NEW WINTER RESORT, SEASON 1905-1906.

The Beautiful Sapphire Country.

To the man whose imagination is fed with facts and fortified with observation, the southern portion of the United States will always seem the favorite child of Omnipotence and its handmaiden—Nature. Practically every resource that ministers to the wealth and greatness of a people has been lavishly placed within its borders.

Though the Creator of his full-bosomed magnificence dwells neither here nor there—but everywhere—we like, in all reverence, to call these Southern States indeed "God's country." One who knows the South realizes how, after material gifts had been so generously bestowed, the designing power completed its work by dotting it liberally with those imperative auxiliaries of modern civilization—resorts, summer and winter. In the case of the South these resorts have proven not only protectors of our people's health; they are adding now and they will add substantially in the future to our actual wealth.

The Florida resorts need no detailed eulogy at this date. They have won already thousands of wealthy Northerners and Southerners from the lure of the European spa or the call of the Riviera. A more wonderful conquest, and one which should interest the entire South, is that of the radiant Sapphire country, that Eden of the North Carolina mountains, with which the word "Toxaway" has become inseparably identified. Its beauties and its health-compelling qualities have been open to civilization for only a few years, relatively; yet "Toxaway" means to a host of Southern and Northern people today recreation and recuperation under conditions as ideal as can be arranged by the copartnership of man and Nature.

The six hotels under the management of the Toxaway Hotel Company, with Mr. J. C. Burrowes at its head, have been instrumental in this rapid achievement. The Sapphire country itself has done the rest. The hostelries have been artfully located, getting the wide benefits which come from altitudes ranging from 2,250 to 4,780 feet. The far-reaching estate of Toxaway comprises 31,000 acres, in which are more than seventy-five miles of brook and river fishing, yielding the gamest of game trout. In the rugged recesses of the estate there are deer, wild turkey and ruffed grouse, with bears here and there and occasionally quail. The three lakes, like shimmering sapphires splashed down in the heart of the mountains, with the winding forest roads, create indelible impressions of the place.

With the opening of the winter season Toxaway Inn—the greatest of all the Toxaway resorts—announces itself ready for business for the approaching season after having completed the most successful summer season known in the history of Southern resorts.

From this time on this institution becomes not only a summer but a winter resort, appealing to the South in summer and to the North in winter. It is on the direct line of travel from eastern and western points to Florida, and Manager Burrowes has made every arrangement to catch the business as it goes to and comes from Florida.

And it is safe to say that those who stop to take in the beauties of the Toxaway country will be amply compensated, for in the matter of scenic attractions there is nothing like it this side of the Rocky Mountains.—Constitution, Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 12, 1905.

A Moulting Lobster.

Recently a lobster in one of the aquarium tanks cast his skin. The process lasted about half an hour. A split appeared in the thin skin just in front of the first joint of the tail (abdomen,) and through this opening the lobster slowly withdrew the forepart of his body, legs and feelers. Then with a jerk the tail was withdrawn. The old skin was left intact and absolutely perfect. —Letter in London Mail.

WHEN YOU CATCH COLD

Do not take chances on it wearing away or experiment with some unknown preparation which may leave the bronchial tubes and lungs weakened and susceptible to attack from the germs of Pneumonia or Consumption.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. Contains no opiates.

It Saved His Life After the Doctor Said He Had Consumption.

W. R. Davis, Vissalia, California, writes: "There is no doubt but what Foley's Honey and Tar saved my life. I had an awful cough on my lungs and the doctor told me I had consumption. I commenced taking Foley's Honey and Tar and found relief from the first and three bottles cured me completely."

A Policeman's Testimony.

J. N. Patterson, night policeman, of Nashua, Iowa, writes: "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least a half-dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two-thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world."

Three sizes—25c, 50c and $1.00. The 50-cent size contains two and one-half times as much as the small size and the $1.00 bottle almost six times as much. Refuse Substitutes.

What's in McClure's?

The November McClure's begins a new volume with the opening chapters of two great new series and a big Kipling story, which promise the magazine's continuance as torch-bearer in public affairs and the leader of excellence in present day literature. In this number Carl Schurz begins his "Reminiscences," the life story of a patriot-soldier-statesman-author, a fighting idealist who never compromised with his conscience.

Ray Stannard Baker, with "The Railroad Rate," opens his series of articles on the greatest national perplexity, the outcome of more than a year's digging into the most difficult subject American voters have ever had to master.

Last of the "articles" in November is the second half of Charles F. Lummis's breezy story "Pioneer Transportation in America," the epic of the heroic age of travel which waited till now for a writer. Kipling's most remarkable story is "With the Night Mail," in which he projects his wonderful imagination into the twenty-first century and takes a thrilling air-ship flight from London to Quebec. He has invented a new world of mechanics and found strange highways in the sky, which are pictured in color by Reuterdahl. In passing he glimpses a transformed earth so vividly real that it is hard to wake up to the fact that Utopia does not exist.

Another story in this number that stands strongly out is the "Last Love Feast," a tale of the French Commune which focuses in a terrible, brief, dramatic moment every human passion. It is splendidly illustrated by Castaigne.

Fitly following this piece of fiction is "The Lottery of Death," a true story of the Civil War's most appalling episode.

In sharp contrast to all this stress of emotion is "An Eye for an Eye" a dainty little tale of hot blood and young hearts told in the sweet patois of the Louisiana 'Cajan. There are besides stories by Samuel Hopkins Adams, Mrs Wilson Woodrow, Jean Webster and others.

Full of Tragic Meaning are these lines from J. H. Simmons, of Casey, Ia. Think what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: "I had a fearful cough, that disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds, which completely cured me." Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At Smithers' Moreland Pharmacy; guaranteed; 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Dr. James Bordley, Jr., of Baltimore, Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat specialist, will be in Easton the fourth Saturday of each month, at Dr. Julius A. Johnson's office, over Roberts' drug store.

Statistics show that more people live to be one hundred years old in warm climates than in northern countries. In Mexico there are many centenarians, for in towns not forty miles from the capital are not a few men and women beyond the one-hundred-year line. Germany reports 778 centenarians, France 213, England 146 and Spain 401, and the population of Spain is relatively small.
