by Wm. W. Hoye to I. Hoye but he did this day convey all the other lots and tracts to I. Hoye which I. Hoye is entitled to March 25th 1830, Jany. 1831 this tract is for Wm. W. Hoye is the reason I left the title in him. It is his by an arrangement with us." I. Hoye

"This tract is to be entered in I. Hoye's land book entered I. Hoye's land book page 58 tract 172" the endorsement or certificate for said tract is also in the handwriting of I. Hoye and is in the following words:
"January 30th 1832. This tract belongs to William W. Hoye I. Hoye is to have it as long as he lives for fencing it. The title is in William W. Hoye. It is his by an arrangement between I. Hoye and Wm. W. Hoye.
To 16th Int: I know that Collins occupied a part of the Gleanings which he bought of I. Hoye. I do not know of any other sales.

The Complainant having no further interrogatories to propose, the solicitor for defendants filed with me Interrogatories to be proposed to said witness Cross Interrogatories to be propounded to George W. Devecmon a witness on the part of Complainant and herewith returned to which he deposes and says.
To 1st Cross Int. It is more from my own observation.
To 2d " Int. I do not: I have travelled through the property and have been on the different farms & improvements.
To 3rd Int: I was acquainted with William W. Hoye upwards of thirty years, he lived on part of the Gleanings and died there, the time of his death I cannot fix though he has been dead for many years.
To 4th Int: I do not Know.
To 5th Int: I do not.
To 6th Int: I have no certain knowledge of his contributing to their support. John Hoye told me that had to look to the support of Wm. W. Hoye's family. I know that Eliza was at house in Cumberland going to school, also Samuel, Edward, Elizabeth and Marian but how long each or either of them went to school I can not say.
7th Int. William Hoye was indolent man & when away from home would drink, he had the means but did employ them in such a way as to do so.
To 8th Int: I have no knowledge in reference to the matter embraced in the 8th Int.
To 9th Int: I do not Know that he had.
To 10th Int: She was raised in part on the Gleanings and went off to her sister in Washington County when quite young and remained there for several years. I have no knowledge of her age.

To 11th Int: I do not Know.
To 12th Int: He heard of the death of her husband William Ridgely who was collector, and it was important that it should be attended to immediately was the reason he gave me for sending for her.
To 13th I can not fix the exact age of any of them but they were all of age.
To 14th Int: He convey to myself and Edward Hoye a tract of land in trust for the benefit of Maria Armstrong I heard that he conveyed to Leonard Townshends wife a tract of land.
To 15th - I have answered this in response to to your sixth interrogatory.
To 16th Int: No: they had not.
To 17th Int: Yes.
To 18th Int: They were open at the times the sales made which I referred to and were a part of the Gleanings.
To 19th Int: I do not know that it had any particular name it was on a part of the Gleaning.
To 20th Int: I have looked at paper marked A. The following endorsement is in the handwriting of John Hoye. "These tracts of land was surveyed in the name of Wm. W. Hoye but was and is the property of John Hoye April 1848."
I. Hoye"
21st Int. Old Jonas Collins told me so at Mr. McHenrys.
The defendants solicitore here suspended his cross examination and the solicitor for Complainant compounded additional Interrogatorys to some witness to which he deposes and says.
He was engaged in surveying a great deal for his brother until he became too infirm but I do not know any thing about taking up land for himself or brother.
The Solicitor for defendants not desiring to propose any additional cross interrogatories. John M. Armstrong a witness of lawful age produced on the part of Complainant being duly sworn and examined to interrogatories filed with me by Solicitor for Complainants and herewith returned deposes and says:
To 1st Int. I know some of the parties and have known them for many years.
To 2d Int: I am. I have run some of the lines but not the entire tract. the land is generally of a good quality more than an unusually fine body of land taking into consideration the large quantity
To 3rd Int: My impression prior to obtaining possession of the courses & distances was that it was a rough tract
