E. D. Townsend, the sum of $81 for rent of premises That your Receiver paid to a certain Thompson the sum of $21 for staying upon the premises & taking care of said goods & chattels prior to their removal to the store of Adreon & Co. for which & all other necessary & lawful expenses he claims an allowance. And as in duty bound &c

Saml. Snowden, Receiver

Baltimore City, Set. On this 20th June A.D. 1861, before the Subscriber a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland in and for the City, personally appeared Samuel Snowden & made oath in due form of law that the matters and things stated in the foregoing report are true to the best of his knowledge & belief

Wm McKinley

Whereupon the Court here passed the following order to wit: Ordered by the Court this 21st day of June A.D.
1861 that the papers in this cause be referred to the auditor & the receiver be allowed the usual compensation & such proper expenses as he may produce vouchers for the Auditor

Wm Geo. Krebs.

And afterwards, to wit, on the sixteenth day of July, in the year aforesaid the following separate answer of Amanda E. Vickers was filed, to wit:

To the Hon. Wm. Geo. Krebs, Judge of the Circuit Court for Baltimore City. The separate answer of Amanda E. Vickers, wife of Jesse Vickers to the Bill of Complaint of Eliza Jane Tracy in this Honorable Court against her and her said husband heretofore filed; This respondent, not waiving, but expressly reserving to herself all exceptions to said Bill, to which she may be entitled, whether for matter of form or substance, nevertheless thereto, or so much thereof as she is advised it is material she should answer, answering doth say. That to all that part of said Bill which relates to transactions between the said complainant and the said Jesse Vickers, this respondent was not a party, and therefore hath no knowledge thereof or connection therewith as to any supposed fraud, in the same or otherwise and is in no wise affected thereby, and she wholly denies the existence of any fraud upon the said complainant in the said transactions. That as to the said house and lot described in the said deed marked Complainants "Exhibit E" this respondent says, as appears by said deed, said house and lot is the sole property of your respondent, purchased at said sale for her and paid for with her own money and that the said Complainant doth know the same. Wherefore this respondent prays your Honor to dissolve the injunction as the same affects said house & lot, heretofore issued in said cause; and that your respondent may be hence dismissed with costs &c.

And as in duty &c

Wm Alexander

And afterwards, to wit, on the seventeenth day of July, in the year aforesaid, the Court here passed the following Interlocutory Decree, to wit:

(Interlocutory Decree)

Eliza J. Tracy
vs
Jesse Vickers & wife

In the Circuit Court for Baltimore City

July Term 1861.

The Defendant Jesse Vickers having been duly summoned to appear to the Bill of Complaint, and having appeared thereto, and failed to answer thereto.

It is thereupon this 17th day of July in the year Eighteen Hundred and Sixty one by the Honorable William George Krebs, Judge, and by the authority of this Court, Adjudged, Ordered and Decreed, That the Complainant is entitled to relief in the premises. But because it does not certainly appear to what relief the Complainant is entitled, it is further Adjudged and Ordered, that a Commission or Commissions issue to such person or persons, as shall be named by the Complainant to take testimony to support the allegations of the bill.

Wm Geo. Krebs

And afterwards, to wit, on the third day of August, in the year aforesaid, the following petition for commission to take testimony was filed, to wit:

Eliza Jane Tracy
Jesse Vickers & wife

Mr Clerk: Set a commission to take testimony in the above cause issue to Frederick Penkney and F. D. Tonney.

3 Augt. 1861

Saml. Snowden, Sol. for Compt.

Whereupon the Court here passed the following order, to wit:

Eliza Jane Tracy
Jesse Vickers & wife

At the instance of the Solicitor for Complain
