April Term 1868

How often did you see Daniel P. Chatterton write
1x Answer "Several times, a number of times Sir. I never paid or settled a bill with him without seeing him write"

Second Cross Interrogatory

Did you give it as your opinion that the signature to said Exhibit shewn to you by the commissioners is in the handwriting of the Daniel P. Chatterton whom you know in Baltimore from your recollection and knowledge of his handwriting, or from its resemblance to his signature to certain receipts which you hold of his and which you have recently examined.
2x Answer "I give it as my opinion, I have seen write frequently, that is to say upon business receipts and I give it as my opinion from my recollection and knowledge of his handwriting conjointly with the resemblance of the signature to the Exhibit to the signatures of the receipts which I hold, and which I saw him write"

Third Cross Interrogatory

Have you sufficient knowledge of his handwriting to prove his signature to the said Exhibit without having referred to the receipt in your possession
3x Answer "I think not Sir, the time is 10 years gone by when I had those dealings with him."

Fourth Cross Interrogatory

How long was said Daniel P. Chatterton engaged in business.
4x Answer "I should suppose somewhere from a year to 18 months or 2 years, or perhaps more, but I do not recollect precisely.

5x Answer "In October

Sixth Cross Interrogatory

Do you know whether he was engaged in business in Baltimore in the Spring or Summer of 1852
6x Answer "I am satisfied that he was in the Summer and have little hesitation in saying that he also was in the Spring of 1852

Seventh Cross Interrogatory

Have you any knowledge whether the said Daniel P. Chatterton was carrying on the business on his own account, or for some one else.
7. Answer "I always presumed that he carried it on upon his own account, his name was over the door."

Eighth Cross Interrogatory

Was his furniture manufactured in Baltimore or elsewhere
8x Answer "From the character and style of the furniture my impression is that it was manufactured elsewhere"

Ninth Interrogatory

From your knowledge of the business could you tell by the appearance and character of the furniture that he sold in what City or by what house it was manufactured
9 Answer "Not by what house but I should judge that it might come from both New York & Philadelphia there was rose wood furniture that I should think was made in New York and plainer work that I should think came
