Q. Have you any recollection of ever having had any conversation in Philadelphia about the matter with John Chatterton

(Objected to same question having been put before and this being Cross Examining his own witness)

A. Not any that I can remember

Q. Where you in the spring of 1854 in Store 211. North 2nd Street Philadelphia. And if so will you give me as nearly as you can the value of the Stock good will and fixtures of the store at that time.

(Objected to as leading and it does not appear witness could have any Knowledge of the value of the property at that time)

A. I dont remember the year precisely I was in the store. I remember the Stock the good will and fixtures of the store of furniture of No 211. I cant remember the year precisely when the furniture store first opened. & I remember when the stock was moved away but dont remember the date and I should judge to the best of my Knowledge I could not exactly state what amount there was. I should suppose there was Six thousand dollars worth more or less I could not state positively

Q. To whom did you give the Notes

(Objected to as the Notes themselves will show)

A. To J.P. Rufsnyder
