Drafting Disapproved.—Secretary Cameron has telegraphed to the Governor of Iowa, emphatically disapproving of drafting, and expressing a determination to rely upon the patriotism of the people alone for the needed supplies of men.

The Kentucky Legislature.

SENATORS BRECKINRIDGE AND POWELL REQUESTED TO RESIGN.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 1.—At the afternoon session of the Senate, yesterday, Senator Whitaker offered a resolution requesting John C. Breckinridge and Lazarus W. Powell to resign their seats as Senators in Congress, as they do not represent the will of the people of Kentucky.

If they decline to comply, the Senate of the United States is respectfully requested to investigate their conduct, and if found to be in opposition to the Federal Government, that they expel them from their seats. It was passed by a vote of 20 yeas to 5 nays, and sent to the House, which adjourned without action.

The Potomac Still Unobstructed.

Washington, Oct. 2.—The steam-tug Perry arrived this evening, and reports five or six vessels of the Potomac flotilla lying near the Maryland shore, within view of the Rebel battery at Freestone Point. The remainder of our vessels are off Aquia Creek, from which the pirate George Page recently made repeated unsuccessful attempts to emerge. Numerous small crafts, loaded with supplies, were passed, bound for Washington.

There has been no firing by the Rebels since last Thursday, nor can any signs of life be seen at Freestone Point.

The Potomac is certainly not now closed by the enemy. Our merchants are daily receiving goods from the North by the way of the river.

No Proclamation from the Captain-General of Cuba.—The following extract from a letter dated at Hevana, September 21, explodes one of the Charleston Mercury's stories:

"We noticed from one of the last newspaper slips you sent us that the Charleston Mercury has published an act, alleged to come from our Government, to the effect that the Confederate flag will be admitted into our ports and be duly protected. This is false. No such act or decree, or anything like it, has appeared. The Captain-General could only do it on receiving instructions to that effect from the home government. The few vessels sailing under the Confederate flag, and which arrived here some months ago, had to hoist the Stars and Stripes before entering our harbor."

Desertions from the Rebels at Fort Pickens.—The following extract from a letter dated at Fort Pickens, Sept. 8, will be found interesting:

"Last night the enemy's guard-boat, with nine men, armed to the teeth, came over to our side, having deserted from the Secessionists. They are fine, large, stout fellows. Also, two men landed in a boat from a place called Milton, about 30 miles up the bay. They are mechanics, and belong to Boston and Rhode Island. They fled because they could not get paid, and were afraid they would be forced to join the army.—Hundreds would desert from the Rebel army and leave the country if they had a chance. They report, also, that a large quantity of powder and arms were destroyed by their own men a short time since. There is a mutiny among them as I write. They are half starved."

Ravages of Disease in the Confederate Army.

The Charleston Mercury says:

The terrible sanitary condition of our army upon the Potomac is a matter of painful interest to the whole people of the Confederate States.—There are a few in the Confederate States who have not near relatives at Manassas or on the Mississippi. And those who have not should be there themselves. The frightful condition of the camp is a subject of universal interest and alarm. In the spirit of Spartan fortitude we are willing that our troops should be sacrificed, if need be, in the cause of the country. But that they should fall victims to the mismanagement of an inefficient department is utterly unendurable. It is not our business to depose and reform. But it is our duty to expose that inefficiency which is disastrous to the public welfare. Ten thousand lives are now in jeopardy through this folly.—The fruits of the great battle of Manassas have been sacrificed to this almost criminal fatuity.—It is time to be done with it. The country must be served, and personal predilections on the part of our authorities must no longer control our destinies and mar our proceedings. The State is not to be sacrificed to fancies. How much longer is favoritism and folly to sacrifice lives and obstruct our arms? Mothers, fathers, widows, all cry aloud, and plead for those they love.

WHY DELAY THE ADVANCE ON WASHINGTON?

A correspondent of the Richmond Whig propounds the following:

Who controls our army on the Potomac? Is it Generals Johnson and Beauregard, or is it President Davis? Will some one who is wise enough to know be kind enough to enlighten the public! Information is in demand upon this subject. Universal dissatisfaction seems to prevail with the non-action of our army on the Potomac, and one party asserts that President Davis controls the matter and refuses to allow our troops to advance because he wishes to be in command himself when we take Washington, and at this time his health will not allow him to assume that position.

The correspondent goes on to disapprove of the course of Mr. Davis, and intimates that he is working for a re-election, and using the army to secure his success.

MARYLANDERS, RALLY!
VOLUNTEERS WANTED FOR THE
1st Eastern Shore Regiment
OF HOME GUARD.

I HAVE been authorized by the War Department at Washington to have enrolled and mustered into the service of the United States a Regiment of Infantry to act as a

HOME GUARD,
AND TO BE STATIONED ON THE Eastern Shore of Maryland.

The purpose of the movement is to repel invasion, to preserve the peace and good order in our midst and to protect the rights of all, and aid in the enforcement of the laws.

As it has been asserted, with a view of defeating the movement, that the Administration intend ordering the troops away from home as soon as they are mustered in, I would remark that the Secretary of War expressly pledges that they "shall be stationed on the Eastern Shore of Maryland" and used only for "Home Protection." I state this fact for the benefit of those who are willing to do all they can for their country in its present peril, but whose circumstances are such as prevents their going abroad. The necessity of this movement must be apparent to every candid and considerate mind. We are already threatened by the enemies of the country. At any moment we are liable to have civil war in our midst. In times of Revolution no one can tell at what peril a single day may place us. It behooves us to prepare, and be ready for any emergency, ere it be too late. It is high time that Marylanders were armed and prepared to protect themselves against adventuring Rebels.

The term of Enlistment will be three years, or until the end of the War.

A COMPANY

consists, when full, of one Captain, Two Lieutenants, One First Sergeant, Four Sergeants, Eight Corporals, Two Musicians, One Waggoner, and Eighty-two Privates.

Each Company will select its own officers, subject to the approval of the War Department.

The Company will be mustered into service as soon as it numbers Eighty six men. But must afterwards be raised to One Hundred.

THE PAY

allowed for a Captain is Sixty dollars, four rations (or [illegible]) per month and one servant.—Of First Lieutenant is Fifty dollars, four rations, per month and one servant. Of Second Lieutenant is Forty-five dollars, four rations per month, and one servant. Cadet, Twenty-four dollars per month. First Sergeant, Twenty dollars per month. Sergeant, Seventeen dollars per month. Corporal, Fifteen dollars per month.—Those officers who have no rations mentioned above in their pay, are allowed one ration, or nine dollars per month for board, and three dollars per month for clothing. The same allowances are also made to Privates.

Each soldier is entitled to a bounty of One Hundred dollars when discharged from service.

THE DISPOSITION OF THE TROOPS.

As many inquiries have been made concerning the disposition of the companies, I would remark that the Government pays each man for his full time, and assumes that he will give the whole of his time to the service. But it is the evident and written intention of the Government to afford security to the homes of us all. To accomplish this it would appear to be necessary to keep each company stationed in the neighborhood in which it was organized, as much as possible. Each company must be on muster every day. The whole force, it is contemplated, will be brought together at stated periods—say once in a month or oftener, as the exigency of the times and the public service may require. It is designated, I presume to let each company protect its own homes and neighborhood, in the main.

Such is the outline of the plan and its object. It will be modified as events and welfare of our people may demand. The details of the movement will be left to the commanding officer of the forces upon the Shore. For further particulars address, JAMES WALLACE,
Col. 1st Eastern Shore Regiment of Home Guard, Cambridge, Md. [sep 14-tf
