April Term 1868

Mr Raifsnyder, I was working with Mr Raifsnyder at the time Mr Chatterton, Robert, asked me to upholster this furniture for him. I said yes, and Mr Raifsnyder would furnish the materials such as springs webbing canvass, hair & tacks Robert furnished me money for to buy maslins, when I got them ready for the outside cover I cut the pattern out of paper, brought it to Mrs Chattertons she gave me the stuff and I cut the cover for the furniture and Mrs Chatterton gave me the Gimp, Raifsnyder gave me all the rest, well when I got it done, I informed Mr Robert Chatterton he gave me money to hire a car, I brought it home, rung the bell at the door nobody came The lady next door came out, she saw Mrs Chatterton coming up the street, I waited, delivered the furniture at Mr Robert Chattertons residence & came off and Robert Chatterton paid me, I done other work in Roberts Chattertons house, Must I tell all, I laid the entry oil cloth and did other work about the house, and up at Mrs Chattertons at the present time, I see a great deal of furniture that was there.

Whereupon defendants solicitor exhibited his cross interrogatories to be propounded to said witness which he filed with the commissioner and which are herewith returned & said witness being thereunto interrogated, deposeth and saith

First Cross interrogatory

1st x How long have you known John Chatterton, where did you first see him & how often have you seen him

Answer

I only know John Chatterton by seeing him come

April Term 1868

round the store, I hadnt seen him five times before he made this explanation to me, I first saw him in the summer of 1856

Second Cross Interrogatory

2d x When did you go to work for Robert Chatterton in Second St, above vine & when did you leave there

Answer

Well it was when Mr Chatterton bought the store from Frederick Klink, I was working there at the time, It was between, I couldnt say exactly, it was between 1855 & 1856 when the store was sold, you see it has been a good while ago. I left in 1856 about three weeks before Christmas, I guess.

Third Cross Interrogatory

3rd x How long was you in Robert Chattertons employment,

Answer

Between four and five months I had worked for other parties that had the store & I didnt take account of the time, I disremember the time he bought the store from Fred Klink, but I worked there from the time he bought the store till about three weeks before Christmas

Fourth cross interrogatory

When was it you had the conversation with John Chatterton which you have detailed in your examination in chief. State if you can the day and month and year,

Answer

Well that I couldnt state the day and month & year but it was shortly before the time I left I think about two weeks before I left, I left the store shortly after that,