ARRESTED.—Amos Green, the negro who escaped from Howard District jail, was arrested near Laurel factory on Saturday morning, and was to have been hung on yesterday.

DIED IN JAIL.—The Denton Journal says that Alexander Hutchins, free negro, died in the jail in that place, on Friday last, of mania-a-potu. He had been placed in jail to prevent his injuring himself.

DROWNED.—The Denton Journal states that Mr. Wm. Clarke was drowned in the cripple near Gilphin's Point, in Caroline county, on Tuesday morning last. It is supposed he was taken with a fit and fell overboard. A coroner's inquest was held over the body—verdict, death from accidental drowning.

DISTRESSING DEATH.—On Friday of last week, Mrs. Calabaugh, wife of Mr. James Calabaugh, near Taneytown, Carroll county, Md., after having called the hands to dinner with the horn kept for that purpose, from some cause (probably paralysis) fell into the fire, and, before the hands reached the house, was burnt to a crisp

MANSLAUGHTER.—A negress belonging to Wm. Showell, Esq., of St. Martins, was committed to Jail on Tuesday last, for a homicide committed on one of his negro men in a fight. The weapon used was a large farm knife, which laid open the stomach, causing death in a few hours.—The negress it is believed acted in self-defence.—Worcester Shield.

ARREST OF A COUNTERFEITER.—Mr. Darlington, ex-sheriff of Chester county, Pa., arrested in this county, some six miles above Elkton, on Tuesday last, a man named John Ingram, said to be a notorious passer and vender of counterfeit money, and the leader of a large gang engaged in the same business. He was taken to Elkton, and thence to West Chester Jail, being given up by the Governor of this State on the requisition of Gov. Johnston of Pa. Active watch is kept for others of the same gang.—Cecil Whig.

MISSING LETTERS AND DRAFTS.—A letter, mailed on the 29th ult., at the Philadelphia Post-office, directed to P. M. Bryson, Cashier of the Phœnix Bank, New York, containing drafts amounting to about $7000, has failed to reach the person to whom it was directed. As far as known these drafts have not been negotiated. A letter has also been taken from the same office, by a person to whom it was not addressed, and a draft for $119 which it contained was abstracted, presented and paid.

DROWNED IN THE POTOMAC.—We learn from the Loudon (Va.) Chronicle that on Sunday night week, as a skiff, containing four persons—two mates and two females—was crossing the Potomac, at the Point of Rocks, the boat capsized and sunk.—The two men succeeded in reaching the shore, but finding the women were still in the water, they rushed to the rescue; one of them succeeded in saving one of the females, but the other, named Lambert, with his burden, sunk to rise no more. On Monday last their bodies were found and decently interred.

THE STING OF A LOCUST.—Near Westchester, Pa., last week, a young man, named Hamorton, was severely stung on the hand by a young locust, in consequence of which the arm soon became much swollen up to the shoulder, attended with considerable pain. The general impression seems to be that the locust has no sting. The female, nevertheless, has a spiral sting, and some deaths have been ascribed to wounds inflicted by it.

The Hagerstown (Md.) News also says that several persons have been stung in the hands by locusts in that vicinity, which became much swollen and somewhat painful.

STREET FIGHT.—A street fight occurred in Lynchburg, Va., on Tuesday, between Mr. Saunders and Mr. Terry, the latter editor of the Virginian. Five discharges of revolvers took place, and both were wounded in the abdomen, fatally, it is feared.—Saunders attacked Terry in consequence of his severe comments on a speech made by Dr. Saunders, his father, in the Virginia Convention.

THE LYNCHBURG TRAGEDY.—Mr. Terry, the editor of the Lynchburg Virginian, wounded in the late terrible affray with Mr. Saunders, died on Sunday. Mr. Saunders, it will be recollected died a few days previous. Officer Bigger, who was wounded in attempting to separate them, lies in a precarious condition. Mr Terry was a lawyer by profession, a graduate of Princeton College, and the grandson of the Rev. A. W. Clopton, one of the most eminent Baptist clergymen in Virginia.—The tragedy has cast a gloom over the citizens of Lynchburg.

CLAY MEDAL.—A medal for Henry Clay is in course of preparation in New York to be presented as a testimonial of his eminent public services, and particularly as the originator of the recent Compromise. It is to be of gold, bearing on one side the bust of Mr. Clay, and on the other a design appropriate to its object. It will be enclosed in a silver case, engraved with a view of Ashland.—There are 25 subscribers, each one of whom subscribes $25; and the whole cost will be 3,000.

THE HON. DANIEL WEBSTER.—We learn from our exchanges that a very general movement is now going on throughout the State of Massachusetts, having for its object the nomination of Mr. Webster for the Presidency.

Papers are being circulated in every town in the Commonwealth for signatures, and the one in the city of Boston is already very numerously signed by the most influential men of the place, at the head of whom upon the list of names is Mr. Robert G. Shaw. A meeting in favor of Mr. Webster has been called to assemble at Springfield.

HARTFORD, June 12.

Balloting for a Connecticut U. S. Senator.—The balloting for U. S. Senator was resumed in the Legislature to-day. On the first ballot the vote stood Seymour, democrat, 101; Baldwin; whig, 108; scattering, 14. On the second ballot, Seymour received 60; George S. Catlin, democrat, 43; Baldwin, 109. Baldwin lacked but three votes of an election. On the 4th ballot Seymour, dem., received 38 votes, Catlin, dem., 68 do.; Baldwin, whig 109; scattering, 8. The trial to elect has been postponed till next Wednesday.

THE METHODIST CHURCH SUIT.—We learn from the Christian Advocate and Journal that the book agents of the Methodist Episcopal Church, acting upon the suggestion of the Court in the late trial respecting the Church property, have proposed to the Commissioners of the Church, South, "an adjustment of their preferred claims by a legal arbitration under the authority of the Court." We are glad to learn this, says the New York Commercial, and trust that the South will, with equal promptitude and cheerfullness, meet the proposal favorably.

REMEDY FOR THE POTATO ROT.—A writer in the Boston Courier says that the potato rot is caused by animalculæ attaching themselves to the potato, and suggests that sulphur will save this esculent from destruction A table spoonful of the powdered brimstone is to be applied to each hill after the ground is prepared and manured in the usual way.

NEWSPAPERS.—The Hon. Judge Longstreet says: 'Small is the sum that is required to patronize a newspaper, and most amply remunerated in the patron. I care not how humble and unpretending the Gazette which he takes, it is next to impossible to fill a sheet fifty two times a year, without putting into it something that is worth the subsciption price. Every parent whose son is off from him at school, should be supplied with a newspaper. I well remember what a difference there was between those of my school mates who had not access to newspapers. Other things being equal, the first were always decidedly superior to the last, in debate and composition at least. The reason is plain—they had command of more facts. A newspaper is a history of current events, as well as a curious and interesting miscellany, and which youth will peruse with delight when they will read nothing else.

ANOTHER SCIENTIFIC WONDER!
