at that time the Work having been finished at the date aforesaid,

5 Additional Interrogatory Have you any Conversation with the defendant James T Gifford in reference to the payment of these two exhibits and the sale of his said House to pay the same, if so state what that Conversation was and when it was

Answer It was a short time after I finished painting Booth's house that the defendant James T Gifford told me that he would pay the amount of said bills out of money if he had to sell his house

John Hanson, a Witness of lawful age produced sworn and examined on the part and behalf of the Complainant deposes and says to the Interrogatories propounded to him as follows, that is to say,

1st Interrogatory Do you know the defendant in the said

Answer I know all of them,

2d Interrogatory, When does the defendant James T Gifford live and tell you described the property occupied by him also how long and in what manner has he occupied the said premises,

Answer James T Gifford lives on East Fayette Street formerly called Pitt Street No 188, the lot of ground occupied by Gifford has a front on Fayette Street of about 25 feet I think and has a depth of 150 ft to 170 feet I think, the defendant James T Gifford and his brother Alexander who were partners at the time put a Shop on the rear part of the lot some years ago, Mr James T Gifford has occupied said Premises within my recollection for fifteen years past and still occupies the same at the present time

3d Interrogatory, You will state if you know who owns the property adjoining that of the defendant James T Gifford on the East and who owned it before the present owner,

Answer I know from general report that the property adjoining Giffords on the East formerly belonged to a Mrs White and is now occupied by Mr Nau;

4th Interrogatory, Do you know of any other property that James T Gifford ever owned on Fayette Street other than the premises now occupied by him,

Answer "I do not and I have been living in that Neighborhood for fifteen years.

The Complainant here offers in evidence and files under the Commission the proper Writing marked Complainants Exhibits A B and C herein annexed

Adjourned and met again on Wednesday 9 November in the year and place at the hour of 1 o'clock P.M.

John Hanson a Witness of lawful age heretofore produced sworn and examined on the part and behalf of the Complainant being now further examined in that behalf deposes and says to the additional Interrogatories to him performed as follows that is to say

1st Additional Interrogatory "Will you state whether or not you have resided in the immediate vicinity of the defendant James T Gifford for about fifteen years, and whether or not you are acquainted with the reputed pecuniary Condition of the Wife of said James T Gifford

Answer I have always understood that she never possessed any means nor has any now. Her Brother was poor and stood in the Market as a huckster.

2d Additional Interrogatory, Do you or not think it possible for her to have the $1000 or any considerable part of it and you not have known or heard something of it,

Answer I think not never heard any thing of the kind. 3d Additional Interrogatory, Do you own property in the Neighborhood of the defendant James T Gifford, and are you acquainted with the value of the same property, if so state what the ground is worth to lease and the value of the Buildings thereon,

Answer "I own property in that Neighborhood and am acquainted with the value of it by the fact of owning property there and knowing that $3 per foot for lease of property on Fayette Street is asked and I think Gifford's property is worth from $4.50 to $5 all the way through, I think the improvements on Gifford's property with seven or eight hundred dollars at least,

No other Witness being named or produced to me I thereupon at the request of the Solicitors of the Complainant closed the said Commission, In Witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal the said 9th November 1859 at the City of Baltimore State of Maryland
