PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF MARYLAND,
EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,
FREDERICK CITY, April 29th, 1861.

WHEREAS, It has been represented to me that certain citizens of Maryland, not holding Commissions in the Maryland Militia, are enlisting and arming men, and ordering them on Military service within the State;

And Whereas, It has been further represented to me that certain other citizens of Maryland, holding commissions in the Maryland Volunteer Militia, have ordered their soldiers on military service without having first complied with the provisions of Section 99, of Article 63, of the Code of Public General Laws;

And Whereas, such acts, in derogation of the authority and dignity of the State of Maryland, are at all times subversive of good order, and in the present excited condition of the public mind, are well calculated to imperil the public peace.

Now, therefore, I, THOMAS HOLLIDAY HICKS, Governor of Maryland, do, by this my Proclamation, warn all such persons of the unlawfulness of such acts; and do enjoin upon the proper authorities of the several counties and of the city of Baltimore, to see that the laws of the State be not violated in the premises.

SEAL Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Maryland, at the city of Frederick, this 29th day of April, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.
may 4-3t THOMAS H. HICKS.

SHERIFF'S NOTICE
LIEN LAW.

WHEREAS a writ of Scire Facias has been issued out of the Circuit Court for Talbot county by Robert B. Dixon, against John Keen, returnable on the thirtieth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and to me directed, to recover the sum of three hundred and eighty-one dollars and sixty-seven cents claimed as a lien, for materials furnished from the sixteenth day of June, eighteen hundred and sixty, to the twenty-ninth day of November, inclusive in the same year, on that building or dwelling house, with the ground covered by it, and so much of the ground adjacent thereto belonging in like manner to the owner of said building as may be necessary for the ordinary and useful purposes thereof, located on the land of the said John Keen; the said land being part of the "Old Troth Farm," which was conveyed to the said John Keen and Joel Fithian, by deed of Daniel Cowgill, Jr., and Elizabeth his wife, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of December in the year eighteen hundred and fifty nine and recorded among the land records of Talbot county, in Liber S. T. H., No. D. 68, folio 556, and afterwards partitioned between the said Keen and the said Fithian; the part of the said Troth Farm on which the said building is located and belonging to the said Keen being situated in Talbot county a short distance to the left of the public road leading from Easton to Dover Bridge, the land of Mrs. Tamsey A. Reese intervening between the land of the said Keen and the said road.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given in pursuance of article 61, Sec. 29, Maryland Code Public General Laws to all claimants and persons interested to be and appear before the said court on the thirtieth day of May next, to show cause, if anything they know, or have to say, why the sum of money above named should not be levied of the said building and ground, to the use of the said Robert B. Dixon.
