In the Superior Court of Baltimore City
In Equity

The Exception and Petition of Susan Dorsey respectfully shews that she therefore exhibited her Petition claiming as legatee of Eliza Albers payment of a certain sum of money as due to said Eliza and to be satisfied out of the proceeds of sale of a certain property to be made in this cause for the benefit of all the proceeds of such sales of the Court shall think the property to be sold passed by her husband in his Nuncupative will to your Petitioner and proceedings to said Eliza as his universal donee, and this Exceptant Susan now excepts to the account reported in this cause, and Contumacy ratified on 30 August 1853, because the Auditor has not the Certificate of her said claim now in any of his proceedings as Auditor

April Term 1863

in this case by giving Notice to said Susan of the case being before him for Judicial and account and giving her an opportunity to produce testimony has enabled this claimant to have her demand duly considered in such account and claimants for payment before this Court this Exceptant being entirely ignorant that said Auditor was so doing and not being apprised of Auditor in that respect having been transacted under yesterday and this claimant accordingly prays that said account be repealed or be suspended until she may be enabled to adduce her testimony in such manner as this Court may allow and order in behalf of her said claim, and she accordingly prays the Order of the Court allowing her to take testimony in the premises and further more she states to this Court that the persons named as Executors of the Will of Eliza Albers of which a copy is filed with this Claimants original petition aforesaid Hugh Bolton and John D Reed duly took on themselves said Executorship and have administered the Testatrix Estate as such Executors under Letters from the Orphans Court of Baltimore County and to that Court have rendered their accounts and a final account by which last account it will appear that all claims against said Testatrix having been paid your present petitioner is entitled now to have to hold directly the amounts by her said Petition claimed against the persons of said sales as legatee of the testatrix and in the Testatrix right either as claimant for said sum of money or as her Husband direct aforesaid and your Petitioner states that the said Executors not having been forbidden to her said original petition the usual and they should now be made and she accordingly prays the order of the Honorable Court for subpoena to said Executors Hugh Bolton and John D Reed who are of Baltimore requiring them to be in this Court to answer the matter of said original petition and of the petition and in the premises to stand to and abide by such order and decree as to this Court shall seem right

Henry Rhodes Matilda Rhodes his Wife vs
George Brown Henry N Albers and others

In the Superior Court
In Equity

The petition of Henry Rhodes and Matilda Rhodes his wife respectfully represent that the share of the said Matilda in the property sold under the Decree in said cause and upon the payment of said Bill ordered to be invested for the separate use of said Matilda about Four Hundred and fifty dollars as her share of said property, that the said Matilda has immediate demand for said money for the maintenance of herself and children and pay taxes and ground rent upon pieces of property which she owns and has in other means of paying. Wherefore your petitioner prays the Court to grant an order allowing and authorizing the trustee in said cause to pay to the said Matilda the sum so awarded to her and to take her separate
