April Term 1868

answer to Dr Dimmett was that he could say nothing about it until he heard from his brother. Dr Dimmett then sent for his waggon and part of the furniture was carried to Dr Dimmetts and the balance was put in the barn.

Edwin S. Farr, a witness of lawful age produced on behalf of the Complainant being by me first duly sworn on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God being examined on the following interrogatories to him propounded in that behalf — made oath deposeth and saith as follows, that is to say.

First Interrogatory

Where do you reside and what is your occupation.

1 Answer "I reside in Baltimore City and have been engaged in the Cabinate and furniture business about 35 years."

Second Interrogatory

Are you acquainted with the parties to this suit, or with either of them, or with Robert W. Chatterton."

2 Answer "I cannot say I am acquainted with them. I have seen Robert W. Chatterton (now present) before."

Third Interrogatory

Did you know Daniel P. Chatterton, was he ever engaged in business in Baltimore City, and what business and describe his appearance

3 Answer." Yes Sir. I knew him and he was engaged in the Cabinet and furniture business he was rather a sickly man, and I should think him to have been from 23 to 25 years old, but his bad health may have made him look older than he really was, for he was very afflicted indeed and seemed to have the consumption, my dealings with him were in the year 1852."

April Term 1868

Fourth Interrogatory

Have you seen him write

4 Answer, "I have seen him write in giving receipts to me for bills that I paid him, which bills I still have."

Fifth Interrogatory

Look at the paper annexed to the Commission taken in this case and executed in Philadelphia by Wardale G. McAllester and F. Carroll Brewster and endorsed

"A" referred to in the deposition of Saml Gillingham

Wardale G. McAllister
F. Carroll Brewster
Commissioners"

and state if you know, in whose handwriting the signature thereto is of Daniel P. Chatterton

5. Answer "I should judge it to be the handwriting of the said Daniel P. Chatterton of whom I have spoken, that is my opinion

Sixth Interrogatory

State how extensive was the business here conducted hereby the said Daniel P. Chatterton

6 Answer, "Well Sir, his ware house was pretty well filled and I should judge that there was from 4,000 to 5,000 dollars worth of furniture there."

Cross Examined for Defendant.

First Cross Interrogatory