to Wit at Nov Term 1844 subject to a certain entry for credits to be ascertained by Isaac Nesbitt which credits had never been ascertained but on the contrary said Nesbitt refused and declined to act after the lapse of several years of which said Judgment exhibit copy was exhibited Marked C. Nine after certain other proceedings and to Nov Term 1858 of said Court the said Hunter issued a scire facias against the said James B Doll upon said Judgment against said James B for the purpose of subjecting said Land to the lien of said Judgment which said scire facias your Complainants the Creditors appeared to and defended at Law, but that a verdict was rendered against them for the sum of $8475.33 irrespective of any credits which the original judgment was entitled to and which had not been and could not then be ascertained of which Judgment and proceedings therein certain short copies were filed as Exhibits marked E. Nine the said Hunter issued a fieri facias on said Judgment and was about to sell said Lands thereunder, the Complainants set forth therein various other equities, with exhibits and prays for an Injunction to stay said fieri facias for an ascertainment of credits to which the original Judgment was entitled and for further relief. Your Complainants then now by way of amendment that Exhibits A B and C filed with said original Bill being short copies are insufficient fully to set forth and the proceedings at Law to which they refer and they be cleared to exhibit herewith full and certified records of said Judgments Marked A B No 1 and C No 1 and pray the same to be taken and regarded as parts of said Bill and this amended Bill. They further then and there by way of amendment that to the Scire facias issued by said Cyrus Hunter to November Term 1858 of your Honorable Court as a Court of Law such of your Complainants as were the Defendants Terretenants to sent not and appear by attorneys and file and the pleas and take all the defences which they could take at Law and that the Court struck out the only plea upon which they relied in court fully prejudiced and prohibition as to all payments made by James B Doll on the original cause of action and prior to the original judgment against said James B on which said scire facias issued and that when said scire facias was regularly called on the Docket and which then stood at issue on the remaining pleas to wit payment and Nul tiel record and before a Jury was called and sworn the said Defendants Terretenants by their attorney offered the said Hunter a Jud in the very manner in which a Jud could be had regard being had to the character of the original judgment and the open and avowedly entry there for the ascertainment of credits which the said Hunter by his attorney refused to accept and insisted upon a Jury which the Court ordered all which pleas defences and proceedings and papers in said cause are hereby shewn by a true and certified copy of said Judgment in said scire facias marked F No 1 which your Complainants pray may be taken and read as part of this amended and the original Bill. They further say and allege by way of amendment that to the said Writ of scire facias issued to said November Term 1858 of said Court at Law the Complainants did record by way of pleas to all the defences which were in their power or which they and properly pleaded or had advantage of in Law under the rules of pleading, pending and rendered governing such cases and that the verdict rendered by the Jury in said case was not only irregular but such as could not be given or rendered in a general form in such a case, and they pray in addition to the prayer in their second Bill that said Judgment may be modified and reformed by your Honor according to law and for proper ascertainment of all credits prior to said original judgment or that the same may be entirely set aside as contrary to Equity and good conscience and your Complainants will ever pray &c
