April Term 1868

A. Yes Sir
Q. How much did you retain which you did not pass over to Mr Refsnyder
(Objected to)
A. I dont remember how much
Q. Do you think you retained as much as $50.00
Objected to
A. Yes Sir I think I did
Q. Was it not a question of decussion between yourself your brother Daniel and Mr Refsnyder as to how much you should be paid for your trouble about this stock and did you not claim for one years services
(Objected to)
A. There was no decussion between Refsnyder My brother Daniel and me. My brother Daniel didnt wish me to sell the stock and he was trying to persuade me not to
Q. Did your brother Daniel advise you not to part with it until you were paid by Mr Refsnyder
(Objected to)
A. My brother Daniel wished me to get some money for this store from Mr Robert Chatterton or Refsnyder besides the notes I received
Q. Did those notes go into the hands of Refsnyder
A. Yes Sir
Q. Your brother did not wish all the proceeds of the sale to go into the hands of Refsnyder unless you got some little money for yourself
A. He didnt wish me to sell the store without I made something from it
Q. Was Mr Refsnyder largely indebted shortly before this property came into your hands.

April Term 1868

A. I think he was.
Q. Was relation was Mr Refsnyder to you
A. Half Brother
Q. You had been an apprentice to him I believe
A. Yes Sir
Q. How old where you when you went to him as an apprentice
A. I think I was sixteen
Q. Were you acquainted with any Chatterton in Philadelphia except John and Robert then called Daniel
A. No Sir none but Roberts wife
Q. Did you mean to say just at the close of your examination on the last evening that yod did not visit Robert Chatterton in prison in Philadelphia
(Objected to)
A. No I did not.
(Counsel for Defdt moves to strike out all the witnesses testifies on his direct Examination in regard to sale on the ground that Bill of sale is in writing and is not produced
Re-direct
(a paper shown witness)
Q. Is that your signature
(Objected to on the ground that it is a new matter)
A. It is.
Paper offered in evidence by Pltffs Counsel and marked Pltffs Exhibit No 11. H & L.
(Objected to on the above ground and on the ground that the paper offered in evidence has a subscribing witness. The execution of the paper