl and the more delicate frequent the waters and may be taken in quantities, by baiting for them at the landing during a freese. There is a tolerable good apple orchard, and some peaches. No farm in the county combines more local advantages which go to make a desirable situation. The prospect from the dwelling is beautiful. On one hand, a view of the river may be had almost to Oxford, while on the other, the view extends to Cedar Point, the residence of Joseph R. Price, Esq. Immediately in front is the beautiful Tred Avon river, beyond which is a veregated land-scape of wood and field rarely excelled.

TERMS.—The terms of sale as prescribed by the decree, are one-fourth of the purchase money in cash, to be paid on the day of sale, the residue in three equal instalments of one, two and three years; the purchaser giving bond with good and sufficient security, to be approved by the trustee, bearing interest from the day of sale. On the payment of the purchase money a good title in fee simple will be conveyed by the trustee at the expense of the purchaser.

SPEDDEN OREM,

N. B.—The two wind mills on the premises, being personal property, are reserved, but will be sold to the purchaser of the farm, at private sale, if desired. S. O.

Trustee's Sale.

BY virtue of competent authority the undersigned, as Trustee, will offer at public sale, on Tuesday, the 9th of August next, in front of the Court House, in the town of Easton, between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock P. M., the farm known as the "Glebe" Farm, whereof Andrew Sullivan late of Talbot county, died, seized and possessed, situate on the public road leading from Easton to Landing Neck, and near the public road leading from Easton to Trappe, containing the quantity of 143 Acres of Land.

The buildings comprise a two story Dwelling House out of repair, with ample Kitchen; commodious Smoke-house, Stables, Carriage house, Cart house and Granary—all in good repair, and an excellent well of water. The Farm is divided into three fields, each having a fine stream of water and meadow running through it. Soil very good and susceptible of a high state of improvement. There is also a fine Apple and Peach Orchard upon the farm. The farm is located within 3 miles of Lloyd's Landing, on the Choptank, a mile of Churches and Schools, and two miles distant from "Lloyd's Springs," a place of great resort on account of the excellent and healthy mineral properties of the water. In a beautiful neighborhood, it has all the advantages of an inland situation necessary to commend it to the notice of purchasers Persons desiring to view the premises will be shewn them by the Trustee, residing thereon.

TERMS.—One third of the purchase money in cash; balance in 12 and 18 months, with interest from day of sale, secured by bond and security, approved by the Trustee.

The following letter from Rev. Henry Wood, late Consul to Beyrout, Syria, and formerly editor of the Congregationalist, Concord, N. H, and now Chaplain U. S Navy, is of like tenor of thousands in our possession:—

CONCORD, N. H., March 2.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen—Two years ago, a sudden and violent attack upon my lungs confined me to my bed for several weeks, and when I recovered, I was so much oppressed by difficulty in breathing, that I was often unable to sleep or rest upon a bed by night. The suffering was extreme, and judging from the inefficiency of the remedies used, I supposed the disease incurable. Being persuaded to try a bottle of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, without the least confidence in its efficiency, I found the difficulty almost entirely removed before one bottle was used up. Having a mortal aversion to medicine, and seldom using it in any form, sympathy with my fellow sufferers induces me to make this public statement, and recommend the article to others similarly afflicted.

With respect, yours truly, HENRY WOOD.

It has been used with like success by SAMUEL A. WALKER, Auctioneer.
DR. WM. A. SHAW, Washington, N.C.
Alderman PERKINS.

And by numerous Physicians in their practice, as their Certificates testify.
