Greeting:

Whereas, The Northern Central Railway Company have exhibited bills in our Circuit Court for Baltimore City, their Bill of Complaint for relief in Equity, and for an Injunction to restrain you the said Canton Company of Baltimore from proceeding further with the two suits at Law instituted by you the said Canton Company of Baltimore against the said Northern Central Railway Company in the Superior Court of Baltimore City, and now pending before a Referee to whom the same has been referred under a rule of said Court, the one of said actions being an Ejectment and the other Trespass quare clausum fregit until the matter can be heard and determined in equity.

Now therefore, these are to command and strictly to enjoin and Prohibit you the said Canton Company of Baltimore your officers, Attorneys, or Agents from further proceeding in the above mentioned suits until the further order of our said Court in the premises

Witness the Honorable William Geo. Krebs, Judge of the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, the 9th day March 1863, Issued the 29th day of April 1863.

J. Thomas Adams Clerk.
