FRAUDS IN CLOTH.—Thompson's New York Commercial Reporter has the following:

A great demand has arisen for rag wool; large sales have been made at 6 a 21c.—The wool is obtained from taking old made-up clothing and reducing it to a state of wool, which manufacturers buy to mix with new wools, so as to reduce the cost of cloth, but at the expense of its strength. The appearance of the cloth so made is equally good with that made entirely from new wool. This rag wool is technically called "shoddy."

BURSTING OF A WATER TANK.—At the Pensacola Navy Yard, a water tank, capable of holding 500,000 gallons of water, burst on the 15th ult. It contained at the time 400,000 gallons of water, and the force of the explosion drove out the whole of one end of a large three story building, and crushed the bricks and mortar into small fragments.

A clerk in the New York Post office named James Vasseo, Jr., has been arrested for purloining Reading Railroad Bonds from a letter mailed at Philadelphia.

AT A MEETING of the Board of Trustees of the Maryland Agricultural Society for the Eastern Shore, which was held on Thursday, the 20th of February, 1851, the following preamble and resolutions were passed unanimously:

Whereas, at the last meeting of our Board of Agriculture, the resignation of a venerable member was tendered to us, predicated on the grounds of advanced age and precarious health—and whereas, in the interval between that meeting and the present, he has been translated from time to eternity, a just sense of the uncommon merits of the deceased, imperiously admonishes us to honor the man so distinguished for his honesty, his unostentatious benevolence, and God-like charities,—Let honor be bestowed on whom honor is due.

Therefore resolved, That we have heard with deep regret of the sudden demise of SAMUEL HAMBLETON, Esq., the oldest Purser in the Navy of the United States, and who was for many years our presiding officer—a native of Talbot county, and always a resident here, when not engaged in the discharge of his public duties.

Resolved, That we honor him as the man who was without fear and without reproach—as one of the gallant heroes who nobly volunteered under his friend, the immortal Perry, and although a non-combatant "ex-officio," he, nevertheless, contributed to the achievement of a victory which will be remembered in our Naval annals, "to the last syllable of recorded time."

Resolved, That while entertaining a due sense of his public services, we as peaceful cultivators of the soil, who have enjoyed his hospitality and indulged in the pleasures of social intercourse with him, prefer to contemplate the mild lustre of his character in the calm retreats of private life; such was the faultless tenor of his way, such the urbanity and piety of the man, that a whisper of scandal or calumny was never breathed against him—few such men have ever lived, and few have been better prepared to meet the last dread summons.

Resolved, That we tender our sympathies and sincere condolence, to the numerous members of his family.

Resolved, That the members of this Board will wear crape on the left arm for thirty days, as a further testimony of the respect entertained by them for the memory of the deceased.

Resolved, That the Secretary send a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions to his family.

Resolved, That this preamble and resolutions be published in the American Farmer, Plough, Loom and Anvil, and the two papers published in the town of Easton.

BORN TO GOOD LUCK!

THE extraordinary success of one of our customers the past week is an instance wherein good luck is indeed a Fortune! In Grand Consolidated Lottery, class 4, drawn Saturday, 18th January, there was

FIVE CAPITALS OF $20,000!

On Wednesday previous to the drawing, this customer, out of a full package, selected ticket Nos. 5 10 20, and at the time insisted that it would draw $20,000. He then gave us an order to get him all the tickets we could find having one of those Nos. on, which we did to the amount of $500. Nos. 5 10 20, whole ticket drew $20,000, cost $10 and netted 17,000 dollars! He had 6 other 3 No. prizes in the same drawing. On Monday following, he drew one of $1,000 and one of $300; on Tuesday a $1,000; on Wednesday morning, the capital of $3,000, Nos. 40 49 58, in Small Fry; and on Wednesday evening, a $500 and $250 prize. In the space of six days this most fortunate of adventurers drew 18 three Nos. prizes—among them Two Grand Capitals, 20,000 dollars, whole ticket, and 3,000 dollars. This is the glorious luck of Miller & Co's. office. Well may we boast of our extraordinary success in prize selling when such brilliant returns as is here recorded are made by Miller & Co. to one customer.

Glory enough for one week, $25,000!

In round numbers, is the profit actually pocketed above all expenditure by one customer, in the short space of 6 days from purchases made at Miller & Co's.

ENCOURAGING. The beautiful run of luck in the sale of Magnificent Prizes that attends Miller & Co. is enough to encourage every buyer to renewed exertion. Fortune though fickle to-day, to-morrow smiles upon you. Every man has his fortunate period in life, at the opportune moment all he touches turns to gold, in a word successful in everything.—This fact is exemplified in the case of the gentleman who drew 5 10 20, the $20,000 prize—it made no difference what ticket he bought, prizes he would draw!

Good Luck was Buckled on his Back!

To one person have Miller & Co. sold 18 three No. prizes in 6 days, and two of them capitals. This fortunate individual is Captain Strandberg, well known throughout the Eastern Shore, and will himself, tell of his great success. M. & Co. do not mention names of customers, but in this instance, the lucky Captain cares not who knows of his great luck with Miller & Co. Miller & Co. contend that they are THE Great Prize Sellers—the Captain says he is the lucky man! who will contest the fact with him, in the face of 18 prizes in 6 days, and 2 of them the capitals of 20,000 and 3,000 dollars.

It is MILLER & CO. who are making the people rich. One man clears 25,000 in 6 days on investment at their office.
