LATEST NEWS FROM THE SOUTH.

Removal of the Confederate Capital to Nashville—Prisoners to be Sent Further South—A Baltimorean Accidently Shot—Retreat of General Floyd—More "Turtles" at New Orleans.

We make up the following summary of Southern news from Richmond papers of the 19th instant:

REMOVAL OF THE CONFEDERATE CAPITAL TO NASHVILLE.

The Congress of the Confederate States has passed an act to remove the capital from Richmond to Nashville, Tenn.

PRISONERS OF WAR TO BE SENT SOUTH.

The Enquirer learns that Gen. Winder contemplates sending a large number of the prisoners of war, at present in Richmond, to North Carolina and Florida, and that hereafter Richmond will be regarded merely as a receiving depot for such prisoners as may be taken, the intention being to send them farther south as soon as their numbers become burdensome.

A RIOT—BALTIMOREAN SHOT.

The Enquirer notes the holding of William Smith, alias Flemming, to bail in $250 for participating in a riot at the Dime House on Saturday night, and adds:

The riot originated, as it appeared from the evidence, in the attempt of some unknown party to rob Col. Frank Anderson, of Nicaraguan memory, of a fifty dollar note which he had left upon the counter; and, but for the alleged accidental shooting of John O'Donnell, a Baltimorean, by his own hands, might have resulted in the death of some of the party. The thigh of the wounded man was so badly shattered that amputation will probably be necessary to the safety of his life.

RETREAT OF GENENAL FLOYD.

The Dispatch announces that Gen. Floyd had retreated to Raleigh Court House. The Dispatch also says that Col. Williams would return to defend Pound Gap, Ky., "as long as he could do it successfully, though the lack of artillery is a serious disadvantage in the face of a vastly superior force."

IRON PLATED SHIPS TO OPEN THE BLOCKADE.

The Board of Aldermen of New Orleans have unanimously adopted the following:

Whereas the recent glorious attack of the Mosquito fleet has demonstrated the fact that with vessels properly constructed and protected, such as iron plated ships, fire-ships, turtles, &c., the entrance to this port can be freed of the fleet of the invaders, and the blockade effectually raised; be it therefore Resolved, by the Common Council of the city of New Orleans, That the sum of $500,000 be, and the same is hereby appropriated, towards the building and constructing of vessels similar to the Manassas and iron plated ships. Provided the sum of at least $1,000,000 shall be subscribed for and paid by the merchants, shippers, and others in this city, interested in having the said blockade raised and our ports opened to commerce.

Richmond papers of the 20th instant, have been received. The Richmond Whig, in commenting on the Message of President Davis, says:

We are two people from this time forward.—We are aware the Yankees are determined not to quit us, happen what may. If they cannot conquer us, their calculation is that they will be conquered by us, and they have made up their minds to submit tamely to their fate. Well, if we must, we must, though we shall have a great aversion to the task. Our choice is, after drubbing them soundly, and making them pay the expenses of the war, to turn them loose upon themselves, a prey to their own vile passions.

A despatch from Charleston, dated November 17, says:—"The unexpected failure of our shore batteries at Bay Point and Hilton Head to demolish at least one of the attacking vessels, has sadly shaken the popular confidence in the efficiency of our guns against the monster frigates and iron-clad gun-boats which they may have again to encounter, and now so alarmed are many of the sordid souls that infest all the Southern cities, that the effect may already be seen in the lengthening of freight trains which leave almost hourly for the interior.

In Savannah the panic is even more general and decided. whole neighborhoods having been suddenly left deserted by the exodus of the wives and children of those who are in arms at Fort Pulaski and the batteries on the Savannah river.

The Richmond papers of Wednesday contain despatches from the Confederate army, the substance of which is as follows:—

The small pox, a violent type of the typhoid fever, and the black measles, were prevailing with frightful mortality among the Confederate troops near Bowling Green, Kentucky. Large numbers were dying daily.

General Floyd's army has fallen back four miles south of Raleigh Court House, and the Union troops had been largely reinforced.

Gen. Lee's command has retired to Meadow Bluff.

The Rebels report two killed and several captured in a skirmish during the past week in Western Virginia.

MARYLANDERS, RALLY!

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

FOR THE

1st Eastern Shore Regiment

OF

HOME GUARD

I HAVE been authorized by the War Department at Washington to have enrolled and mustered into the service of the United States a Regiment of Infantry to act as a

HOME GUARD,

AND TO BE STATIONED ON THE Eastern Shore of Maryland.

The purpose of the movement is to repel invasion, to preserve the peace and good order in our midst and to protect the rights of all, and aid in the enforcement of the laws.

As it has been asserted, with a view of defeating the movement, that the Administration intend ordering the troops away from home as soon as they are mustered in, I would remark that the Secretary of War expressly pledges that they "shall be stationed on the Eastern Shore of Maryland" and used only for "Home Protection." I state this fact for the benefit of those who are willing to do all they can for their country in its present peril, but whose circumstances are such as prevents their going abroad. The necessity of this movement must be apparent to every candid and considerate mind. We are already threatened by the enemies of the country. At any moment we are liable to have civil war in our midst. In times of Revolution no one can tell into what peril a single day may place us. It behooves us to prepare, and be ready for any emergency, ere it be too late. It is high time that Marylanders were armed and prepared to protect themselves against adventuring Rebels.

The time of Enlistment will be three years, or until the end of the War.

A COMPANY

consists, when full, of one Captain, Two Lieutenants, One First Sergeant, Four Sergeants, Eight Corporals, Two Musicians, One Waggoner, and Eighty-two Privates.

Each Company will select its own officers, subject to the approval of the War Department.

The Company will be mustered into service as soon as it numbers Eighty-six men. But must afterwards be raised to One Hundred.

THE PAY

[illegible]ed for a Captain is Sixty dollars, four rations (or $36,00) per month and one servant.—[illegible]rst Lieutenant is Fifty dollars, four rations, [illegible]month and one servant. Of Second Lieutenant is Forty-five dollars, four rations per month, and one servant. Cadet, Twenty-four dollars per month. First Sergeant, Twenty dollars per month. Sergeant, Seventeen dollars per month. Corporal, Fifteen dollars per month.—Those officers who have no rations mentioned above in their pay, are allowed one ration, or nine dollars per month for board, and three dollars per month for clothing. The same allowances are also made to Privates.

Each soldier is entitled to a bounty of One Hundred dollars when discharged from service.

THE DISPOSITION OF THE TROOPS.

As many inquiries have been made concerning the disposition of the companies, I would remark that the Government pays each man for his full time, and assumes that he will give the whole of his time to the service. But it is the evident and written intention of the Government to afford security to the homes of us all. To accomplish this it would appear to be necessary to keep each company stationed in the neighborhood in which it was organized, as much as possible. Each company must be on muster every day. The whole force, it is contemplated, will be brought together at stated periods—say once in a month or oftener, as the exigency of the times and the public service may require. It is designated, I presume to let each company protect its own homes and neighborhood, in the main.

Such is the outline of the plan and its object. It will be modified as events and welfare of our people may demand. The details of the movement will be left to the commanding officer of the forces upon the Shore. For further particulars address. JAMES WALLACE.
