true and distinct answer make to all every the matters aforesaid that as fully as if the same were here repeated & the were particularly interrogated thereto, and more especially that he may answer whether the said Daniel P. Chatterton did not on or about the third day of March 1834 execute to your oratrix a deed conveying to her for her sole & separate use valuable cabinet furniture, stock & fixtures in the store No 211 second street Philadelphia together with the lease of said store, And whether your oratrix did not thereupon take possession of said property so conveyed, and whether she did not afterwards buy from the said John Milliken the house in Cafe street hereinbefore described in consideration of a debt of nine hundred dollars due from said Milliken to your Oratrix, and whether the deed for said property was not taken by her in the name of the said John Chatterton, and whether such use of his name was not made without his knowledge, and whether he did not afterwards assent thereto, And whether your oratrix did not on or about the 25th of July 1836 purchase from John A Brown, a certain house and lot in Eleventh street in the City of Philadelphia at the price of $4000 less about $1060 the value of a rent which it was charged with, and whether the deed for the same was not taken in the name of the said John Chatterton with intent that he should hold it in trust for her sole & separate use, And whether the whole consideration received by said Brown for said house & lot did not come from your Oratrix and not from the said John Chatterton, and whether the cash payment of six-hundred dollars paid to said Brown upon said purchase was not paid by your Oratrix. And whether the note for $1000 signed by said John Chatterton & given to said Brown as part of the consideration of said sale was not paid at the instance of your Oratrix by the said John Milliken her debtor, And whether the residue of said consideration did not move, and come from your Oratrix & her separate property. And whether the said John Chatterton out of his own money paid to the said Brown or to the said Milliken any part of the purchase money for either of the said houses; and if the said John Chatterton says he did pay any part of said consideration what part and how much of said consideration was paid by him, and when and how and to whom did he pay the same, and where did he obtain the money wherewith he made such payment. And whether the said John Milliken was not debtor to your Oratrix, and whether part of his said indebtedness was not extinguished by his sale and conveyance of the said Cafe street house in manner aforesaid, and whether the said Milliken did not on the 22nd of December 1856 pay to George Williams, or to the firm of Williams & Ellis the sum of Six hundred dollars in part payment of said $1000 note, and whether the balance of said note was not paid by the said Milliken, or out of Monies due from him to your oratrix. And whether an order for $322 50/100 drawn by the said John Chatterton upon the said Beck & Hartenstine & delivered to the said Brown at the time of said purchase was not paid by the said Beck & Hartenstine out of funds or credits of your oratrix, and whether the residue of the conside-
