Population of New York—Interesting News from France—California News—Lots of Gold—A prolific "placer" in New York, and whom it is worked by—A bijou for Prince Albert—Where our Specie goes to—President Fillmore and his Cabinet coming to New York—Lots of Law, &c., &c.

NEW YORK, May 10th, 1851.

EDITOR OF THE GAZETTE:—The Census returns gave New York a population of 515,394 inhabitants, on the 30th day of June last. Since that time over 185,000 immigrants have debarked at this port, one tenth of whom, at least, have remained here. Then there is the natural increase of population, which in these parts, is wonderfully rapid, and the population of Brooklyn, Williamsburgh, Jersey City, and twenty other suburban cities and villages, all of which are part and parcel of New York. Adding all these items together, it gives us a population at this time, of not less than 700,000 souls. Then again we always have a floating population of upwards of 60,000, and just now, the Anniversaries draw hither at least 50,000 more; so that we have in and around New York, this day, over 800,000 human beings. As Saturday is general market day with all classes, and a gala day with all who can afford to attend places of amusement, all the principal thoroughfares (and especially Broadway,) are thronged with countless thousands of men, women and children of every age, color, condition, and nation.

The steamship Europa, of the Cunard line, arrived in this port, on Thursday morning, after a passage of 12 days, from Liverpool. The English news is unimportant.

From France the news is of rather more than ordinary interest. All sections of the Socialist and Republican parties have cordially united in the nomination of Nadaud as their candidate for the presidency.—Monsieur Nadaud is a mason by trade, a man of great intellectual powers, of strong common sense, and perfect integrity. It is thought that he will be elected, whoever may be opposed to him; but it is difficult to foretell events in France. The popular idol of to day, may be the hunted outcast of to morrow.

Louis Napoleon has been quite ill. He is pretty much recovered with the exception of the gout, which appears to have taken up a permanent residence in his left foot. He and General Changarnier have "made up," and are now as good friends as ever. Prince Louis appears to be greatly chagrined at the failure of his agent to effect the loan of three million of francs in this country. I suppose you have seen accounts of that affair of the loan. It was quite ludicrous. The agent having failed to raise the money in Wall street applied to Dr. Moffat, who is an old friend of M. Napoleon. I believe they made the tour of the British Islands together, several years ago. Dr Moffat is immensely rich, as every body knows; and Louis Napoleon thought that he might feel honored at being allowed to loan him three millions of francs; but the Dr. did'nt look at the matter in that light, and refused to "shell out." He generously sent the Prince a large supply of the Life Pills and Phœnix Bitters, however; and it may be that the restoration of the Gallic President's health is owing to their life giving powers. The potentates of Europe need not attempt to borrow money of our Yankee millionaires; it can't be done.

Speaking of money, I will mention that we have received over $2 000,0 0, in gold from California, within five days. That is not a bad business; but the trouble is these receipts don't come to hand every week, nor every month, even. The "Danean shower" is continually decreasing; and already it is nothing more than a mere drizzle, as a general thing. New "placers" and plenty of them, will have to be discovered in order to keep up the supply.

Castle Garden is the most prolific "placer," known just at this time. It is worked by Barnum and Jenny Lind. The receipts are truely marvellous, often reaching 1460 "ounces," or $20.0.0. in one day. It is thought that it will take two months to exhaust the "placer" at this rate.

The American steamship Pacific, Cap Ezra Nye, left this port at noon to-day, for Liverpool. She took out 220 cabin passengers which greatly exceeds the number that ever before crossed the Atlantic in a steamer. Among the passengers was Silas C. Herring, the manufacturer of the celebrated Salamander Safe. Mr. Herring goes out to visit the World's Fair and for a general ramble over Europe. He will also establish agencies for the sale of his Safes in the principal cities of that country. He takes out with him several Salamanders to supply orders previously received. A safe that he had made for Prince Albert attracted a great deal of attention to New York, for several days before it was placed on the hold of the Pacific. It is a beautiful production of Yankee skill, and will, no doubt, be highly prized by its princely purchaser.

The Pacific took out $100 000, in specie. That's the way our coin goes.—Never mind; the day will come when the flow of the metallic current shall be reversed; and then shall gold and silver be as plenty in our land as it was in Palestine under the reign of Solomon.

The "Cuban invasion" excitement has died out. The precautions taken by our government, and the unrelaxing espionage of the Spanish authorities has completely disheartened the "Liberators" for the time being. They will not "give it up so," however. Cuba must inevitably be seized by them before many years.

President Fillmore and his Cabinet are coming to New York next Tuesday, to assist in celebrating the completion of the New York and Erie Railroad. A "grand time" is anticipated.

The suit of Willis, the Poet and Editor, vs. Forrest, the Actor, is now being tried in our Supreme Court. The action is for assault and battery, the damages being laid at $10,000. The court room is constantly thronged with fashionable authors, among whom are many ladies. From the evidence adduced thus far it seems that Mr. Forrest gave Mr. Willis a tremendous thrashing. I believe that Mr. F. does not intend to deny the thrashing business, but will endeavor to show that he had provocations sufficient to justify it.

Next week the great suit between the Methodist E. Church, South, plaintiffs, and the M. E Church, North, defendants, will be tried in the U. S. Circuit Court in this city. Daniel Webster is the leading counsel for the plaintiffs; and his fellow townsman, Rufus Choate, appears for the defendants. Truly yours, YORK.

ELMIRA, May 15.

Progress of the President and Party.—The excursion train left here at 7 o'clock this morning for Dunkirk. The President and party were in fine spirits.

DUNKIRK, N. Y., May 15, 12 M.

An immense assemblage of people is congregating here, every avenue to the town, for miles around, being covered with wagons and teams, and steamboats are arriving, overflowing with passengers. Gov. Hunt, Ex Governor Young, and the City Councils of Buffalo are expected every minute.

3 o'clock, P. M.—The cars, with their distinguished visitors, have not yet arrived. Great preparations are making for their reception.

BOSTON, May 13

Later from Hayti—Prince Bobo to be Shot!—By advices from Hayti to the 30 ult., we learn that the Emperor has issued a proclamation for Prince Bobo to come to the seat of government, which, he not doing, Soloupue has ordered him to be shot whenever found. Every one who speaks against the government, is in danger of being shot.

No decision has been made by the Chambers relative to the demand of the American, French, and English Commissioners, in regard to the pacification of the Islands.

BUCHANAN AT THE SOUTH.—We see that the Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser, the organ of Wm. L. Yancey, the Southern Rights candidate for Congress, in Hilliard's district, Alabama, declares distinctly for Buchanan, of Pennsylvania, for the Presidency. The "Southern Rights" editors throughout the South are highly elated with Buchanan's recent letter to an Association at Richmond, Va., organized for the purpose of directly importing the products of Great Britain in preference to those of the Free States.
