April Term 1868

much a like. I sometimes forget to cross my Ts and he always crosses his Ts and dots his Is.

Ninth Cross interrogatory

Is not your recollection about the events so far back as 1856 very poor

Answer

It is very poor. I have a very poor memory.

Robert T. Scarborough, a witness of lawful age produced on the part of the defendant being duly sworn by me upon the Holy Evangely of Almighty God & examined to the interrogatories filed with the Commissioners by the defendants solicitor & herewith returned, deposeth & saith as follows;

First Interrogatory

Were do you reside and what is your business

Answer

I reside in Baltimore, my business is carpenter by trade

Second Interrogatory

Do you know Robert and John Chatterton

Answer

Yes Sir.

Third Interrogatory

Was or not John Chatterton at the Rising Sun Tavern in Baltimore on Saturday the 19th December last

Answer

No Sir, not to my knowledge. I was there at the time

Fourth Interrogatory

Was or not Robert W. Chatterton at the Rising

April Term 1868

Sun on Friday the 18th December last. If yes state whether any one was there with him & who it was

Answer

He was there he came on the night of the 17th Thursday. There was a Soldier with him whom he said was Peter Kelly

Fifth Interrogatory

Was or not John Chatterton there Friday the 18th Dec. If Yes, at what time in the day how long & whether or not the person you have mentioned as being there with Robert Chatterton saw John Chatterton there.

Answer

John Chatterton came into the Rising Sun between seven and eight in the morning as near as I can remember on Friday the 18th of December. I dont think he was in the Bar room over five minutes. He had no opportunity of seeing him to my knowledge

Sixth Interrogatory

State if you know where Robt W. Chatterton and the person with him were at the time John Chatterton was in the bar room

Answer

I cant state where they were at that time. They were not in the bar room

Seventh Interrogatory

Did or did not any one enquire of you or the proprietor of the Rising Sun that morning whether John Chatterton had been there. If yes, who was it that made the inquiry

Answer