I am a daughter of Mrs Livesey I cannot say where Mr John Chatterton was in May 1860 I only saw him there every night when I was at Mothers. I went to my Mothers about the first of May 1860. I staid there about ten or twelve days. During the time I was there Mrs Chatterton came in the Morning she was going to New York just to say to Mother she had left the house all right. She told Mother John would be home and cook his breakfast in the Morning and she wanted her to cook his supper at night and she must cook his dinner if he wanted it. She said she might be gone two or three weeks I asked her if her husband was going with her and she said yes. Then she said she thought she might stay three or four weeks but he could not be gone so long as she, as he was coming back to go in
