April Term 1868

A. I dont recollect
Q. State as near as you can how long it was
A. I dont think I can she kept house at Mount Auburn.
Q. Was he there a month
A. I should think she was.
Q. Was she there six weeks
A. I dont know
Q. Can you state the length of time she was there nearer than a month
A. I cannot
Q. How came she to go away
(Objected to as irrelevant)
A I dont know I never saw her but that once I spent the day with her
Q. How came you to visit her
(Objected to as irrelevant and trifling)
A. Her husband invited my husband to fetch me there and spend the day
Q. Can you swear that the Chatterlons were in Cincinnati more than a month
A. I should think they were to the best of my knowledge but I dont know
Q. Are you willing to swear that they were there five weeks
A. I should think they were there, I dont know
Question Repeated
(Objected to on the grounds that the witness has twice said that she didnt know)
A. I think they were but I cant tell I dont know.
Q. Can you recollect there being there more than five weeks
A. I can not positive

April Term 1868

Q. Did they fail in business there
(Objected to on grounds following
1st The question included Robert W. Chatterton and so far as relates to him is irrelevant
2nd. That it askes the witness a question which she can only know if at all by report which is not legal testimony)
A. I didnt know that Robert W Chatterton was in business there
Q. Did any other Chatterton fail in business there about that time
(Question objected to as irrelevant and as comprehending every Cincinnati Chatterton)
A. I dont know
Q. How did you or do you know of your knowledge that Daniel P. Chatterton did business for himself
A. I heard my husband say he bought goods from Daniel P. Chatterton in his name.
Q. All you know about it is what your husband told
A. Yes that is all I know about it
Q. How old a man was the person whom you supposed to be Daniel P. Chatterton at that time in 1853
A. Twenty one or twenty two I should think
Q. Will you swear that you ever saw him three times
A. Yes
Q. How long after the Chattertons left Cincinnati did you see Robert W. Chatterton
A. Yesterday was the first
Q. Did you know the day before yesterday