And that the said Joseph Newcomer and the said Hagerstown Savings Bank may each of them be restrained from paying over to the said J Dixon Roman any portion of any moneys agreed to be given for the said property on Washington Street in Hagerstown now in the occupancy of said Bank, and that the Hagerstown Bank may shew cause if any they have why their said judgment lien as aforesaid upon the property mentioned in the deed of trust from the said Levi and Hezekiah Easton to the said J Dixon Roman should not be postponed to the prior claim of your Orators upon said property in view of their rights of substitution to the security under the second Mortgage from Levi to Hezekiah Easton and that the priority of your Orators may be decreed and established by your Honor as by their said original and this amended bill prayed and that they may have such other and further relief as their case may require.
