Most Enjoyable W. C. T. U. Social.

A delightful evening social of the W. C. T. U. and the friends of the cause was held last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. W. M. Tylor, the object of which was to obtain needed funds, by the arrangement of a very interesting program.

Each member was asked to earn a quarter of a dollar and upon dropping it into the contribution box tell the company either in prose or rhyme how it was earned. Rounds of applause which greeted their effusions evidenced the great appreciation of their efforts. Astonishment was expressed that so much latent poetical genius could be brought out.

The musical part of the program was contributed by the best voices and performers in Easton, and the delightful solos and quartettes rendered were greatly enjoyed by all assembled. The recitations were perfect in delineation and most amusing. A collation was served by the Union, and the occasion was a pronounced success in every respect. —Supt. Press Work, W. C. T. U.

Saturday's Millinery Openings.

Last Saturday was ladies' day in Easton, it being the date set by the two leading millinery stores as their spring opening day. It was reported by both Annie E. Rathell & Co. and the J. R. Jarrell Co. as the most successful spring opening in many years, while from the point of view of the ladies, and the gentlemen, too—it was stated that never before has such a beautiful array of hats been seen in Easton. There were a number of purchasers from adjoining counties and visitors from the cities, who visited the openings, were so pleased that they made their selections here, remarking as they did so that even in the cities no finer or more elaborate displays could be seen. Annie E. Rathell & Co. report a large number of hats shipped to mail order customers in different parts of the county and state.

The lateness of Easter has necessitated our having two openings this season. Our first was designated "Spring Opening;" our next, which will be SATURDAY, APRIL 15th. will be our "EASTER OPENING." 4-1-2t.

WHY IS IT?

You can buy horses, mares and mules at King's for less money than elsewhere. One reason is, he sells more horses than all the dealers in Baltimore combined. Another reason is, while our horse and mule business is the largest of any in Baltimore City, (stabling capacity 600 head and continuously receiving consignments from the breeders all over America.) it is only one branch of this immense business. We carry in stock 1000 vehicles of every kind, of which a large selection is suitable for country use, at lowest factory prices. The final reason is, we are THE LARGEST COMBINED HORSE AND MULE DEALERS, LIVERYMEN, WAGON, CARRIAGE AND HARNESS MANUFACTURERS IN THE WORLD.

"A MONSTER CONSPIRACY."

So J. Hector McNeal Describes the Provident Investment Company.

Mr. J. Hector McNeal, formerly of this town but now of Philadelphia and recently appointed receiver of the Provident Investment Bureau, stated that before the end of the week Federal officials, assisted by the receivers of the Storey Cotton Company and the Provident Investment Bureau, expect to have in their possession evidence of a widespread conspiracy to defraud the public through the medium of 'get-rich-quick" concerns Mr. McNeal said:

"We have just come into information which leads us to believe that the Provident Investment Bureau was only a part of a huge conspiracy and that its operations covered only a small part of a field which was designed to embrace the whole country.

"According to our information, when the scheme was devised it was recognized that the illegitimacy of the transactions it had in view made it probable that some one of the concerns might take French leave with most of the profits. A written agreement was therefore drawn up and signed by all. The possibility that any one of the companies might be prosecuted by the authorities made it inadvisable to have copies of the contract where Federal officials might find them. Only one copy was made, and it was given in charge of a man whose trustworthiness could be relied on.

"This man we have seen, but he denies all knowledge of such a document. We expect to have the paper in two or three days, and its disclosures, we believe, will be of a startling nature."

ANNIE E. RATHELL & CO., Ltd., having had a very successful "Spring Opening," now beg to announce their "EASTER OPENING" on SATURDAY APRIL 15th. 4-1-2t.
