BOSTON, April 9.

Massachusetts Election.—Hon. Chas. Allen, free soiler, is elected to Congress in the fifth district, by 25 majority. In the other districts there is no choice. Thompson, whig, leads Palfrey, free soil, in the fourth district, 200 votes.

HARTFORD, April 9

Connecticut Election.—We have now full returns from the whole State. T. H. Seymour, dem, for Governor has 1,000 plurality over L. S. Foster, whig. The Congressional delegation will stand as follows: 1st district, Charles Chapman, whig, gain, 2d district, Colin M. Ingersoll, dem., 3d district, C. F Cleveland, F. S, dem.; 4th district, T. B. Butler, whig. The Legislature is divided thus: Senate—11 Whigs; 10 Democrats. House—106 Whigs; 112 Democrats. Two towns electing 3 members of the House yet to hear from.

NEW HAVEN, April 9.

Unexpected gains made by the whigs secure them majorities in both branches of the Legislature. The Senate will stand 13 whigs to 8 democrats, and the House 114 whigs to 110 democrats. Every town has been heard from. This secures a whig U. S. Senator, and whig State officers to be elected by the Legislature.

NEW HAVEN, April 10.

Connecticut Election.—The election appears to be still in doubt. The House is probably a tie, and in the Senate the whigs have one majority. Until the Legislature meets it will be impossible to ascertain the exact result. O J. Seymour, democrat, beats T. B. Butler, whig, 148 votes in the fourth district.

THE CHARGE TO NICARAGUA.—We understand that Hon. John B Kerr, the newly appointed Charge d'Affairs to Nicaragua will leave for his destination in a few weeks. Perhaps our government has never been represented at that of Nicaragua by so kind hearted and accomplished a gentleman as Mr. Kerr is on all hands acknowledged to be, and by none we are sure whose general merits were greater. His course whilst the representative of this District in the last Congress, and his prompt and generous attention in diffusing information among his constituents, in the general distribution of public documents, was alike creditable to himself and gratifying to his friends; and in it we have a guarantee that his career in his new position will be equally so.—Worcester Shield.

CONGRESSMAN DEAD.—The Hon Ranson Halloway, late a member of the 31st Congress from the State of New York, died at Mount Pleasant, in Prince George's county, Maryland—whither he had gone on a visit to his wife's relations, prior to his return—on Sunday last, of typhoid fever and inflammation of the bowels, after an illness of about two weeks.

AN ASTROLOGER ARRESTED.—C. W. Roback, the astrologer, has been arrested and held to bail, in Philadelphia, charged with swindling a colored man out of a sum of money by gammoning him into the belief that he could cure his wife of some ailment by the power of conjuration. The conjurer was taken through the streets to the office of alderman Ogle in his cap of crescent and stars.

SUIT FOR LIBEL.—Richard R. Sheckell, of Georgetown, D. C., has sued the old trustees of the Commonwealth (abolition) newspaper, at Boston, for libel, for having asserted that he had induced a colored man, named William Ringold, to leave Massachusetts and visit his friends in the District of Columbia, where, it is alleged, Ringold was arrested and sold as a fugitive from bondage. Damages are laid at $5,000—the writ returnable to the Supreme Judicial Court, to be holden at Springfield on the last Tuesday of the present month

SHIP BUILDING AT CAMBRIDGE, MD.—The Chronicle says that James A. Stewart has now nearly ready for launching in the ship-yard of Mr. Samuel R. Vinton, in Cambridge, a clipper brig of about 200 tons burthen, with all the modern improvements. She is to be fitted out ready for sea at Cambridge, a thing never done before. This is the fourth vessel of this class that has been launched for Mr Stewart in the short space of six months.

A SUFFERER RELIEVED!—We learn from the Catoctin Whig, that a little son of Mr. George Yast, near that place, was seized with a fit of coughing on Tuesday, when he threw up a chesnut hull, which had lodged in his windpipe five months ago, and which no medical skill could succeed in removing.

HON. P. E. BROCCHUS, recently appointed a judge of the federal court in Utah, started yesterday from Washington for the scene of his judicial duties, to organize his courts for business. Judge B. is a democratic appointment by the present administration.

EXECUTION FOR RAPE.—We learn from Annapolis that Governor Lowe has fixed Friday, the 13th of June next, for the execution of the negro, Amon Green, convicted at the late term of Howard District Court of this attrocious crime upon the person of Mrs Josephine Peepe.

CHANGE OF FRONT IN MASSACHUSETTS.—The rumor now is, that Mr. Sumner is to be abandoned, and Mr. Rantoul is to be run in his place—to prepare for which he made the Linn abolition speech, and engaged as counsel for the fugitive slave.

HON JAS. BUCHANAN.—The Pennsylvanian comes out in favor of Mr. B. for the Presidency, and quotes articles from some prints in Pennsylvania, to the effect that he must be the next democratic candidate.
