April Term 1868

Fifth cross interrogatory

Where and when did you get the sample of brocade which you have produced here.

Answer

Why it was in 1857, in the summer season when I had the work done, I had been sick and I took my time doing it. I took the materials to my house and I did it as over work. I got this sample here, (witness refers to the piece of brocade produced during his examination in chief) from my house in Philadelphia. I got it, I think it was on the 12th of this month. I got this at home, No, it wasnt, it was the 13th, for I didnt get to Philadelphia until then

Sixth Cross Interrogatory

Do you now reside in the same house that you occupied when you worked for Robert Chatterton in Second Street

Answer

No Sir

Seventh Cross Interrogatory

How often have you changed your place of residence since you worked for Robert Chatterton

Answer

Seven times. I think my wife has changed since I have been out soldiering. I think I have counted those times in. I am the husband of Elizabeth Kelly who informed me she had been examined in Philadelphia as a witness in this case

Eighth Cross Interrogatory

Have you taken this sample of brocade with you from one house to another every time you

April Term 1868

moved,

Answer

Yes Sir, it has been in the bureau drawer, when I came to look there I found it

9th x Were you requested to produce this sample If yea, by whom

Answer

By Myself. Nobody asked me to get it

Tenth Cross interrogatory

When did you last see John Chatterton,

Answer

I saw him here the other day, Friday or Saturday at the Rising Sun in Baltimore. He only stopped a short while by the store and then went right out in the yard

Eleventh Cross interrogatory

Are you in the Army at this time. If yea how long have you been so & to what company & regiment do you belong.

Answer

Yes Sir, I enlisted in Dec 6th 1861, 23rd Pennsylvania Regiment Company C.

Twelfth Cross interrogatory

Where is your regiment at this time

Answer

Well when I left them it was about a mile & a half from Brandy Station with General Meade. I left Brandy Station on the 10th of December 1863.

Thirteenth Cross Interrogatory

Did you recognize the furniture at Mr Chattertons by the brocade with which it was covered