BOSTON, May 1st, 1851.

Mr. Webster's Reply to the Aldermen. Mr. Webster's letter to the joint committee of the Councils was read at the special meeting this evening, and is in the following words:

Boston, April 22.

Gentlemen—I have perused the paper which you did me the honor to place in my hands yesterday, and have to say in reply that it is not my intention to address my fellow citizens in Faneuil Hall during this visit to Boston.

I have the honor to be very respectfully, your obedient servant,

DANIEL WEBSTER.

WASHINGTON, May 1, 10 P M.

Difficulty. Rencontre and Probable Duel.—At the dinner table to-day of the National Hotel, a misunderstanding occurred between Lt. Alvarado Hunter, of the navy, and Capt. Chambourg, formerly of the army, which led to an altercation between Chambourg and Lt. Nicholson, of the navy, and terminated in a regular battle with canes and fists. Nicholson got the better of Chambourg, and a challenge will probably be the consequence, although it is not determined who shall be the challenging party.

MONTREAL, April 29

Important from Canada—Despatches from Earl Grey to the Governor General have been published, according to which the Imperial Government is not opposed to a reduction of the civil list, but will recommend it to the British Parliament and Governor General of Canada. In return he will remove all the troops except the garrisons at Quebec and Kingston, and will charge the Province with the expenses of the barracks, and also with the annual presents to made the Indians. Earl Grey does not think this will tend to alienate the colonies from the parent country.

FUGITIVE SLAVES REMANDED—A colored man, his wife and child, were arrested at Columbia, Pa., on Monday night.—From the testimony before Commissioner McAllister, at Harrisburg, it appeared that the man named Daniel Franklin, was the slave of Robert Franklin, of Anne Arundel county, Maryland, and that Abby Franklin, with a child about four years old, were the slaves of Barbara Wailes of Baltimore city and escaped some time in 1849.

They had another child about ten months old, but it was born in Pennsylvania, consequently could not be taken, and was left at Columbia. After a full hearing, the Commissioner granted certificates to the owners, and the parties left for Baltimore. The Harrisburg Union from which we take these facts, says there was a considerable crowd of persons around the office of the Commissioner, but every thing passed off without any breach of the peace

ANOTHER DEN OF ROBBERS.—The New Albany (Ia.) Ledger, gives an account of a den of robbers on an island in Beaver Lake, Jasper county in that State, discovered by Mr Weiss, who went after four stolen horses. In order to save his life, he swore not to divulge what he saw; but he exposed the whole when he got home. The Ledger says:

"He was taken to a large cave on this island, provided with supper, and then shown false keys, bank note presses, metal for making bogus money, &c. Mr. Weiss says there were over one hundred men in the gang—many of whom he knew—they had been residents of this and adjoining counties, and that they had occupied high stations among the citizens—He states that there were about twenty-five women in the gang—the wives of some of the rascals. They had one hundred and thirty horses on the island."

TROUBLE WITH MEXICO—Indian outrages.—A despatch from Washington to the Philadelphia Inquirer, says a formal complaint has been made by the Mexican Government, in consequence of the repeated Indian outrages on the frontier.

By the treaty with Mexico, the United States agreed to protect the frontier between this country and Mexico from Indian agressions. Congress, it will be remembered, at the last session, failed to make the appropriation asked by the War Department for this duty, and it consequently has not been performed. Mexico now refuses to ratify the Tehuantepec treaty, unless the provisions of the peace treaty are carried out Mr. Webster probably hastened his arrival here in consequence of this difficulty. The President may, if he deem the matter of sufficient importance, order the troops to be paid out of the secret service fund.

The Hungarian and Italian Refugees in the Cuba expedition enlisted only because they had no other means of saving themselves from starving. One man the Tribune knows had not slept under a roof for two nights before he consented to join the assemblage at South Amboy.

TOM HYER'S CHALLENGE—James H Hamilton, of Caldwell, N Y., accepts the challenge of Thomas Hyer, to fight for $10.000 aside. He proposes to meet Hyer on the 8th of May, to put up the money and make the necessary preliminary arrangements.

SHORT DRESSES.—The Syracuse N. Y Standard says:—"Several ladies appeared in the streets yesterday, with dresses of very laconic pattern and pantaloons a la Turk. The new style looks decidely tidy and neat, and imparts to the wearer quite a sprightly and youthful appearance.

SECESSION IN VIRGINIA.—A number of the members of the Virginia Convention, from the western section of the State, openly threatened to secede from that body in the event of the rejection of the suffrage basis of representation.

CECIL COUNTY COURT.—This court was adjourned over last week, until Monday, by Judge Eccleston, the only Judge on the bench, in consequence of the death of his brother, Bishop Eccleston.

ANOTHER SCIENTIFIC WONDER! PEPSIN, the True Digestive Fluid or Gastric Juice! A great Dyspepsia Curer, prepared from Rennet, or the fourth stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebig, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. Houghton, M. D., No. 11 North Eighth streets, Philadelphia, Pa. This is a truly wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation, and Debility, curing after Nature's own method, by nature's own agent, the Gastric Juice.
