A. P. SHARP & CO.,

PROPRIETORS OF THE

BOOTH & PARMENTER

SEWING MACHINE,

59 South Howard Steet, (near Pratt,)

BALTIMORE, MD.

We take the liberty of calling your attention to our superior Sewing Machines, expressly adapted for family use.

It is now a fixed fact, that Sewing Machines must take the place of the old needle. It is no longer an experiment. After ten years' experience of the difficulties of Sewing Machines, from the fact of their complication rendering them almost impossible to be used in the country, success has become complete. In offering to the public the BOOTH & PARMENTER MACHINE, we can say with great confidence that the difficulty is now removed, for this Machine is so simple in all its parts, that any ordinary child can learn to work it, and it will sew with equal facility either way you turn it. In other words, there is no wrong way of turning the treadle, nor is there any danger of inexperienced persons putting it out of order.

As those who have them in use are the ones to speak, we insert a few cards of the hundreds who can testify of its simplicity, easy management, &c.:

From Rev. E. Yeates Reese, Editor "Methodist Protestant."

MESSRS. A. P. SHARP & Co.

The Sewing Machine of Booth & Parmenter is a household fixture in my family. It answers all my expectations concerning it—is simple, rapid in operation, does coarse and fine work, and has given no trouble to those who operate it. I can recommend it with great confidence.

E. Y. REESE, 105 Conway Street.

From "Barnum's City Hotel."

Baltimore, January 14th, 1860.

MESSRS. A. P. SHARP & Co.

Gentlemen:—The Booth & Parmenter Sewing Machine works well, and to say it is doing the principal work of this Hotel, using up spool after spool of thread, and sewing from the finest to the coarest fabrics, without the least trouble, is saying very much in its favor. It is extremely simple, and not liable to get out of order; and being easily understood and worked, makes it a very superior Family Machine. Yours truly,

BARNUM & CO.

From Gerard H. Reese, 209 Pratt Street.

MESSRS. A. P. SHARP & Co.

Gentlemen:—I have carefully examined the Booth & Parmenter Sewing Machine at your suggestion, and, having paid considerable attention to such machines generally from their first introduction, I can with confidence recommend it for general family and plantation use. Its simplicity and ease of management renders it particularly well adapted to those who do not posses the mechanical tact necessary in using more complicated machines. Yours truly,

GERARD H. REESE.

Baltimore, January 16th, 1860.

From Dr. Wm. H. Stinson, Dentist, 43 Hanover Street.

Baltimore, January 14th, 1860,

MESSRS A. P. SHARP & Co.

Gentlemen:—I am very much pleased with the Booth & Parmenter Sewing Machine; it is very simple, and not liable to get out of order, and being very easily learned and worked, makes it a very desirable Machine, both for manufacturing and family purposes. Yours truly,

WM. H. STINSON.

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, have had in use in our family, and thoroughly tested Booth & Parmenter Sewing Machine, on various kinds of Goods, both heavy and light, and do hereby concur in pronouncing it the most simple and perfect working Machine, that has ever come under our notice. It is so very strong and simple in all its parts, that it cannot get out of order, except from carelessness. It sews with perfect ease by turning either way, and makes a very neat, strong elastic seam, which will not rip, though every third or fourth stitch be cut.

JOHN J. THOMSEN, 18 McCullogh Street.
DR. ISAAC J. MARTIN, Elicott's Mills, Howard Co., Md.
W. K. BARKER, No. 150 Barre Street.
DR. E. J. HENKLE, Anne Arundel Co., Md.
RICHARD KING, 226 Baltimore Street.
B. F. NEWCOMER, 53 South Howard Street.

From R. King, (firm of F. W. & R. King, Mathematical Instrument Makers,) 226 Baltimore Street.

A. P. SHARP & Co.

Gentlemen:—From an inspection of the Booth & Parmenter's Sewing Machine, I was pleased with its simplicity and certainty of forming a stitch, and purchased one from this fact, and I am glad to say, so far, my expectations have been fully realized, and I feel justified in recommending it, after a severe test, as a simple, reliable machine, easily managed and understood, and not liable to get out of order. Respectfully,

RICHARD KING.

From the Rev. James Turner.

A. P. SHARP & Co.

Gentlemen:—After using the Booth & Parmenter's Sewing Machine two months almost constantly, I can cheerfully recommend it, and believe it will perform all that is claimed. Too much cannot be said in its praise.

Yours, &c.,

Millersville, A. A. County, Md. J. TURNER.

Glen Mary, Frederick Co., February 7, 1860.

A. P. SHARP & Co.

Gents:—It gives me pleasure to recommend the Booth and Parmenter Sewing Machine to the public; it is easily managed, and I like it better than any machine I have ever seen. It is worked with perfect ease backwards or forwards. I have made myself two entire suits of heavy cloth, and have in one day made six pairs of heavy pants for my negroes, entirely on the Machine. I think it fully equal to any Machine now in use. Yours, &c.

LEWIS G. KEMP.

MESSRS. A. P. SHARP & Co.

Gents:—I am delighted with the Machine I purchased from you, and from considerable experience in Sewing Machines, I am enabled to say that this excels them all. It is extremely simple and easliy understood, and works better and faster on all kinds of goods than any I have ever seen. Yours, truly,

ANNIE CAULK

From the Proprietor of the "Relay House."

Relay House, Md., July 17, 1860.

MESSRS A. P. SHARP & Co.

Gentlemen:—After a fair trial of the Booth & Parmenter Machine; having tried 3 or 4 other high priced ones, (which we have thrown by,) we give the decided preference to this Machine. It is much more simple, more easily understood, and less liable to get out of order, and we find that any of our employees can use it with as much facility as a lady of refinement and intelligence. The great advantage this Machine has over all others, it may be turned in either direction, uses a straight needle, and never misses a stitch. J. M. LOWE.

From the Daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Johns.

Baltimore, June 1, 1860.

MESSRS. A. P. SHARP & Co.

Genilemen:—After useing your Sewing Machine for some time, I am very much pleased with it, and would cheerfully recommend it for family use. Yours, truly,

MISS JOHNS.

Another card from "Barnum's City Hotel."

Baltimore, June 12, 1860.

A. P. SHARP & Co.

Gents:—After over six months almost constant use, the Booth & Parmenter Sewing Machine continues to work admirably.

BARNUM & Co.

From the "Methodist Protestant," edited by the Rev. E. Yates Reese.

A First-rate Sewing Machine.—BOOTH & PARMENTER'S SEWING MACHINE, is really a first rate instrument. It is rapidly going into domestic use. One was placed some time ago in our domicil on trial, to be returned if we did not like it. But, like the Yankee clock, the experiment was a capital hit. Once worked there, it would require more fortitude than a peacefully-disposed husband could summon to allow it to be removed. The danger is that, to find work for it, more money may be spent for dry-goods than is desirable; for it disposes of material so rapidly, and so fascinates the femanines who operate it, that it is likely to be used more than is agreeable to a linky-lanky editorial purse. We commend it to our readers.

INPECTINE,

THE PERSIAN FEVER CHARM.

FOR the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Billious Fevers. This wonderful remedy was brought to the knowledge of the present proprietors by a friend who has been a great traveler in Persia and the Holy Land.

While going down the river Euphrates, he experienced a severe attack of Fever and Ague.—On discovering his condition, one of the boatmen took from his person an Amulet saying, "Wear this and no Fever will touch you." Although incredulous as to its virtues, he complied, and experienced immediate relief, and has since always found it an effectual protection from all malarious complaints.

On further investigation he found that the boatman attributed to it miraculous powers, and said that it could only be obtained from the Priests of the Sun. Sometime afterwards, the gentleman in conversing with a Priest obtained from him the secret of its preparation, and ascertained where the medicinal herbs were found, of which it was compounded. The wonderful virtues of this article have induced a full belief in the minds of the natives in the miraculous healing powers of their Priests.

Since his return to America, it has been tried with the happiest effect by several Ladies and Gentlemen of high character, who have given it the most unqualified praise. This remedy having been a specific in Persia for hundreds of years, for the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Billious Fevers—is now offered to the American people.

It will be sent by mail, prepaid, with full directions for use, on receipt of one dollar.

THE CODE OF LAWS

For the State of Maryland.

THE subscriber has been appointed sole agent for Talbot county, to furnish the code of Laws for Maryland. The distinguished Codifiers, whose labors have been ratified by an Act of the recent Legislature, have comprised in full detail, in two volumes, all the public and local laws, now in force in this State, and, of course, bearing on every department of business, and every interest of society. Into this comprehensive space, the Code, (whose provisions are brought down to the close of the session of 1860,) collects and digests the entire Legislation of Maryland from the provincial period to the present day;—with an elaborate index to each article and section, prepared by Henry C. Mackall, Esq.,—careful and minute in its classification of subjects, the reader, no matter how unfamiliar with the science of law, may easily examine the enactments on any question referring to his Property, his Rights, or his Liberties as a Citizen.

It is not urged that the ownership of these volumes will "make every man his own lawyer,"—for few things are more dangerous than to define or assert our legal rights in cases of doubt or intricacy, without the assistance of Counsel; yet, in the concerns of all business men there are numerous questions, constantly occurring, which may be at once satisfactorily solved by reference to this book. One such reference may refund its price in the saving of a single fee.

With the view of enabling every citizen to possess a copy of this valuable work, the preparation of which has cost the State upwards of $50,000, the Publishers have affixed the price at about one-half the usual charge for Law books, relying with confidence on the intelligence of the citizens of Maryland for a liberal encouragement.

The Maryland Code, will be published in 2 volumes octavo, with clear new type, on fine paper, bound in Law sheep. Each volume will comprise about 900 pages, and will be furnished to subscribers at $6 for the complete work. Interleaved copies, for the use of Members of the Bar, and others, $10.

The work will be ready about the 1st of July, and will be furnished to subscribers in the order in which their names are received.

☞ As the Edition will be limited, to secure copies, orders should be sent at once to

PROCLIVIOR.

THE NEW YORK MERCURY.

In the annals of the Press there is no parallel in the brilliant success which has attended the career of THE NEW YORK MERCURY—giving it a proud position never before enjoyed by any paper whatever, and securing for it an almost unrivaled circulation.

THE MERCURY is by far the largest, handsomest, and cheapest Literary Journal in the world—containing as much of the most brilliant, entertaining, instructive, and amusing reading-matter in each of its weekly issues as would suffice to make a 12mo book of 250 pages! It has the largest and most extensively-organized corps of famous contributors ever drawn to the focus of any one publication.

This leading Journal of American Literature will continue to be illustrated weekly by the inspired pencil of the greatest of American artists.

FELIX O. C. DARLEY.

In the departments of Historical Romance, Domestic Tales, Moral, Artistic, and Humorous Sketches, Poetry, etc., all the old and justly famous contributors will be retained, with new accessions from the highest walks of polite literature. The following noted authory are permanently engaged:

Ned Buntline,	Cousin May Carleton,
Dr. J. H. Robson,	S. R. Urban,
J. A. Patten,	Joseph Barber,
George Arnold,	Mrs. M. E. Robinson,
Felix O. C. Darley,	Capt. Jas. F. Alcorn,
Rev. R. M. Devens,	George Martial,
W. O. Eaton,	R. H. Newell.

THE MERCURY is the peculiar glory of every respectable fireside, and a fountain of intellectual pleasure, on account of the pure and moral tone of its Tales and Sketches. Not a word or a sentiment is allowed to appear in it that would prove distasteful to the fastidious moralist, or wound the feelings of any class of readers.

The Mercury has the following specialties, which are original with it, and render it far superior to any other Family Paper in existence. There is the inimitable Gossipers' Club, with its piquant, spicy, racy, and side-splitting bits of humor, oddity, burlesque, and wit, contributed by some of the first humorists, lawyers, editors and wits of the country, and eagerly copied by the Press from one end of the Union to the other; the Ladies' Promenade; the Dramatic and Musical Department; the Sketches of the famous Epicurean poet and finished scholar, "J. B.," the Floral Department; and other novel features—to which new and still more brilliant ones will be added during the year.

The New York Mercury is sold by all newsmen and periodical dealers in America. To subscribers it is regularly mailed every Saturday morning for $2 a year; three copies for $5; eight copies for $12, with an extra copy free to the getter-up of the club. Six months' subscriptions received. Always write plainly the name of your Post-office, county and State. We take the notes of all specie-paying banks at par.
