PROCLIVIOR.

THE NEW YORK MERCURY.

In the annals of the Press there is no parallel in the brilliant success which has attended the career of THE NEW YORK MERCURY—giving it a proud position never before enjoyed by any paper whatever, and securing for it an almost unrivaled circulation.

THE MERCURY is by far the largest, handsomest, and cheapest Literary Journal in the world—containing as much of the most brilliant, entertaining, instructive, and amusing reading-matter in each of its weekly issues as would suffice to make a 12mo book of 250 pages! It has the largest and most extensively-organized corps of famous contributers ever drawn to the focus of any one publication.

This leading Journal of American Literature will continue to be illustrated weekly by the inspired pencil of the greatest of American artists.

FELIX O. C. DARLEY.

In the departments of Historical Romance, Domestic Tales, Moral, Artistic, and Humorous Sketches, Poetry, etc., all the old and justly famous contributors will be retained, with new accessions from the highest walks of polite literature. The following noted authory are permanently engaged:

Ned Buntline,	Cousin May Carleton,
Dr. J. H. Robson,	S. R. Urban.
J. A. Patten,	Joseph Barber,
George Arnold,	Mrs. M. E. Robinson,
Felix O. C. Darley,	Capt. Jas. F. Alcorn,
Rev. R. M. Devens,	George Martial,
W. O. Eaton,	R. H. Newell.

THE MERCURY is the peculiar glory of every respectable fireside, and a fountain of intellectual pleasure, on account of the pure and moral tone of its Tales and Sketches. Not a word or a sentiment is allowed to appear in it that would prove distasteful to the fastidious moralist, or wound the feelings of any class of readers.

The Mercury has the following specialties, which are original with it, and render it far superior to any other Family Paper in existence. There is the inimitable Gossipers' Club, with its piquant, spicy, racy, and side-splitting bits of humor, oddity, burlesque, and wit, contributed by some of the first humorists, lawyers, editors and wits of the country, and eagerly copied by the Press from one end of the Union to the other; the Ladies' Promenade; the Dramatic and Musical Department; the Sketches of the famous Epicurean poet and finished scholar, "J. B.;" the Floral Department; and other novel features—to which new and still more brilliant ones will be added during the year.

The New York Mercury is sold by all newsmen and periodical dealers in America. To subscribers it is regularly mailed every Saturday morning for $2 a year; three copies for $5; eight copies for $12, with an extra copy free to the getter-up of the club. Six months' subscriptions received. Always write plainly the name of your Post-office, county and State. We take the notes of all specie-paying banks at par. Payment must invariably be made in advance.

☞ Specimen Copies sent free to all applicants. Address all letters and remittances, post-paid to CAULDWELL, SOUTHWORTH & WHITNEY, Proprietors of The New York Mercury, 46 and 48 Ann street, New York City.

INPECTINE,

THE PERSIAN FEVER CHARM.

FOR the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Billious Fevers. This wonderful remedy was brought to the knowledge of the present proprietors by a friend who has been a great traveler in Persia and the Holy Land.

While going down the river Euphrates, he experienced a severe attack of Fever and Ague.—On discovering his condition, one of the boatmen took from his person an Amulet saying, "Wear this and no Fever will touch you." Although incredulous as to its virtues, he complied, and experienced immediate relief, and has since always found it an effectual protection from all malarious complaints.

On further investigation he found that the boatman attributed to it miraculous powers, and said that it could only be obtained from the Priests of the Sun. Sometime afterwards, the gentleman in conversing with a Priest obtained from him the secret of its preparation, and ascertained where the medicinal herbs were found, of which it was compounded. The wonderful virtues of this article have induced a full belief in the minds of the natives in the miraculous healing powers of their Priests.

Since his return to America, it has been tried with the happiest effect by several Ladies and Gentlemen of high character, who have given it the most unqualified praise. This remedy having been a specific in Persia for hundreds of years, for the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Billious Fevers—is now offered to the American people.

It will be sent by mail, prepaid, with full directions for use, on receipt of one dollar.

THE CODE OF LAWS
For the State of Maryland.

THE subscriber has been appointed sole agent for Talbot county, to furnish the code of Laws for Maryland. The distinguished Codifiers, whose labors have been ratified by an Act of the recent Legislature, have comprised in full detail, in two volumes, all the public and local laws, now in force in this State, and, of course, bearing on every department of business, and every interest of society. Into this comprehensive space, the Code, (whose provisions are brought down to the close of the session of 1860,) collects and digests the entire Legislation of Maryland from the provincial period to the present day;—with an elaborate index to each article and section, prepared by Henry C. Mackall, Esq.,—careful and minute in its classification of subjects, the reader, no matter how unfamiliar with the science of law, may easily examine the enactments on any question relating to his Property, his Rights, or his Liberties as a Citizen.

It is not urged that the ownership of these volumes will "make every man his own lawyer," —for few things are more dangerous than to define or assert our legal rights in cases of doubt or intricacy, without the assistance of Counsel; yet, in the concerns of all business men there are numerous questions, constantly occurring, which may be at once satisfactorily solved by reference to this book. One such reference may refund its price in the saving of a single fee.

With the view of enabling every citizen to possess a copy of this valuable work, the preparation of which has cost the State upwards of $50,000, the Publishers have affixed the price at about one-half the usual charge for Law books, relying with confidence on the intelligence of the citizens of Maryland for a liberal encouragement.

The Maryland Code, will be published in 2 volumes octavo, with clear new type, on fine paper, bound in Law sheep. Each volume will comprise about 900 pages, and will be furnished to subscribers at $6 for the complete work. Interleaved copies, for the use of Members of the Bar, and others, $10.

The work will be ready about the 1st of July, and will be furnished to subscribers in the order in which their names are received.

☞ As the Edition will be limited, to secure copies, orders should be sent at once to
