THE IMPORTANT ELECTIONS NEXT FALL.—The large number of officers to be elected next fall, under the new constitution, will afford a fine field for those who indulge the desire of being candidates for popular favor. And the field will be fully occupied judging from the number of candidates who are already announced, or who, it is understood, will be out as soon as a fitting opportunity occurs.

Of all the officers to be elected, the members of the legislature are among the most important, and perhaps next to the judges of the several courts, are the most important. The duties and responsibilities of a member of the legislature are always important, and too much care cannot be taken in making the selections. But at this time, they are particularly so, for the new constitution has devolved on the next legislature special duties, which the wisest and best men of the State ought to be selected to discharge.

The first thing to be done by the senate, after meeting, is to apportion the senators, by lot, in two classes, those of the first class to hold the office for two years, and those of the second class for four years; no senator is to be placed in a class to serve longer than the term for which he was originally elected.

The constitution puts several prohibitions upon the senators, and gives them certain privileges and exemptions, and then goes on to enumerate what they shall do. Among the things to be done, are to pass laws to exempt the property of the wife from the debts of the husband during her life, and secure it to her issue after her death. The exemption here, it will be seen, is only against the debts of the husband; but the provision requiring it to be secured to her issue after death, can only effectually be carried out by prohibiting her husband from selling it, or disposing of it so as to put it beyond the reach of her issue. There will be difficulty in carrying this provision out, as there are doubts of what it exactly means.

The legislature is also to pass a law to exempt what they may deem a reasonable amount of the property of a debtor from execution. What is a reasonable amount, will depend, in a great measure, upon who are to use it.

There are then many other laws relating to the treasury, the establishing of uniform rates of fees for clerks of courts and registers of wills, &c. &c., which it will require much general knowledge to do rightly, and much legal acenmen to do certainly.

Let us have good men for the next legislature.—Baltimore Patriot.

THE LOCUST HAS NO STING.—Dr. Gideon B. Smith, the distinguished naturalist, has made enquiry into all the recent reported cases of death and sickness from the sting of the locust, and the result of his inquiry is that no one has yet been injured by the sting or bite of a locust.—The death reported by the Board of Health as being caused by the sting of a locust, he traced to be the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan, who assured him that the child had complained of its arm for a month previous to his death, which was preceded by spasms, and no one of the family ever dreamed of its being injured in any manner. So, also, as to the report of a young man having his arm amputated, on account of being stung by a locust; he traced this to its source, and found it equally unfounded. He concludes by stating that the locusts are now doing all the injury they are capable of by depositing their eggs in the branches of trees and shrubbery, and that they will all die by the 25th of June, and be found scattered over the ground in every direction.

DEATHS BY LIGHTNING.—A crazy woman named Betsey Ginn, living near Elkton, (Md.) was killed by lightning during the severe storm on Sunday week. She lived about two miles from town, and was found the next morning sitting in her chair, dead

The Marlborough Gazette says that a negro man, belonging to Dr. Claget, was killed by lightning on the same night, at Key's Quarter, near Nottingham.

At Boonville (Mo.) on the 4th instant, two persons by the name of Franklin, were killed by lightning, about three miles from Boonville. Three others were so badly injured that one of them is not expected to recover. Several of the Telegraphic poles were struck and the wire was burned off near its entrance into the office.

ELLICOTT'S MILLS, June 13.

A Respite Granted to Amos Green.—The execution of Green, colored, for rape, was to have taken place this morning, and thousands had congregated from a distance to witness it. At 10 o'clock, when the Sheriff was about to proceed from the jail with the prisoner, a dispatch was received from Gov. Lowe, now in Frederick, granting a respite of two weeks.

There is a strong feeling in favor of a commutation of his sentence, for the longest term of imprisonment.

A NEW COUNTERFEIT.—We learn by a note from William A. Taylor, Esq., assistant Postmaster at Cumberland, that a new and dangerous counterfeit five dollar note on the Cumberland Savings' Bank has made its appearance. It is of letter A, and of October 1st, 1850, and other dates.—The signature of the Cashier and President are well executed and calculated to deceive, though the paper is flimzy, and the engraving coarse. It is about one-eighth of an inch longer than the genuine, and somewhat wider.

NAVAL DISCHARGE.—Passed Midshipman Pollock, sailing master of the sloop-of-war St. Louis, has been court martialed, at Buenos Ayres, for cutting down with a cutlass a seaman on board the ship, and was sentenced to be discharged from the squadron.

CHANCELLOR JOHNSON.—This gentleman is spoken of as a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals.

BOSTON, June 18.

The Shadrach Rescue Case.—The trial of Robert Morris, the colored lawyer, was suspended this morning by Judge Sprague, and Mr. Dana B. Walker, one of the jurymen to try the case, was put under examination for perjury, a charge being brought against him that he took an oath to bring in a true verdict under the law and the evidence; whereas it is alleged that he has long been violently opposed to the Fugitive Law, and was a member of the Committee of Vigilance to rescue fugitives.—Messrs. Seaver and Washburn, of our Common Council, and other witnesses, testify to conversations with Walker, in which he declared he was a member of the Vigilance Committee, and no colored man should be taken out of Massachusetts.—The testimony was so strong against Walker that the Court discharged him from the jury.

AGAIN ARRESTED.—The Harford Madisonian says, that Mr. Collier, late Cashier of the Havre-de Grace Bank has again been arrested by the Sheriff of Harford county, and that he is now in Elkton Jail, to remain there until removed to Harford. Rumor says, he has been arrested through the instrumentality of certain brokers in Baltimore.

CHOLERA.—On the steamer James N. Niles that arrived at St. Louis on the 9th inst., from New Orleans, seventeen deaths occurred from cholera and ship fever.—The boat had upwards of 250 emigrant passengers that were taken from a ship at N. Orleans. The deaths, with but one exception, all occurred on deck among the emigrants.

MISSING LETTERS.—Several of the letters that have been advertised as having been lost in the Philadelphia Post Office, came to hand on Saturday, from Vincennes, Ind., where they had been mis-sent from the mailing office in New York.—The number of letters thus returned is 73, one of which contained a remittance of $5,097, and another of $5,000. Mr. White, the postmaster, has been severely censured for their supposed loss, by several of the papers, but it turns out they never reached his office until Saturday last.

AN INSIDE POLITICAL HISTORY.—We learn from Washington, that Col. Benton, who is now in that city, is engaged in the preparation of a history of the working of the government, from the day he took his seat in the U. S. Senate, to the 4th of March last, a period of 31 consecutive years, during which he was a member of that body. Into that history he will doubtless incorporate sundry extracts from his speeches, some of which have been marked with extraordinary ability and research.

DRINKING BRANDY FOR A WAGER.—At New York, on Wednesday, the coroner held an inquest on the body of Michael McGovern, who killed himself by drinking two pints and a half of brandy, on a wager, with a man named Fox. The latter, as well as Hannegan, the barkeeper who sold the liquor, have been arrested on a charge of manslaughter.

HON. ALBERT CONSTABLE.—The Argus announces that Albert Constable, Esq., will be a candidate for Circuit Judge in the Sixth Judicial Circuit, composed of Cecil, Harford and Baltimore counties, and thinks him a marvelously proper candidate.

Mrs. Judson (Fanny Forrester) left Calcutta in January, for the United Stands, by way of England, and is now daily expected home.

The Greenville (S. C.) Patriot, says the largest slaveholders in that State are against secession, while the small holders are for it.

EASTON ACADEMY, June 14th, 1851.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees held this day, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously passed:

Whereas, the President of this board, since our last meeting, has departed this life,—and believing that duty to ourselves, as well as to the deceased, requires that the event should be suitably noticed; therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of Theod. R. Loockerman, Esq., this Institution has lost a finished scholar and warm friend, and the cause of education an ardent and consistent supporter.

Resolved, That we desire to bear testimony to the high respect which we entertain for the character of the departed, and to tender to his surviving family our sincere condolence and sympathy.

Resolved, that the Secretary be requested to enclose a copy of these resolutions to the family of the deceased, and to cause the same to be printed in the papers of the town.

NO CREDIT.—In consequence of the reduction of Postage on the first of July, the undersigned has determined to adopt the Cash system after that date. Not being authorized to give credit for postage, he has heretofore done so on his own responsibility, and at an average loss of about $20 per quarter, a loss which he will be unable to sustain under the new law, as the labors of the office will be increased, and the remuneration probably be reduced. One quarter's postage on Newspapers and Magazines must be paid in advance, during the first week of each quarter, otherwise they will not be delivered.

Persons in the country to whom an account is a great convenience, can settle quarterly by depositing the probable amount of their postage in the Post Master's hands at the commencement of the quarter.
