A. No. it may have been a little less, but I think it was more. It may have been $149.

I was at the commissioners office last winter at Mr Hawkins office. Mrs Mann was with me. I did not then state that Robert was worth nothing. I did not at the time in Charles St say on the occasion of Julys visit that my father had forbidden Robert visiting the house. I dont know what Mrs Mann said. I did not charge my mind with what Mrs Mann said. My impression is she did not

Q. Did you charge your mind with what John said

A. No I did not in particular. I could tell some things he said but as for charging my mind with the whole of it. I did not

Q. Please state the whole conversations at the interview in Charles Street, what Mr Chatterton said what Mrs Mann said & what you said

A. No I cannot

Q. Please state it as near as you can

A. I think I have answered that before
